GRAIN PRICES

(Markets by E. F. Leland & Company, 212 Union National Bank Building) CHICAGO, Ill., June 9.-Wheat was nervous and erratic all day with the low of the day right after the opening. There was a rush of selling on the opening on the bearish government report and prices dropped about 1 to 1/2 cents under yesterday's close with stop loss orders caught on the way down. On the break there was free buying and with shorts covering caused an upturn of 2% cents from the low. There was nothing really bearish in the news. The market seemed to be over sold. Argentine market was considerable lower and Liverpool 1/4 lower. There were further rains in the northwest and some in Iowa. Dry spots were reported in west Oklahoma
