FOURTH GAME WAS POSTPONED TODAY

Heavy Rain Made Shibe Park Sea of Mud—Connie Mack Confident.

(National News Association) PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—Today's game between the Giants and Athletics was called off at 11:30 by the National Commission. It will be played here tomorrow, weather permitting.

More than eight hours of continuous rainfall turned Shibe Park into an ocean of mud and water. At 8 o'clock a driving rain, whipped by a stinging breeze was churning the diamond into a quagmire. So hopeless was the outlook that not a fan was on hand at the park.

Hailed as conquerors and supremely confident that the big championship will remain the trophy of their prowess, the Athletics with two scalps at their belt were all ready for the fourth encounter. The Giants arrived from New York early.

A Respite for McGraw. In a way the respite of a day was a welcome gift to Manager McGraw. The New Yorkers have suffered from the fast pace set by the Quakers, coming, as it has, on the heels of the gruelling eleventh hour campaign that won them the National League premiership.

Following the second consecutive victory by the Athletics it became plain that the Giants are now fighting a last ditch battle and when they came to town, wreathed in gloom and grim determination, they were desperately determined to even up the string of victories by capturing the fourth game. Popular sentiment swung heavily over the locals as the batting showed. Wagers were made today at 3 to 2, with the Athletics on the short side, that he world's pennant will continue to fly here.

"We are not dead ones just because we lost yesterday," said McGraw at the Majestic hotel. "We still have much more than a fighting chance. New York is a mighty good betting proposition still and baseball is full of surprises."

Mack is Jubilant.

Manager Connie Mack, of the Athletics was jubilant.

"We are playing a faster game than the Giants and that is why we won on Monday and yesterday," said he. "They have no pitchers or substitute players that we are not on to. I have great confidence in my team and believe that the boys will hold the world's championship."

The total attendance at the three games was 101,783; the total cash receipts $195,914.50; National commission's share, $19,591.45; New York club owners' share $35,264.61; Philadelphia club owners' share, $35,264.61; players share $105,793.83.

If the weather had held fair today probably 35,000 fans would have turned out here as the interest in the series has increased in proportion to the Athletics' victories.

The fans believe that the Giants have lost confidence through the defeat of Mathewson yesterday. The moral support of Matty's initial victory over the Athletics buoyed up the team to a great extent, but that has now been wiped out, the jubilant natives declare.

Baker, they believe, is in line for anything from the White House down to a mere United States senatorship.

Prominent Suffragettes at Louisville Meeting

SUFFRAGETTES ARE TO HOLD CONCLAVE

Long Ones, Short Ones, Fat Ones and Lean Ones Meet at Louisville.

(National News Association)

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 18.—Suffragettes are here. Long ones, short ones, lean ones and fat ones, are being conveyed to their various hotels for the opening of the annual convention of the National Woman's Suffrage association, tomorrow.

The citizens have turned out in force to welcome them. Small boys herald their approach with, "Ooo, Look Jimmy, There's another one." Drivers decorate their steeds with suffrage buttons. The restaurants are advertising meals at "equal" prices. A "suffrage cocktail" has sprung into being. And before October 25th, the close of the convention, it is expected that even the butchers will wear aprons.

The present gathering is the greatest in the history of the National association. Women from all parts of the country have journeyed at their own expense to be present at its deliberations, for two matters of paramount importance to the cause will come before the delegates.

One of these will be a decision upon ways and means to further the fight for "equal rights" in America—a decision of pre-eminent importance for no less than five states have passed the suffrage bill and will submit the question of equal suffrage to their voters in the next elections.

The other is the presence of Miss Emmeline Pankhurst, head of the militant suffragette faction of England and the possibility that some important changes may be adopted in the American fight for equal suffrage through the exposition she will give of the success of English suffragist methods.

Hitherto the women of the United States have held aloof from the strenuous methods advocated by the disciples of Mrs. Pankhurst, preferring to conduct their campaigns with an orderliness that has rivaled the political campaigns of the great parties that go before the voters. With five fights on their hand in the near future, however, it is thought that some change may be made.

Already the assembled delegates have split into factions on the question of English suffragist methods, and today many of those present stated that they thought the more spectacular methods of the English women would prove most efficacious in dealing with the coming campaigns. This feeling seems to have been brought about by a realization that suffragette speakers and campaign managers cannot be so divided as to cowed the whole five states in a thorough manner.

On the other hand, a very strong body is against and deviation from the methods that have won several states to the side of equal suffrage. This faction holds that any undue display of the militant would do more harm than good.

With regard to the campaign themselves, it is said that strenuous efforts will be made to raise sufficient funds for the opening of offices and the dispatch of "spell-binders" to the states where the voters will decide the suffrage question. It was also stated here today that another self denial week may be inaugurated, though on a larger scale than the one held to raise funds for the recent suffrage election in California. Several other methods of raising money are also under consideration, and it is probable that the convention will adopt a definite plan for the raising of funds for suffrage fights of the future.

Another interesting feature of the meeting will be a discussion of the California election, with explanations of the campaign methods used and what is conceded to be the greatest fight American suffragettes have ever made for the adoption of their measures. Several speakers have been lected from among those in charge of the California campaign.

Those in charge of the convention, under the direction of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the association, who will preside at the convention, have arranged a series of entertainments to occupy the spare moments of the delegates and their friends. These entertainments surpass anything ever provided for suffrage assemblies in the past. A female quartet will sing the suffragette songs. A vaudeville entertainment will be given by members of the association. Moving pictures depicting the different phases of the suffrage movement will be presented. And the usual "College Night" will be included at which Miss M. Carey Thomas, president of Bryn Mawr will preside.

The list of speakers will include Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the Bureau of Chemistry; Miss Harriet May Mills, president of the New York Suffrage association; Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National association; Miss Laura Clay and many others.
