

LATEST GOSSIP OF THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 30.

Receipts, 5,500 hogs, 650 cattle, 500 calves and 500 sheep, showing a gain in all except sheep compared with a week ago and a gain in hogs but a loss in all other lines compared with a year ago.

Hogs. In proportion to the receipts heretofore this week there was a general, especially from local sources, and enough competition to strengthen the market. Some of the more desirable hogs sold 10c higher. There were only a few loads at the top of the market, and the bulk of the other good hogs sold from $6.00 to $6.50.

Cattle. There were about 400 cattle and calves that were either on consignment or not available for sale. Aside from that there was a good, steady demand for the week. The demand was not urgent and in most cases prices were barely steady. There were few in any line good enough to bring top prices. Bulls and calves were also steady.

Sheep. There was not a very large run of sheep and lambs, but the demand was steady. Lambs sold from $3.50 to $5.50 and sheep from $1 to $2.25.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 30.

Receipts, 5,500 hogs, 650 cattle, 500 calves and 500 sheep, showing a gain in all except sheep compared with a week ago and a gain in hogs but a loss in all other lines compared with a year ago.

Hogs. In proportion to the receipts heretofore this week there was a general, especially from local sources, and enough competition to strengthen the market. Some of the more desirable hogs sold 10c higher. There were only a few loads at the top of the market, and the bulk of the other good hogs sold from $6.00 to $6.50.

Cattle. There were about 400 cattle and calves that were either on consignment or not available for sale. Aside from that there was a good, steady demand for the week. The demand was not urgent and in most cases prices were barely steady. There were few in any line good enough to bring top prices. Bulls and calves were also steady.

Sheep. There was not a very large run of sheep and lambs, but the demand was steady. Lambs sold from $3.50 to $5.50 and sheep from $1 to $2.25.

REPRESENTATIVE SALES.

the eight months of the previous year. Exports for August amounted to $144,207,550, an increase over the same time last year of $134,000,248. The eight months' period also shows an increase, amounting to $1,200,725,000, over the same time last year.

DEMAND FOR WASH FABRICS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—The cotton goods markets are quiet and steady with prices somewhat easier on print cloth yarn fabrics. Local wool markets are quiet and steady with prices unchanged. The silk goods market is fair. Jobbers report a better forward trade in wash fabrics and white goods for the month's delivery.

GRAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 30. The wheat market was irregular and the balance of business was small. A disappointing feature to the bulls was the fact that the little public interest was taken in the declaration of war between Italy and Turkey. The market closed 1/2c lower.

The close in corn was irregular, being 1/2c lower for September, 1/2c higher for December and 1/2c up for May. Notwithstanding the fact that the strengthening feature of the market was the strengthening of the corn market, some principal buyers were good sellers.

The oats market ruled steady and there was an excellent class of buying. The market was lower for all grades and there was some liquidation by buyers in the corn and oats market. The market was under some pressure.
