

...the principles set forth in the following resolutions, offered in the United States Senate by the Hon. Jefferson Davis, on the 2d of February last, and should they be unable to obtain a clear recognition of the principles thus set forth so far as they relate to slavery in the Territories, then it shall be the duty of the Louisiana delegation to retire from the Convention and refer the matter back to the people of the State for further action.

These resolutions we are unable to give in full. The fourth resolution of Mr. Davis denies the right of either Congress or the Territorial Legislatures, directly or indirectly, to impair the right of slaveholders to carry their slaves into the Territories. It further declares that in case the judiciary is found to be incompetent to carry out this constitutional right, it becomes the duty of Congress to protect the rights of the slaveholder in the Territories.

A subsequent resolution declares that a Territory has a right to decide on the institution of slavery only when they come to form a State Constitution. Mr. Lawrence thought he had the floor, and that he had it for some time. He moved that the vote be called by parishes.

Mr. J. L. McCaully moved to refer the foregoing resolutions to the Committee on Resolutions. Dr. Bard called for his motion to lay upon the table.

Mr. Pearce, of Bienville, moved that the further reading of the substitute of Mr. Lott, still pending, be dispensed with, and that the resolutions and substitute be referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

Mr. Gusman insisted on a vote on his resolution. He wanted to know how gentlemen stood. Mr. Tucker thought the proper course was to call the roll by parishes. He agreed with the gentleman from Plaquemine in this respect.

Mr. Chas. H. Mouton, of St. Landry, wanted to know if some action was not to be taken on the resolution of the gentleman from East Baton Rouge. He thought that any proposition from a gentleman on the floor of the Convention should be treated with respect.

The President stated that the question would be on the resolution of the member from St. Mary to appoint a Committee on Resolutions. Mr. Duncan, of Carroll, understood a motion to come from the other side of the house to refer the resolutions to the Committee on Resolutions.

Mr. Gantt said the motion was laid on the table subject to call. Mr. Herron said there was already a motion to lay the resolutions of the gentleman from East Baton Rouge, and the substitute of the gentleman from Carroll, indefinitely on the table. This motion had been previously made by Mr. Delony, of Carroll. After a very considerable degree of confusion, and the introduction of motions, cross motions and suggestions from the other side of the house. Mr. C. H. Mouton, offered the following substitute to the resolutions already offered, to wit:

Resolved, That the Democracy of Louisiana pledge themselves to vote for the nominee of the Charleston Convention who will stand on the Democratic platform to be framed by said Convention.

All these resolutions were finally referred to the Committee on Resolutions. The Rules of the House of Representatives of the State, were, on motion of Mr. Texada, adopted for the government of the Convention.

The Committee on Resolutions, appointed by the President, was as follows: Messrs. Alexander Mouton of Lafayette, A. Talbot of Iberville, Pratt of St. Landry, T. J. Semmes of New Orleans, C. H. Mouton of Ouachita, E. C. Davidson of Sabine, and Matthews of Morehouse.

On motion the Convention took a recess until 6 o'clock. The Convention again assembled at about 8 o'clock, p. m.

Mr. Mills of Assumption, presented a protest from the delegates of St. John the Baptist, Lafourche, Assumption, and Ascension, against the previous motion of the Convention.

This was ordered to be spread upon the minutes. On motion of Mr. Phillips, of Point Coupee, the several Districts were called and made the following nominations for delegates to the Charleston Convention, one from each District for the State at large, and two from each Congressional District, to wit:

First District—E. LaSere, at large; E. Lawrence, and F. H. Hatch for the District. Second District—R. Taylor, at large; John Tarleton and D. D. Withers, for the District.

Third District—A. Talbot, at large; J. A. McHatton and Chas. Jones, of Catahoula for the District. Fourth District—R. A. Hunter, at large; B. W. Pearce and A. Mouton for the District.

The nominations were confirmed by the Convention. The following electors and sub-electors were then nominated and agreed to, to wit:

First District—O. Rosseau and Pierre Lacoste. Second District—Bernard Avegno, and C. D. Yancey of New Orleans. Third District—Trasmond Landry and F. S. Goode.

Fourth District—B. B. Semmes and J. LeBlanc. Fifth District—Jules Olivier, and K. Elgee. Sixth District—Wm. M. Levy and Wm. R. Peck.

The names mentioned second in each district are those of the sub-electors.

Mr. Herron rose and said that he was instructed to offer the following resolution, to wit:

Resolution, instructing the Louisiana delegation to vote for John C. Breckinridge as the first choice of the Louisiana Democracy for President.

On the adoption of this resolution the vote stood ayes 44, nays 190. Gov. Alexander Mouton then reported from the Committee a series of resolutions, which will be hereafter given in full.

Mr. Herron again offered a general amendment to the resolution, instructing for Breckinridge. Laid on the table—ayes 233 and nays 29.

The resolutions were read and taken up separately. Mr. Herron offered a very lengthy substitute to the third resolution which touched upon the question of slavery in the Territories. The resolution, in its preamble, set forth the conflicting opinions on this subject, and concluded by declaring the inexpediency of any expression of opinion either on one side or the other. Messrs. Herron and Gray, at some length advocated the full force and necessity of the adoption of the resolution.

They were answered in a clear, pointed and able manner by Mr. T. J. Semmes of New Orleans. The substitute of Mr. Herron was laid on the table by ayes 212, nays 34.

The seventh and last resolution was read as follows: Resolved, That while refusing instructions to our delegates, in the desire that they may proceed to Charleston untrammelled, yet the Democracy of Louisiana, having the utmost confidence in the patriotism, ability, and statesmanship of the Hon. John Sidel, consider him eminently qualified for the office of President of the United States.

Mr. Gusman moved to strike out this resolution; lost—ayes 34, nays 206. The resolution was then adopted. The President was empowered to appoint a State Executive Committee.

The thanks of the Convention voted to its officers, and the Convention adjourned sine die.

PLAQUEMINE:

Saturday, March 10, 1860.

We issue another Supplement this week, that we may have room for our advertisements, and space sufficient to give a creditable quantity of reading matter. We trust this is reliable proof of our determination to do full justice to our subscribers and advertising friends, and that we are never to be excelled by any competition.

We have again to return thanks to Senator SIDELL and Hon. T. G. DAVIDSON, for Washington papers and important Congressional documents.

We return thanks to Hon. V. J. DUPUY for continued attentions in the way of late papers and important public documents. To Hon. CHAS. A. BRUSLE, also, and to Senator TALBOT, and our friend J. H. RILLS, Esq., we acknowledge our indebtedness for past favors of a Legislative character.

It will be observed in the State Convention proceedings, that our fellow-citizen, Hon. A. TALBOT, has been nominated from this Third Congressional District, as a Delegate to the Charleston Convention "for the State at large."

A glimpse a few days since at the present erect frame, glowing countenance, and increased obesity and portliness of our old acquaintance Judge W. B. ROBERTSON, satisfies us that the weight and responsibilities of the "judicial ermine" to all sensitive and honorable men, are, in most cases, very prejudicial to health. Long may the Judge enjoy that perfect health and vigor which seem so prominently interwoven in his own person.

WILBERT tells the people this week that he has just received an addition to his elegant stock of Furniture.

It will be observed, by reference to the advertisement on the fourth page, that the sale of valuable lands, &c., lying in this parish, and belonging to Hon. JAS. L. COLE and to heirs of A. N. CROFFES, dec'd., will take place next Tuesday at the "Rebecca Plantation," the residence of Judge COLZ.

We refer our readers to the advertisement of our young friend R. A. OMBLON, who has just received a new addition to his stock of very acceptable articles. Give him a call—his groceries are very superior and very cheap.

The rivers above are reported to be falling.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

In our columns to-day we publish the Advocate's account of the State Convention. When half in type, we noticed that it was not official. There is no difference between the two, we believe, except that the Preamble and Resolutions read by Maj. Herron, and the Resolutions presented by the Committee, are not embraced in the account we give. The former were offered as a substitute for the third official resolution, but was voted to be laid on the table. Next week we shall give the report of the Committee on Resolutions, regretting that we cannot do so at present.

Every one of those resolutions was voted on separately, and carried. This was done on the motion of Maj. Herron. The vote was en bloc, we presume, and by the usual majority of 223 to 29.

The matter is thus clinched beyond any peradventure that those Resolutions embrace the sentiments of the Democracy of Louisiana. It is furthermore shown that it has an abiding faith in the "patriotism, ability and statesmanship of the Hon. John Sidel," and although not recommending him as a candidate for the Presidency—choosing to extend to delegates the fullest latitude of action and sentiment, according as circumstances might arise—yet the Convention—the Democracy of Louisiana—fully enforce him as possessing all these requirements necessary for the exalted position of Chief Magistrate of the nation.

Whether Mr. Sidel is ever nominated for that high office, or whether he ever again allows his name to be used as a candidate for the U. S. Senate, he can now retire from public life if he thinks proper, with the pride of knowing that the Democracy of Louisiana has declared, in the sense if not in the same words, that there is no office in the gift of the people too elevated for his merits and his services.

Thus, it would seem, the cup of his political fame, "is full to overflowing." He, of all men, has just cause to be proud of the results of the Convention.

We therefore trust, that the spirit that animated the late Convention, and the spirit of its Resolutions, will be the means of again restoring to good fellowship and harmonious participation in our Democratic councils those gallant and talented brethren who have for a season been out of the old, beaten, Democratic track; there is no need for further differences—further prejudices and heart burnings—and scarcely any use, we should think, for further struggles for local mastery or triumph.

A determined and unanimous expression of disapprobation by the parishes of the State in council assembled—a decided and unmistakable denunciation by the Democracy at large—of the course and sentiments of that fractional portion of the Democracy which have arrayed itself against the whole—should we think be taken as sufficient evidence that such course and such sentiments are distasteful to the rank and file of the great Democratic army, and that further persistence in such action and expression, amounts to the verriest folly, to say the least.

Wisdom, then, patriotism, honor and generosity dictate that "the hatch et should be buried." The "skeliton in the house" has existed long enough. Let the epoch of the late Convention commence the date of harmony and united action among the Democracy of Louisiana. It cannot afford to see buried in the shades of oblivion and forgetfulness those bright intellects and herculean abilities which in times past have done such noble work for their party. We trust—sincerely trust—that we have heard the last of those cognomens which are applied to or another class of Democrats. Let there be, to distinguish the Democrats of Louisiana, but one name, one banner, one motto and one motive!

THE STATE FAIR.—The State Fair to be held in Baton Rouge, commences next Monday and continues for five days. We trust that Iberville will be well represented on the occasion, and that it will be the inauguration of a system or custom which cannot fail to prove highly beneficial to the interests and character of the State.

M. WILLIAMS advertises new clothing just received. Any one having a negro girl to hire can probably do so by applying there.

A NEW SAW-MILL FIRM.—It will be seen by reference to advertisement that Mr. ERNEST HEBERT, having purchased out the interest of Mr. CLAUDE, has united himself with Mr. MAILLO in the business of the Plaquemine Saw Mill, and solicits a share of the public patronage. The Saw Mill on the Bayou is an important "institution," and we have no question that the future prosperity of our town will call for all lumber that friend HEBERT can turn out with his sharp circular saws, through the aid of steam, backed by his own unflinching strength, energy and industry.

PROF. WILSON.—This distinguished Cenotaphist artist has, or is about to close a very successful season in Plaquemine. But this is nothing for WILSON. Success follows him wherever he goes. It is the natural consequence of the admirable manner in which he executes his peculiar art, and of his general system of business. It is unnecessary for us to wish him future prosperity, because his artistic ability and rules of business to which we allude, are as certain of pecuniary reward as a country editor is of debt, poverty and abuse. We wish him every happiness—which means a wife, the respect of the editorial fraternity, and a "pocket full of rocks." The two last he already possesses. Few men are so near elysium—one more heroic struggle, and he will enjoy the full meed of human bliss—according to an editor's construction.

A DESERVED REBUKE.

The full proceedings of the State Convention, held at Baton Rouge, will be found in our telegraphic columns. The result, says the New Orleans Courier, is what we had anticipated. As will be seen by reference to the list of delegates appointed to the Charleston Convention, and the Presidential electors, they are intact on the score of their genuine Democracy. The Convention have expressed their highest confidence in the administration of Mr. Buchanan, and the Hon. John Sidel fully shared the confidence expressed in behalf of our Chief Magistrate. The Convention moreover unanimously expressed the utmost confidence in the patriotism and ability of the Hon. John Sidel, and considered him eminently qualified for the Presidency.

This declaration was sanctioned by a vote of 253 in favor, against 29 dissenting, which were given in support of Mr. Herron's amendment, instructing the delegates to make choice of John C. Breckinridge, of Ky. As regards Mr. Douglas's name, it seemed to have worked the same influence upon the Convention which the Greek letters did upon the memory of the famous classical scholar, who knew their faces quite well, but could not call their names.—The name was not even whispered.

Da. Tarleton, whose letter to the Hon. M. Taylor was some time ago reproduced in our columns, and Jules Olivier, it will be seen, were among the first appointed—one as delegate to the Convention, the other as a Presidential elector. More just and timely rebuke to the teachings of the confidence man of the Second District could not have been better expressed.

TOWN IMPROVEMENTS.—We are glad to perceive that Mr. J. BRE. ROTI is putting up a double brick store house on his lot corner of Main and Bank streets, to be a three story, as we learn and very substantially built. Mr. H. KILLAR is the builder, and Mr. O. MARIONNEAU to do the carpenter's work. On Bank street, nearly opposite to their present stand, J. McWILLIAMS & Co. are also putting up a double or treble brick building, in a substantial and elegant manner, to be occupied as their dry goods, hardware and grocery establishments. Mr. MRCHELL is the builder, and Mr. Wm. HART, we believe, to do the carpenter's work. Both of these buildings, we presume, will soon be completed, which, with the other improvements now going on in the town and suburbs, presents a very fair picture of the general prosperity of Plaquemine. We are not aware of a single shop, store room or dwelling in town that is now vacant. What Plaquemine will grow to in five years, after the Police Jury closes Bayou Plaquemine, is difficult to imagine, so rapid will be its progress, through the instrumentality of the rich and magnificent back lands, immediately in the rear and embracing a vast district of country, which will then be thrown open to settlers and producers. Hasten the good time along, say we.

SALES OF VALUABLE PLANTATION PROPERTY.—The sale to effect a partition, of the Iron Plantation, just below town—one-half of it, we believe, belonging to the heirs of S. M. LYNCH—took place last Saturday as advertised, being sold en bloc. It contained some eight hundred arpents, and about one hundred slaves, (old and young, &c., &c.) and was purchased in by the Messrs. DESONEY, joint owners with said heirs—for the sum of $149,000. It is thought to be an excellent bargain for the purchasers.

The plantation belonging to the estate of Mrs. Martha Smith, situated on Bayou Grasse Tete, also took place last Saturday. It consisted, we are told, for we did not read the advertisement, of some 2100 acres, 175 of which are cleared and under cultivation, some mile or two from the bayou—and some forty odd negroes, plantation and household movables, &c. It was sold on terms equivalent to cash, and was purchased, we are happy to hear, by our esteemed fellow-citizen, Dr. T. G. GARRETT, of Grosse Tete, one of the heirs we believe, who has for years been the representative of its interests. It has heretofore been cultivated as a cotton plantation.

SCARLET FEVER.—We are sorry to learn that this disease, generally so fatal to children, is at present prevailing in our town; it is said, however, to be of a mild character. There is no disease, perhaps, save the small pox, that is more alarming to parents than this.

In a speech which a minority gentleman was making in the Convention on Monday last, he had occasion to make use of the term dore-tail, when another gentleman arose and begged permission to record his opposition, in that Convention, to all tails, except long tails. We believe it was allowed.

THE CHARLESTON CONVENTION.—This body will consist of 303 members, the same number as that of the votes cast for President. By the two-thirds rule, 202 will be necessary to a choice.

The Boston Traveller says that in that city a majority of the children born are of foreign parentage, chiefly Irish, and that the same is probably the case in many of the large places in this and other New England States. In the town of Newton, which has a population of about 8,000, some 1,200 are Irish, and the total number of births during the year 1859 was 206, of which 100 were from Irish parents, 14 of other foreign parents and only 92 of American parents.

READING FOR THE MILLION.

The President, it is said, disapproves of Gov. Houston's designs or policy with reference to Mexico; Col. Lee, it is believed, will be able to right all things on the Rio Grande. The Spaniards have taken the important Moorish city of Tetuan—immense rejoicings have in consequence taken place in Havana. Napier, the English historian, is dead. Nothing further has been discovered as the result of the O'Reilly inquest in New Orleans, than the fact of her death being caused by arsenic, but whether administered by her own hands or by those of her seducer, is the mystery. She was an Irish school-mistress. A boy named Tom, a regular plantation darkey, is being exhibited in New Orleans, who gives performances on the Piano; he throws back his head and rolls up his eyes like a sick monkey, and dashes off the most difficult and beautiful pieces of music. Mr. Bouligny, like Messrs. Taylor and Davidson, has "written a letter," he takes ground for Douglas, and advises his party to vote with the Democracy for the Presidency. The late English, Whitworth gun, throws a ball five miles with the precision of a rifle. The new Dome of the Capitol at Washington, weighs 3,700 tons, and cost $984,000. The National Unionites hold their Convention in Baltimore on the 9th May. A man named Chase, arrested in New Orleans for endeavoring to make slaves of free blacks, tries to get out on habeas corpus, on the plea that there is no law of this State forbidding the bringing of free colored persons into it and making slaves of them. The Gov. of Tenn., in a communication to the Legislature, objects to a convention of Southern States. A company of 52 counterfeiters were recently arrested at Lexington, Ky., while engaged in the mysteries of their vocation. It is said that Mexico Miramon is coming to the United States, with a Mexican eagle and any number of pikes and greasers at his heels. The Clay statue it is expected will be erected on Canal street, New Orleans, on the 12th of April, the birthday of the great Commoner. A young man a few days back in New Orleans victimized almost every one he tried to; he got all he wanted except shirts; he tried Moody for the shirts—but Moody wasn't in the mood to be victimized—and thus the fellow's dodge died out. A woman in Mobile quarreled with her husband, took arsenic and killed herself. A young man in Georgetown, Ky., hung himself last week because a gal would't marry him—two fools out of the way. A few days since, four children of a merchant in Chillicothe lay dead at one time in the house, from putrid sore throat. The pleasantest things in the world are pleasant thoughts. The King of Siam has named his youngest son George Washington. Hickman, like Sumner, is said to be in a precarious state of health since he got his hat knocked off his head by a Southerner.
