POST CARDS BEAR RUSSELL'S VERSES

A WORD OF CHRISTMAS CHEER

'Tis sweet to be remembered By the friends we love so dear, So I'm sending you this message With a word of Christmas cheer. May your joys each day grow brighter, As your duties you discharge, May our love for each grow tighter, And our usefulness enlarge.

The above poem, written by the late William E. Russell, who died last January, is appearing on Christmas cheer cards this year. Mr. Russell wrote the poem last December and it was accepted by a publishing house, and is now being distributed as holiday greetings. Mr. Russell was one of the most prominent members of the First Methodist church.

COLDER DAYS BRING OUT PLEA FOR COAL

The cold weather of the past week has resulted in number of calls at the office of Township Trustee Edgerton. During the past ten days, ten tons of coal has been distributed among the poor of the city. Compared with the records of last year, only about one third the amount of relief is given this year than was given last year through this office. The fact that so few men are out of work is the reason assigned by Mr. Edgerton for this condition. There are only twenty families on the regular relief list at the trustee's office.

At Movies Tonight

LYRIC. In "He Was Only a Bathing Suit Salesman," at the Lyric tonight. Harry Myers has produced a comedy which is distinctively out of the ordinary. First of all, it is an artistic triumph for Mr. Myers, from subtitles to location. The action is fast and furious and is staged in unusual surroundings. The comedy is not confined to park benches or hackneyed backgrounds but in its three reels takes us from Washington to Baltimore, to Philadelphia and then back to New York.

LOCAL FRIENDS HEAR ADDRESS BY WILSON

S. Edgar Nicholson and Charles E. Tebbetts, who are attending the Federal Council of Churches of America in Columbus, O., as members of the executive committee, will stay until the concluding session tonight, when President Woodrow Wilson will deliver a speech. Speakers before the convention have pointed out the dangers which confront the rural sections and before the conference is concluded it is expected that some definite plans for remedying the evils of which the speakers have been apprehensive will be worked out. Electricity has been used successfully in France for ripening cheese.

MILLIS TO ADDRESS JANUARY INSTITUTE

Prof. W. A. Millis, president of Hanover college, has accepted the invitation to address the January county teachers' institute. Prof. Millis is an authority on rural problems. He was one of the principal speakers at the State Charities convention in the rural life division.
