

The latest heard of Douglas, he was in Raleigh, N. C., coming South in search of his wife's grandmother.

We publish two campaign songs this week—one on our first page, and the other, by a gentleman of Plaquemine, on the third page, whose animating chorus we expect to hear the boys shouting in real patriotic style from this to November.

AN AMERICAN CARDINAL.—It is reported that Pope Pius IX. has determined to place the red hat, the symbol of the Cardinalate, upon the head of Archbishop Hughes, of New York, in September. If so, he will be the first American Cardinal—a new thing in this Western Republic.

LINCOLN'S CABINET.—We hear it rumored in political circles here, so says the Washington Star, as coming from reliable Republican sources, that the following is to be the composition of Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet, in case of his election: Wm. H. Seward, Secretary of State; Henry Winter Davis, Attorney General; John Sherman, Secretary of the Treasury; Cassius M. Clay, Secretary of the Interior; Benjamin F. Wade, Secretary of the Navy; John Hickman, Secretary of War; Schuyler Colfax, Postmaster-General.

AVOYELLES AND POINT COUPEE.—A letter from a well-informed source says that Breckinridge's majority in Avoyelles will be 600, and Point Coupee 300, over all the candidates. These two parishes are in a blaze of enthusiasm.

Gen. Lamoriciere continues to have trouble with the Irish brigade at Rome. It is said that he had ordered several to be shot and had sent about a hundred of them home.

The New York Tribune estimates that the crop of Indian corn cannot fall much short of 900,000,000 bushels, of wheat 160,000,000, and of oats 180,000,000; so that the United States have quite 30,000,000 bushels of wheat to spare foreign customers.

The Squatters boast that their candidate is a "man of parts." That's so. He is part politician, part autocrat, and demagogue.—He is part aspiration, part ability and part impudence. He is part gas and part brass.—so says the Alexandria Democrat.

LARGE FIRE IN MOBILE.—A number of buildings belonging to Messrs. Dandrill, Bond, Bloodgood and Ryland, near the railroad depot, Mobile, were consumed by fire Thursday afternoon. Loss, $30,000.

LOYALTY RUN MAD.—At Frederickton, N. B., the people unharnessed the Prince of Wales's horses and drew the carriage through the streets.

It is now stated that Miss Marion Bide water Ruggles is the author of "Rutledge." Miss Ruggles is of Southern birth, of Yankee education, and is now residing at a little village not far from Saco, Me.

DOUGLAS COLD TO THE KNEES!—It is almost sad to note, day by day, even the approach of a political death. Douglas was once in a commanding position. He rushed on his fate and a few weeks will see him deposited in the political grave yard. In nearly all the South, his leaders confess his weakness by their coalition with the friends of Bell. He is cold up to his knees! All will soon be over—and the worst is he will not have followers enough to make a respectable funeral procession! So says the Courier.

ANOTHER STRONG MAN OUT FOR BRECKINRIDGE AND LANE.—We learn from the Day Book that Thomas H. Seymour, the brave Colonel of the ninth regiment in the Mexican war, late Minister to Russia, and late Democratic candidate for Governor of Connecticut, (coming within 500 votes of carrying the State) has announced himself for Breckinridge and Lane. Col Seymour was at one time Governor of Connecticut, and is to-day one of the most popular Democrats in the North.

DOOMED TO BE DISAPPOINTED.—The Tribune, speaking with the authority of Mr. Greeley's experience, assures its readers that "the who deserts his work and his home to go shouting and singing at [Black Republican] mass meetings, in the blind hope that an office, or some lucky accident, will make all right, will very certainly be disappointed."

The absurd report (says the Boston Post) that the venerable Chief Justice of the Supreme Court has expressed sentiments favorable to the election of Douglas, thus stultifying his own decision, if it needs any denial, is utterly unfounded. Judge Taney takes no part in the canvass, but he is in favor of Breckinridge and Lane, and has freely expressed himself to that effect in private.

The most intense way of expressing contempt among the Douglasites in New Orleans, is to exclaim, "Go, I have no more to say! I scorn you as I do a glass of water!"

SALE OF FREE NEGROES.—At Petersburg, Va., a short time since, about 400 worthless free negroes were sold for non-payment of taxes, the buyers agreeing to pay ten cents per day for them.

STATE ELECTIONS BEFORE NOVEMBER.—Elections are to be held in the following States at the times named:

California, first Wednesday in September.

Florida, first Monday in October.

Georgia, first Monday in October.

Indiana, second Tuesday in October.

Iowa, second Tuesday in October.

Maine, second Tuesday in September.

Minnesota, second Tuesday in October.

Mississippi, first Monday in October.

Ohio, second Tuesday in October.

Pennsylvania, second Tuesday in October.

South Carolina, second Monday in October.

Vermont, first Thursday in September.

MR. ROSELINS.—In a speech which this gentleman made a short time since, he uttered the following sentiments:

He laid down with great perspicuity the different doctrines enunciated in the Dred Scott decision, particularly that in reference to the right of the people of the various States to emigrate to the Territories with their slaves and other property, subject alone to the requirements of the Constitution. The doctrine of Squatter-Sovereignty being in open contradiction and opposition with this judicial decision, Mr. Douglas, he thought, was a dangerous man to be elevated to the Presidency. These are good Democratic sentiments, and are identically the same as those laid down in our platform and entertained by our Presidential standard-bearers. As Mr. Roselins expressed the opinion that he had a chance of converting Mr. Soule to his doctrines, we may expect before long to have the pleasure of announcing the support of these two distinguished speakers to our glorious cause. Be this as it may, we learn that several persons who were on the ground, undecided as yet in their political opinions, but convinced of the meagerness of Bell and Everett's chances, expressed at once, upon hearing Mr. Roselins' speech, their determination to vote for Breckinridge and Lane. Hundreds are coming!—Courier.

Again the military spirit is aroused in France by the departure of soldiers for another war. A year ago it was Lombardy; later to China; today it is to the Holy Land. The cry "partant pour la Syrie!" is sounded by every trooper's horn in the Empire. What was to the Queen Hortense a romance is to her son a reality. How little did she comprehend, when she was penning the notes of this beautiful march, the destiny that awaited them, or the events that were to again make them the rallying cry of a French army bound for the Holy Land? And what now must be the feelings of Louis Napoleon when he hears the military bands starting for the East playing this production of his dearly-loved mother?

CAPT. TRAVIS.—The king of marksmen not satisfied with the host of victories he has achieved, now offers to wager $250 that he can hit a mark without seeing it, and that the mark shall be behind a tree. He says:

The judge shall select a tree not less than six feet in circumference. A board target six by five inches in size shall be placed behind the tree at a distance of thirty yards from my position. I shall not see the target but with my pistol will shoot around the tree, and out of twenty shots will hit the target fifteen times, making the ball go around the tree before striking the target. The match to come off within twenty days from this (25th) in Arkansas, within three miles from the city of Memphis; the place to be selected by the judges.

DOUGLAS AND BELL IN MARYLAND.—A friend writes us from Berlin, Worcester county, Maryland, that out of the five hundred voters in the Berlin district, only seventeen can be scared up for Douglas, Lincoln and Bell. Douglas has five of the number, three of whom are rank Abolitionists. The Breckinridge men in Berlin have thrown to the breeze a magnificent flag, bearing upon its folds the glorious names of our candidates.—N. Y. Day Book.

The rivers above are still low.

For the Gazette and Sentinel. "COME NOW BRAVE BOYS," Breckinridge and Lane Campaign Song. Dedicated to the Plaquemine Breckinridge and Lane Club.

Come now brave boys, and join the cry Of "Breckinridge and Lane!" Our battle-cries are "do or die!" "For Principles, not Men!"

Come join the band of patriots then, And fight with heart and hand; We'll lead the lions in their den And drive them from the land. CHORUS.

Hurrah! hurrah for Breckinridge! Kentucky's favorite son— We'll place him in the chair of State, With Lane of Oregon!

We hold that they are true and tried— Faithful to every trust; They are their country's greatest pride— Conquer with them we must! "Equality" is our demand— And "Constitutional right"— And Breck and Lane, in "Chair" or "stand," Will guard them in their might. CHORUS—"Hurrah! hurrah, &c."

Up then brave boys, obey "ROLL CALL!" Your country needs you and; Her glory, pride, her honor—all, Her enemies invade. Your armor tightly buckle on, And out into the field; Oh! let the cry go on and on— "Our enemies must yield!" CHORUS—"Hurrah! hurrah, &c."

"Partant pour la Syrie," the national air of France under Louis Napoleon, comes in very appropriately just now, when the French Government is about sending its troops to Syria to intervene in the disturbances there.

One of them, placed quite out of the way of the sun, will light a train of kettles brilliantly, and takes no more oil than one of the old lamps.
