

Twin City News Notes

R. Q. Richards, father of City Clerk Thomas Richards, was removed to St. Margaret's hospital in Hammond last evening, following a several days' critical illness at home. The patient is 72 years of age, which makes his condition all the graver and recovery more doubtful. Expert doctors from Chicago have been called on the case, but give very little hope that hospital care will relieve to some extent the condition which is the aggravation at the present time.

Mrs. A. H. Watts of the Bucknell apartments arrived home last evening after an extended trip to Hanover, Franklin and Indianapolis.

Charles Lynn, an employe of the I. H. Bell railway and who lives in North-wood avenue, has returned from an extended visit to many points in the east among them New York and Washington. It was the time allotted him as a vacation.

The month of June and its many attendant weddings came to a conclusion yesterday but not until one momentous ceremony was added but not really occurring during the month, only as a surprise and an announcement to the relatives and friends of Miss Marie Gaskey, a very popular young lady of Indiana Harbor, who got her consent is very readily gained. Slipped away last March and became wedded to Albert Ernest, a very prepossessing young man who is employed in the yards of the Inland Steel Co., and is the son of a retired merchant of Chicago. Miss Gaskey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gaskey of 3520 Ivy st. and is just budding into her eighteenth year. The ceremony took place in Chicago and the secret was imparted to the couple's parents and the usual forgiveness and blessings extended. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest will remain at the Gaskey home until they can secure an apartment as it is their intention to make their home in the Twin Cities. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

Dr. Joseph Erkov, a well known physician in this city with offices in Chicago ave. is leaving for Rochester, Minn., to enter the Mrs. Mayo's institute where he will take a special course in general surgery extending several weeks. His office in this city will be closed in the meanwhile and he will make public announcement when he returns equipped with the knowledge that the Mayo institute is gaining in world-wide recognition these days in their courses on general surgery.

While the physician in delving into study, Mrs. Erkov will visit at the lake and go to Rochester to meet her husband about the time he has completed his course and journey back with him. Their home in this city will be closed during their absence.

Death occurred to Michael Heffron, at St. Margaret's hospital in Hammond yesterday. The deceased was well known in the Twin Cities at one time he was in the employ of the Burns building contractor and met with injuries as he was leaving the Sinclair Oil Refinery where he has been lately employed, last Friday. He was running on board a car when a passing automobile struck him, rendering him unconscious and when examination was made at the hospital it was found that his injuries were of a fatal nature. The deceased was originally from Kentucky and came here several years ago and worked about in the Chicago districts. He has a brother and a cousin residents of Chicago. He was unmarried and 46 years of age. The funeral is occurring today from the Burns undertaking chapel in Hammond.

The M. E. Crites of Grapevine st. have departed for Monticello, Ind., where they will spend the greater part of the summer. Attorney Crites will be returning here to his office in about two weeks, his family remaining there.

Twin City Circle, Daughters of Isabella, will meet for social purposes tomorrow evening and only transact such business as is of important nature. All members are urgently in-

Mrs. Lella Hascall, in the offices of the Board of Education, will be in a party leaving for the week-end holidays to be spent at Terra Haute accompanied by Mr. William H. Olds, her uncle, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith, the latter her sister. The trip will be made by auto.

Miss Jean Sneddon of South Baring ave. is back from a trip to Fort Wayne where she was gone for two weeks. An expected visitor at the Sneddon home is Mrs. T. B. Moxier, a daughter, Miss Margaret Sneddon before her marriage, and who is bringing her two small sons with her to spend the remainder of the summer. They are coming from Birmingham, Ala.

There is to be the organization of a Protected Home Circle in East Chicago at a very soon date with Mrs. Isabella Lantz of North Magoun ave., acting as an appointed leader. The headquarters of this organization is at Sharon, Pa., and it holds benefit insurance which is attracting a large class when inception of the local order is ready. Mrs. Lantz is associated with other orders of this city but is spending much of her time in the interests of this new fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kerr of North Forsyth ave., have as their guest Mrs. O. H. Hammer of Holland, Ia.

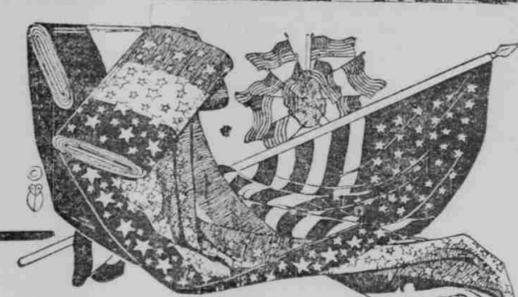

Mrs. Fred Lantz of North Magoun ave. has just returned from a trip to the East to visit a sister who is a resident of Franklin, Pa., and who was to undergo an operation of a critical nature at a hospital in Pittsburgh.

Miss Van Houten, chief operator at the Calumet Exchange is returning to her duties the early part of next week after a vacation of a few weeks. Miss Margaret McAulian, an operator at the exchange is most fortunate in securing a leave to depart with her parents for an extended voyage across sea, Scotland and Wales are the two countries they will visit and probably spend a part of their time in England.

Miss Esther Zimmerman, one of the operators at the exchange is confined to her home in Baring ave. News concerning the young lady operators at our own town exchange is always a pleasing addition to these columns and welcomed.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pratt of Rockford, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kipp in Beacon st. The couple motored here and will remain over the week-end holidays.

Howard Newell, who just returned from a vacation trip spent in the Dakotas and in Minnesota, was surprised at his home in Drummond street, by a party of his friends numbering about 25, giving him a most rousing homecoming. The evening was spent pleasantly and the young folks were accompanied to their homes via a truck. Young Mr. Newell is the son of the Bert Newells.
