Excesses Committed by Germany Listed to Stamp Out Pro-German Propaganda.

(By Associated Press)
CHOCAGO, Nov. 20.—To stamp out propaganda of pro-German organizations in America which have strongly urged greatest leniency in dealing with Germany, patriotic societies, of the central west have called attention to the long string of Prussian atrocities that stretch over the four years of the war.

The excesses, referred to in Germany by some statesmen as "boyish pranks of the soldiers," included the bombing of hospitals, sinking hospital ships, poisoning wells, bombing cities and villages, burning cathedrals and needlessly murdering women and children in captured territory.

A list of violations of international law intended to show that the treacherous policies of high German officials justified the excesses committed by soldiers in the field opens with the battle on the Belgian frontier on August 5, 1914.

PRICE OF PAPERS IS INCREASED

FORT Wayne, Ind., Nov. 20.—All of the daily newspapers here have just increased their subscription price from 2 cents to 3 cents, or 15 cents a week when delivered by carrier. This increase is due to the 100 per cent boost in the price of print paper and increases in the cost of publication and follows the advance made in subscription rates of newspapers in nearly all large cities. It was necessary to increase the rates in order to keep the papers up to their present high standard.

Reduced Fare for Discharged Soldiers

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—Director General McAdoo today announced his intention of establishing a reduced passenger rate of 2 cents a mile instead of the usual 3 cents for soldiers returning to their homes after discharge from the army. By law soldiers are allowed 3½ cents a mile for transportation and meals, and the special fare will enable them, Mr. McAdoo believes, to buy meals and pay for sleeping car reservations out of the allowance.

Gifts to Women 50c Gifts—Your Choice

This week the grocers of this city specialize on Jiffy-Jell in four exclusive flavors. These are our four chief flavors—the finest known—for desserts, for salads and for garnish jell.

Try two of them this week—two for 25c. Then any mold offer we make below is open to your acceptance.

Four Flavors Which Every Home Should Know

Jiffy-Jell

Jiffy-Jell comes in ten flavors. But four of them—Loganberry, Pineapple, Mint and Lime—are particularly delightful.

Two of them are the finest fruit flavors ever known in gelatine desserts. One makes a refreshing garnish jell, and one a tart, green salad jell.

All in Vials

All these flavors come in sealed glass vials—a bottle in each package.

All are in liquid form, highly condensed. So the flavor is abundant.

The fruit flavors are made from the fruit itself, so they have the fresh-fruit taste.

We urge you to try at least two of these flavors. They will introduce new delights to your table.

They will bring you new conceptions of gelatine desserts and salads.

We make these offers to induce you to try them—to try them this week. Then you will know how to give winter dinners a real fruit-time zest.

Loganberry

Made from these famous Oregon berries—the queen of all berry flavors. We use many berries to make the bottle of flavor for one Jiffy-Jell dessert. There is a wealth of fresh Loganberry taste.

Pineapple

The favorite fruit flavor, but so volatile that it must be bottled to be kept. We condense the flavor from half a ripe pineapple to make the flavor for one Jiffy-Jell dessert.

Mint

The bottled flavor is the liquid essence of fresh mint. It makes an instant garnish jell to serve with roast lamb or cold meats—vastly better than mint sauce.

Lime Fruit

Makes a tart, green salad jell. Serve with the salad, or mix cooked or uncooked vegetables into the jell before cooling. Or mix in meat scraps and make a delicious meat loaf.
