CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY.
 Mrs. Williams entertained a number of young people very charmingly last evening at her home in Wilcox street. The party was given in honor of her son, Gordon Williams, and celebrated his birthday anniversary. He received a number of gifts in remembrance of the day. Music and games were delightful features of the evening, and at 10 o'clock refreshments were served. The invited guests were the Misses Mabel Fowler, Madeline Smith, Verna Siler, Alice Newton, Gladys and Hazel Younger, Grace Mathews, Frances Fuller, Frances Dryer, Kate Thels, Jennie Vight, Helen Wagonblast, Ethel Hoffman and Pearl and Anna Williams, Messrs Evans, Sulley, Smith, Ragen, Siler, Paul Stewart, Lindsay, Austen, Vicht, Creed, Beppe and Gordon and Allen Williams.

MARRIED IN ST. JOE.
 Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Elsie Blocker and Tobey Silverman, which took place in St. Joseph, Mich., Wednesday, July 9. The announcement came as a surprise to a number of the most intimate friends and the young people are receiving the congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends. The ceremony was a very quiet one. There were no attendants. The bride wore a very pretty white-tailored suit and panama hat. Mr. and Mrs. Silverman returned to Hammond after the ceremony, and are guests at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Blocker, 606 Michigan avenue. They will be at home in Hegefish, Ill. Mrs. Silverman is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Blocker, and has made her home in Hammond for a number of years. She is very well known among the young people of the city. Mr. Silverman's home is Hegefish, although he has a large circle of friends in Hammond.

PICNIC AT LAKE FRONT.
 The members of the Colonial club gave a picnic at the Lake Front yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. F. B. Olwin of Robinson, Ill., who is in Hammond the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Abbott of Truman avenue. During her residence in Hammond Mrs. Olwin was a member of the Colonial club. The members of the club left for the park about 3 o'clock and were joined by their husbands later in the afternoon. An elaborate picnic supper was served at 6 o'clock, after which a number of beach games were enjoyed. The picnic took the place of the regular club meeting. The next club meeting will be Mrs. W. H. Spellman, and she will entertain the members of a thimble party at her home in Carroll street in two weeks on Thursday afternoon, July 21. With the members of the club and their husbands were Mrs. Olwin and her son.

NO MEETING YESTERDAY.
 There was no meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Congregational church yesterday afternoon, but announcement was made today of the next meeting to be held Thursday afternoon, July 24. The meeting will be held in the parlors of the church in Gostlin street and following the business session there will be a social hour.

DISBAND FOR THE SUMMER.
 The members of the Acme Social club have discontinued their meetings for the remainder of the summer. There was no meeting of the club yesterday afternoon, which was the regular meeting day. The meetings will be resumed in the fall, and the date of the next meeting and the hostess for the afternoon will be named later.

MARTHA SOCIETY MEETS.
 This week's meeting of the Martha society was held yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the First Christian church in Calumet avenue. After a short business session refreshments were served, and a most delightful social hour was passed. There was a large attendance and the afternoon was greatly enjoyed. Announcement was made of the meeting to be held Thursday afternoon of next week, when the committee of which Mrs. E. B. Cross will entertain.

A POST-NUPITAL AFFAIR.
 A very beautiful post-nuptial entertainment was given by Mr. and Mrs. Allan P. Twyman at their home in East Chicago last evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Sohl of Hammond, whose marriage took place the latter part of June. Mrs. Sohl was formerly Miss Mary Bach. Mr. and Mrs. Twyman entertained at a seven o'clock dinner. A beautifully appointed dinner was served in five courses. The table was decorated with pink rosebuds, and the dinner cards were done in white and pink. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Charles W.

ENTERTAINS WITH CARDS.
 At her home in Truman avenue, Mrs. Henrietta Huber entertained the members of the Sunshine club very pleasantly yesterday afternoon. The afternoon was devoted to cards and pedro was played progressively at two tables. The honors in the games were won by Mrs. J. P. Ryan, Miss Celeste Huber and Mrs. Charles Hubbard. Mrs. Charles Luthman was awarded the consolation prize. At four-thirty after several games of cards had been played, the hostess served a prettily appointed two-course luncheon. Eight covers were laid. The next meeting of the club will occur in two weeks, and the hostess will be Mrs. C. E. Jackson of Claude street. Mrs. Jackson will entertain with cards.

MRS. STEVENS A HOSTESS.
 Mrs. Howard Stevens was hostess at a thimble party yesterday afternoon at her home in Morton court. Her guests for the afternoon were the members of the R. A. E. club, who met for their regular semi-monthly meeting. A few hours were spent pleasantly with needle work, after which a pretty musical program was rendered. A dainty luncheon was served at four-thirty o'clock. In two weeks the members of the club will be entertained by Mrs. Yohn at her home in Detroit street.

RETURN FROM WEDDING TRIP.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jenks have returned to Hammond from their wedding trip, are at home with the bride's mother, Mrs. Turley, at 245 Pine street. They spent several days with Mr. Jenks' parents at Jackson, Mich. Mrs. Jenks was formerly Miss Margaret Turley of Hammond.

ENTERTAINS FOR DAUGHTER.
 Mrs. Charles Kason will entertain a company of guests Tuesday, July 22, at her home in Webb street, in compliment to her daughter, Mrs. Oriand Grant of Lafayette, Ind., who is her guest.

ANNUAL PICNIC.
 Tomorrow the members of the Methodist Sunday school will picnic at Douglas park. The members of the Sunday school and their friends are invited to attend. A special car has been chartered which will leave from the corner of Hohman and Russell streets at 10 o'clock. A picnic dinner will be served at 1 o'clock, and the remainder of the day will be spent pleasantly with games and contests. It will be the annual picnic of the Sunday school, and the young people are anticipating the day with a great deal of pleasure.

CARD OF THANKS.

AWAIT REPORT ON OIL WELL
 Stockholders of the Lake County Oil company are anxiously awaiting news from the drilling of the well No. 5, where preparations have been made to shoop oil well No. 5. According to geographical reports of the drilling the well is expected to give the largest output of any well that has been sunk. The well was supposed to have been shot the first part of this week, but so far no news has been received.

KICK ON POOR POLICE PROTECTION
 Five or six robberies which are said to have occurred on the north side last night are adding fuel to the fires of indignation which are smouldering among the taxpayers there on account of lack of police protection.

Fredrichs Sells Garage.
 W. J. Moran, 89 Williams street, purchased the Square Deal Auto Livery and garage owned by E. C. Friederichs yesterday for a consideration which has not been made public. The business includes the sole agency for Moline and Studebaker cars. A Silent Knight taxi service is operated by the Square Deal Garage. Mr. Friederichs will turn his entire attention to the monument business.

WILL CONDUCT S. S. PICNIC
 Dr. W. Mayes Martin, superintendent of the Russell street Methodist Sunday school, will conduct a picnic at Douglas park tomorrow which is an annual event in his school, long waited and thoroughly enjoyed by the children.

Ball Games Past.
 Ball games in Hammond are a thing of the past and fans wishing to witness the national game are compelled to go to Chicago or some other city. No games with the exception of small prairie teams are scheduled for Sunday. The Hammond team has disbanded for the season and whether a team will be put into the field again next year or not, remains to be seen.

Will Meet This Evening.
 City central committee of the progressive party are to meet at Roth's hall this evening, according to a circular letter sent out by Chairman Kingwell. A discussion of the political situation in general and the prospects of the progressive party in particular are the principal subjects on the program.

Worth Seeing.
 A hard game of ball is looked for next Sunday July 20 at Kindel's Grove when Jim Stanton will take his Hammond Colts out to the park to play the fast Eastridge team. These two teams are the class of Hammond's semi-pro teams and the battle for supremacy will be watched by the admirers of both teams. The teams will line up as follows:
 Hammond Colts—Lynch, ss; Wanroe, c; Kunder, lf; Moha, 1b; Erlwin, cf; Newman, 2b; Stoker, 2b; Talsman, rf; Meyer, p.
