This Is My 62nd Birthday

SIR WILLIAM G. FALCONBRIDGE.
Sir William G. Falconbridge, chief justice of the court of the King's Bench for Ontario, was born in Drummondville, Ont., May 12, 1846. His education was received principally at the University of Toronto, where his course was one of unusual distinction inasmuch as he received high honors in nearly every department of the curriculum. After his graduation in 1866 he filled for a year the chair of modern languages in Yarmouth college, Nova Scotia. He returned to Toronto on being appointed lecturer on Italian and Spanish at University college. He studied law and was called to the bar in 1871. In 1887 he was appointed a judge of the Queen's Bench division of the supreme court of judicature of Ontario, and later chief justice of the King's Bench division of the high court of justice of Ontario, which position he now fills.

"Things equal to the same thing are equal to each other," remarked a man seated at a cafe table, by the way of proving what he had said. "Oh, well," replied his friend, "that's true enough, algebraically, but—did it ever occur to you that there's a whole lot of difference between being shot and half shot twice?"

The May Festival

During the months that have passed since the last May with its musical festival there has not been much said about the activities which were then on everyone's lips.

Do you remember how the whole town went into a burst of appreciation and enthusiasm over what was done here last year? Musical critics and journals of the highest standing spoke not only well of the work—but classed it as a thing apart—a native growth of unusual vigor unheard of in America.

Those who are quietly working—and who have been working for weeks and weeks—not because they wished applause—nor yet with the sole idea of service to the community—but because the thing was in them will get their applause and do their service to the community.

In the crowding in of other things this side of Richmond has not been forgotten. People here have shown that they are above the form of appreciation that depends on foreign names and metropolitan reputations to receive support. The time has been and is not apt to return when Richmond could not understand that it was more valuable to have a sturdy growth of things here than to import orchestras of fame.

It is a good town to live in when things like the May Festival are known and valued from the standard of the music produced, and when the standard of music can be maintained here by men and women and children who live here. There is scarcely a family in Richmond that has not been touched and benefited by the forces at work in the May Festival—it is a part of Richmond.

This Your Girl?

"Young girls with trim tailored suits and natty hats with snooded hair and fresh round faces; girls who ought to be home with mother and father, are to be seen upon the streets without escort, or in groups of two or three at hours long past curfew time, on any night in the week. There is, however, something in the round faces that grips a little at the heart, and there is too often a swagger to the light-footed walk that seems out of harmony with sweet girlhood. There is a quick retort, a flippant jest from their lips, a bold glance or a brazen stare from the eyes that should be veiled in maiden modesty. Poor little girls, not to know how much more precious than all things born they are, when they properly estimate their own worth, and prize themselves at it? But they come to be unprized by themselves, neglected by their proper protectors, and taken at their own estimate by the world. It isn't their fault. Most of them have mothers and fathers who can tell them of the pitfalls that lie in the path of vanity and disobedience. Most of them have homes that should be their shelter after the sun goes down, and most of them would listen to advice properly given—and in time. The mother and father who think their duty done in sending their young daughter to school, dressed as well as the neighbor's girl, will have a lot to answer for some day." Bishop McPaul.

TURF MEN TURN EYES TO KENTUCKY DERBY

(American News Service)
Louisville, Ky., May 12.—The great racing event on the Western turf will be decided tomorrow afternoon at Churchill Downs, when the thirty-seventh annual renewal of the classic Kentucky Derby will be decided. The event will mark the opening of the spring meeting of the New Louisville Jockey club. In view of the discouraging conditions surrounding the sport of kings in most parts of the country the keen interest that is manifested in the Louisville meeting this year and particularly in the Derby is regarded as somewhat remarkable. It is estimated that more than 30,000 people will be on hand to witness the great event tomorrow.

From present indications it is not likely that more than five or six horses will start in the Derby. What the field lacks in quantity, however, will be made up in quality. Round the World, the sensational filly from the south, Governor Gray and Meridian are regarded as sure starters. Round the World continues a favorite in the betting. The Derby has never been won by a filly, though many have contended for it, and some turfmen are of the opinion that Round the World will weaken under the strain of the mile and a quarter route.

When the bishop of Thetford was opening a bazaar at Norwich he told a story of a man who was ordered to be bled by leeches, and whose wife on a subsequent visit of the medico, said: "Those little worm things were no good so I got a ferret and put it on him and it did him a power of good."

NATURE TELLS YOU

As Many a Richmond Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Infrequent or too frequent action; Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for kidney ills. People in this vicinity testify to this.

W. F. Stevenson, Church St., Cambridge City, Ind., says: "I gladly confirm all I said in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills, when I publicly recommended them in 1907. Backache caused me much suffering and I also had pains through my loins. I felt tired and worn out all the time and had but little ambition. My kidneys were weak and the kidney secretions looked unnatural. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved all my aches and pains and acted as a tonic, in fact, brought greater benefit than any other medicine I had ever taken. I advise my friends and neighbors suffering from kidney complaint to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Mulburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ROUTINE MATTERS

Took Much Time at Board of Works Meeting.

The board of works on Thursday morning ordered plans and specifications prepared for a cement alley between South Twelfth and Fourteenth streets, being the first south of Main street. A petition for this improvement was presented.

On the report of City Engineer Charles, that the sewer between South Tenth and Eleventh street, running from South H and I street, was completed, the assessment roll was ordered prepared.

At a cost of $50 lockers will be installed for the firemen at the No. 2 hose house. There are lockers in all other fire houses of the city.

The contract for the improvement of South Eighteenth street, from A to B street, with cement sidewalk, curb and gutter on both sides of the street, and macadam roadway, was let on Thursday morning to Schneider Brothers. A contract for constructing a sewer from South I to J street, between Ninth and Tenth street, was let to Hipskink and Sons.

Bids were submitted to N. H. Johnson, on 200 barrels of cement to be used in the construction of the base for the new engine at the light plant, but the contract has not yet been let.

Harsh Coal and Supply company has the lowest bid it is believed although some features of the bids are yet to be investigated.

The board of works approved the F. P. Corcoran plat, near West Fifth and Chestnut streets. There are sixteen lots.

LITTLE ROCK PREPARES FOR VETERANS

(American News Service)

Little Rock, Ark., May 12.—During the coming week the eyes of all Confederate veterans, their families and friends will be turned toward this city where the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans will hold forth with an attendance that promises to be the largest of recent years.

The United Sons of Confederate Veterans and other affiliated organizations will also hold their annual meeting in Little Rock during the week.

For several months the local committee have been busy preparing for the welcome and entertainment of thousands of visitors. The arrangements are now practically complete and are declared to be of the most perfect and elaborate character. Throughout the period of the reunion the city will be decorated and illuminated as never before in her history.

Five thousand of the veterans will be accommodated in Camp Kavanaugh, the tented city that will be erected in City Park. Probably twice that number will be cared for in the hotels and boarding houses of the city. Many private homes will also be thrown open for the entertainment of the visitors.

OTIS IS CONFIDENT

That the McNamaras Are the Guilty Ones.

(American News Service)

Chicago, May 12.—Gen. Harrison Gray Otis, millionaire, owner of the Los Angeles Times which was destroyed by an explosion, declared today that the evidence against John J. McNamara and his brother James, who are accused of having plotted and executed the explosion was enough to convict them.

"The approaching trials likely will be the greatest in the history of the country, because of the great interest attached by labor unions. I never doubted that the justice of Almighty God would culminate in the detection and punishment of the human murderers who were responsible for the explosion which ended the lives of 21 men."

CAN'T STAND VERSE OF POETIC SPOUSE

New York, May 11.—Mrs. Ada Anna Ruddy, wife of Professor of Language Hans Christian Ruddy, of the college of the City of New York, has filed suit for divorce, charging cruel and inhuman treatment. Some of the inhuman treatment, according to Mrs. Ruddy, consists of reading poems, principally his own to her.

"My husband," continued Mrs. Ruddy, "is daft over poetry. Why, on the day we were married he was found in his home reading poetry, having forgotten about the ceremony. His affinity in Boston is also poetic. She sent him the following quotation:

"Oh, for a touch of a vanished hand, and the sound of a voice that is still, the tender grace of a day that is dead, can never come back to me. He would recite Tennyson to me when I was trying to sleep."

Halifax, Nova Scotia, will expend $232,000 this year in extending its docks and piers. The city proposes also expending $200,000 for a ship-building plant. Ottawa, Canada, will construct a plaza to cost $225,000.

How She Keeps Her Baby Healthy—Test Free

An easy way for any mother to raise sturdy children

So far back as the memory of man goes every mother has had her own peculiar ideas about how to keep her children healthy. But women are getting to agree on the main point more and more, and that is that it is of first importance to keep the little one's bowels open.

From the bowels comes health or sickness. Unless a child is born diseased it can be kept healthy, and made to grow to vigorous maturity, if the bowels are kept free and pure in infancy and childhood. It is the main point for the mother to look after. The amount of romping and playing a child keeps its bowels moving naturally, but there comes a time when they overeat or eat something that does not agree, and then a laxative is absolutely necessary.

Don't wait until matters get worse—give a laxative at once. What laxative are you going to give? Stewed fruit and things of that kind? No, not when the child is really constipated. Give a scientific laxative, a formula based on forty years of experience with children. Such a laxative is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which thousands of mothers are already giving in these emergencies. It is the mainstay of the children of Mrs. J. E. Reichert, Richmond Hill, L. I., and numerous others.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. J. E. Reichert, 541 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.
