

CONVENTION AFTERMATH

GARY CITIZENS' PARTY TICKET

Herewith is the complete ticket of the Gary fusionists, named at Saturday's convention.

For mayor—R. O. Johnson.
 For clerk—H. C. Francis.
 For treasurer—W. D. Hunter.
 For judge—William Dunn.
 For councilman-at-large—William S. Fenner, Walter Good and John Keserlic.
 For councilman:
 First ward—Theodore Freebury.
 Second ward—Ralph E. Howley.
 Third ward—Aron Kolbus.
 Fourth ward—Anton Mis.
 Fifth ward—Jerry C. Combs.
 Sixth ward—William Kunert.

All of the members of this ticket are either republicans, progressives or independent (anti-Knotts) democrats.

Politics rested over Sunday in Gary as everybody was worn out with the all-day session of the Citizens' party convention, which was the most peaceful political gathering ever witnessed in Gary.

Battle Will Start Soon.
 Whether the campaign will now open up in earnest is not known but it is said that the Knotts men, knowing who their opponents are, are itching for a good scrap.

Although fair rulings characterized the convention there is a little soreness among some of the defeated candidates but this is expected to wear away in the course of a few days.

Johnson Well Regarded.
 Mr. Johnson, as head of the ticket, is regarded as a good man. He was formerly active in politics in Adams county, where the republicans named him for state senator. President McKinley in 1900 appointed Mr. Johnson, who is an attorney by profession, to be collector of customs for Arizona. Later Mr. Johnson was elected judge at Douglas, Ariz. Coming to Gary he became head of a real estate company. He has always been an ardent republican.

H. C. Francis, the candidate for clerk, is a real estate man. W. D. Hunter, candidate for treasurer, is assistant cashier of the Northern State bank and William Dunn, for judge, is an attorney.

R. E. Howley, republican, and W. S. Fenner, democrat, for council, are members of the president council, John Simlaske, alderman from the fourth ward, was defeated for renomination.

TO UNDERGO A SECOND OPERATION

Willie Hart of Hemlock street, Indiana Harbor, who had his skull fractured in a collision with another young man, while playing ball on a vacant lot a week ago last Tuesday, and who was operated on by Dr. Werelius of Chicago at the Fore-shore hospital the next day, will undergo another operation this morning. Yesterday it was noticed by Dr. Werelius and the nurse that the young patient's nose and face around the eyes was considerably swollen, and on opening up the wound and investigating the doctor found the bones of the forehead where the fracture was had caved in, leaving the skull in practically the condition it was in before the first operation. At that time the use of a plate to hold the bones in place was considered, but it was finally decided that bones would heal without the assistance of a plate, owing to the youth and otherwise healthy condition of the patient. Unfortunately, this did not happen, and at the operation today a plate will be inserted.

Aside from the injury to his head, young Hart is in good physical condition, and according to his mother, who visited him yesterday, is cheerful and happy. Mrs. Hart wishes to thank the friends who have kept Willie's room at the hospital bountifully supplied with flowers and fruit.

LAKE COUNTY CITIES HELP FIGHT BIG FIRE

Chief Delschneider used a lead of 1,700 feet of hose, and the department worked in the heart of the fire, experiencing some thrilling moments. The Hammond men returned from Michigan City about 7 o'clock last night.

Gary's Quick Response.
 Gary aided with Chief Feeley, Assistant Chief Lieut. Costovich and fifteen firemen, went to Michigan City, making the trip in an hour. They took 1,600 feet of hose and were on duty for 25 hours.

Help From Powder Mills.
 From Actna powder mills there went Superintendent Walter Edwards, Chief Fred Stieg and Joseph Debold and other explosive workers, who took their dynamite in three autos. They helped to raze some of the lumber piles.

Several South Shore cars bore the Gary "fire fans" to the fire. They sat up all night and watched the flames. The glare in the skies, which was visible as far north as Evanston, 75 miles

ROYAL WOMEN OF GREECE TURN NURSES; PRINCESS SELLS JEWELS TO BUY SUPPLIES, AFTER MASSACRE AT NIGRITA

Queen of Greece, Dowager Queen Olga, Princess Helen and Princess Alice.

The dowager queen of Greece, mother of King Constantine, who is leading his army in person, has left Athens for Saloniki, on a transport, to help nurse the wounded soldiers in the hospital there. The queen is organizing relief work, following the massacre at Nigrita, declared the worst in modern times. Many society women are volunteering to go to the front as nurses. Princess Helen has sold half her jewels to buy medical supplies.

GENERAL FURNITURE CO. IS FORCED TO MOVE QUARTERS

After fifteen years in business at 9139-41 Commercial avenue, the General Furniture company of South Chicago this month will step out to make room for the Morris Five and Ten Cent store, which has secured a lease on the premises for a long term of years.

Since the General's establishment on the avenue, the store has had a prosperous career, due to its square deal policy in treating its patrons. Thousands of South Chicago and Calumet region families are enjoying the long time easy payment plan which was specially arranged to provide a way for the man with a few dollars to furnish his home without having to pay any big first payment and be loaded with commissions, extras, etc., in force at some furniture stores. This plan immediately caught on, the people being quick to accept this alluring credit system.

During the closing days, on the avenue, the management has placed on sale their entire $37,500 stock of home furniture, with positive instructions to get rid of it at prices below the actual cost. Since this announcement was made, throngs of thrifty South Chicagoans have filled the store, which was an evidence of their knowledge what real bargains were like. Included in the big lot are parlor suites, rockers, chairs, davenport, couches, extension tables, buffets, dressers, beds, mattresses, pillows, rugs, in fact, everything found in an up-to-date furniture store. The liberal easy payment plan will be extended to all customers, who can pay a dollar down and have any article advertised delivered to their homes.

politicians took possession of everything in sight, completely ignoring the fact that it was freely an editorial excursion. It is told that one statesman, who had no business at all in the party, climbed into an automobile intended for the editors for a little ride. He was put out of that one to make room for wives of editors. He got in another machine and had to be driven out. He was put out of a third machine, so persistent was he in his intention to ride in the parade, but when he climbed into the fourth machine he refused absolutely to budge, and he made the trip, while, it is said, some of the editorial party had to stay behind for the lack of room.

Says It Was Bad Blaze.
 "I have fought many a blaze," said Captain Thompson of the Chicago fire department, "but the one at Michigan City last night was as stiff as any of them. When we left Chicago we were told that the entire city was in jeopardy. Believe me, the authorities made no mistake when they sent out calls for assistance."

"When we got there the flames were sweeping an area of about eighteen blocks. We had to lead out our lines about 2,500 feet. But if I do say it myself, we did some pretty effective work and the people there realized it. The Michigan City boys tried to confine the blaze as they did. You see they have not the apparatus and facilities for fighting fires that we have in Chicago."

Property Held in Trust.
 The Haskell & Barker Car company is owned by Miss Katherine Barker, the property being held in trust by the First Title and Trust company of Chicago. It is one of the largest concerns of its kind in the world, and is situated on the east outskirts of Michigan City, east of the Michigan Central tracks. The sand dunes surround it on the west and north. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

MOOCHERS SPOIL FUN FOR EDITORS

on and statesmen crowded the editors out when it came time for a meal or an automobile ride. When the party left Indianapolis for New Albany arrangements were made for a stop at Seymour, where they were to be entertained at dinner by local Democrats. The editorial party consisted of sixty persons, and preparations were made for that number at Seymour. But when the car arrived there was a crowd of 125 persons, including the hangers-on and politicians who had fastened themselves on the party like a lot of leeches. The result was that there was a bad mixup at Seymour, and although the politicians and statesmen made sure of getting seats at the dinner table, a number of the editors and their wives were unable to find any place to eat. The local committee was terribly embarrassed over the affair, but it could not do a thing. The moochers refused to stand aside for the real guests.

There was a dinner at Louisville, also, in honor of the editorial party, and the committee went so far as to arrange to take care of 250 persons. But when the crowd arrived there were no less than 325 in the party, the hangers-on and cheap politicians having multiplied until the editorial party itself was but a small fraction of the crowd. The Louisville people stood for it however, and fed all of them.

At New Albany the statesmen and arrangements for his funeral. One was the widow of the suicide, and the other was Mrs. Anna Evans, with whom Bell had been living for several months at 1219 East 52nd street.

Mrs. Emma A. Bell, the estranged wife, won the controversy by ordering the body removed from the undertaking rooms of P. L. Murphy & Sons, 926 So. Chicago avenue, to L. C. Hall's undertaking rooms, 736 South Washab avenue.

Both women had planned to have funeral services Tuesday morning. Mrs. Evans made the first claim to the possession of the body, going to Murphy's rooms Saturday afternoon shortly after Bell had fired a bullet into his temple. She learned that the inquest was to be held today at ten o'clock and immediately asked Mr. Murphy to make arrangements for funeral services Tuesday.

Widow Obtains Body.
 Yesterday morning, however, Mrs. Bell arrived in Chicago from Palm Beach, Mich., a summer resort, and went to Murphy's establishment. She viewed the body without showing emotion and with the assistance of her daughter, Mrs. Ira O. Jones, 6556 Woodlawn avenue, persuaded Mr. Murphy to release the body and ordered it moved to Bell's establishment.

Funeral services will be held at the chapel in Oakwoods Cemetery tomorrow at ten o'clock. Mrs. Evans was notified of the change but made no effort to frustrate the plans of Mrs. Bell.

A legal battle for the $300,000 worth of real estate, stocks and bonds which comprised Bell's estate is expected when the time for settlement comes.

According to Elbridge Haney, for several years an attorney for Bell, the former packer made a will two years ago which he gave to his attorney to keep. Judge Haney refused to divulge the provision of the will.

Relatives of Mr. Bell denied any knowledge of a will, but Mrs. Evans was better informed as to the state of affairs according to several of her friends. She had told friends that she would be "well cared for under Bell's will."

His Only Friend.
 She asserted that Bell had told her she was the only friend he had, after he had become estranged from his family, following their attempts to have him declared insane in 1909. Mrs. Evans had known Bell for several years prior to his entering the Kenilworth sanitarium at Kenilworth, Ill., and when he escaped by jumping from a Chicago & Northwestern station he was believed to have been assisted by Mrs. Evans.

Mrs. Evans is said to have stated that she would receive $125,000 from Bell's estate. She has also said that under the terms of the will Mrs. Bell would receive only one-third to which she would be entitled under the laws of Illinois, and that Mrs. Robert D. Brown, a daughter of Bell by his first marriage would receive a bequest but that the other daughter, Mrs. Ira O. Jones, would receive nothing.

Members of the family refused to discuss anything in regard to a will, denying all knowledge of such a paper. They said that if a will were in existence it would be discovered after funeral services had been held.

Mrs. Bell is living with her daughter, Mrs. Jones, 6515 Woodlawn avenue. She will testify at the inquest this morning.

As far as could be learned no motive for the suicide is known to the family. They knew that Bell had been drinking heavily during the past few months and reiterated that statement during insanity hearings that Bell was constantly in fear of blackmailers and suffered hallucinations.

FUNERAL OF WM. CASEY

Burial To Be Had Tomorrow In East St. Louis.

The funeral of William Casey, who died in St. Margaret's hospital last Friday from an attack of typhoid fever, took place from St. Patrick's church yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. Father John Wakefer pastor of the church delivered an eloquent sermon over the remains after which the funeral procession proceeded to St. Joseph's cemetery in Hammond where the interment took place. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Wm. Mauley, John Bevens, Garrett Fagan, Timothy McCarty, Sam Benante and Chief James Doherty.

Mrs. James Gallen and daughter Frances of East St. Louis, sister and niece of the deceased, and chief of Police John Casey and his brother Patrick of Muncie, cousins, were the out of town relatives who attended the funeral. The chief and his brother returned to Muncie last night and Mrs. Gallen and daughter will leave for East St. Louis tomorrow.

Set For Wednesday.

The Gary General Hospital receivership case which was instituted by Dr. William J. White of Gary, and which was set specially before Judge Becker in the superior court for this morning, was continued until Wednesday of this week. In the meantime, Deputy Sheriff George Block is to serve seventeen duces tecum writs on parties in Gary whom the petitioners have named as officers and stockholders of the institution and other witnesses.
