GRAIN PRICES

(Markets by E. F. Leland & Company, 212 Union National Bank Building) CHICAGO, May 27.-Wheat-There was liberal trading in May wheat today but under the influence of the heavy deliveries, the largest since the first day of the month, prices declined. There were one or two rallies on short covering but the market closed near the low of the day. September was the strongest of the deferred deliveries and although it weakened with May the close on September was 1c higher than the low. Weather for wheat continues favorable. Export demand quiet and Liverpool a little lower. Mills are taking some of the wheat delivered on May contracts. Cash about unchanged. The trade is looking for large receipts Monday and Tuesday.

Corn showed independent strength today with the close not far from the high of the day. Complaints are beginning to come in of too much rain with the season far behind. Cash steady. No export sales reported. Oats-Business in oats consisted

BANK ON ABILITY

A man can buy fortune's smiles only with his ability. Her gifts come only to those who put in full shifts. In the sweat of his brow a man must learn how to woo Dame Fortune.

Ability is the best capital. Dollars don't shine like talents. A man with ability can mint the money he needs if he is willing to work for his winnings.

A man's way through life is a wide open one filled with strife. But with ability added to his account, a man can fight his way to Fortune's door. Before you have the capacity to lead men, you must
