Happenings Of A Day In Lake County's Lively Capital.

Miss Catherine Gardner, who has been taking treatment at the Fresh Air Sanitarium at Rogers Park, was brought home on Thursday, her health now being very much improved. She will remain here and be under the care of a Christian science practitioner.

Several members of the Women's Study Club enjoyed a day's outing at the Dunes on Saturday and those who made the trip were charmed with the natural beauties of the place which is truly wonderful at this season of the year when nature is in her most glorious mood.

Mrs. E. L. Shortridge was hostess to the Ladies' Pleasure Club on Friday afternoon at a six o'clock dinner.

Miss Lillian Schmidt visited with Miss Clara Oser in Chicago over the weekend.

Miss Foley of Chicago was the guest of Mrs. Julia R. Lenny on Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Harry Baker, Edward C. Glover, Raymond Rudolph and J. Burke of this city motored to Chicago on Saturday and saw the Purdue university team beaten by a score of 20 to 6 by the Chicago University at Stagg Field.

Miss Maud Hathaway of this city has recently become a member of the Lois office force in the accounting department.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson of El Paso, Ill., came here on Saturday to remain a few days with Mr. and Mrs. George Sherman. Mrs. Robinson's health which has been very poor the past year is much improved.

Word has been received from Miss Mary Nixon who left for California several weeks ago that she is nicely located with Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Coleman in Los Angeles and has secured employment in one of Los Angeles' leading banks. She is very favorably impressed with the west.

Miss Barbara Husman of the Allman Gary Title Company went to East Chicago on Saturday to remain several days with her sister Mrs. Harry Ferguson.

Four White Persons are Baptized by a Negro Preacher

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE) HYANNIS, MASS., Oct. 11.—The end of feast week of the Holy Christian church of the Apostolic Faith, was signified here by the baptism in the waters at Hyannisport shore of four white persons and a negro child, by Bishop John Edward Harris, a negro preacher of Boston. He was assisted in the baptismal rites by pastor Elder Albert Anderson, a negro.

The four white residents of Hyannis to be baptized were Mrs. Nettie Cattelle and Earl Cattelle, wife and son of a railroad fireman, who wants to sell his home and take up preaching in

ABOUT THE NEW COATS FOR AUTUMN

Beautiful soft materials, enveloping collars of fur in which to snuggle one's chin, and embroidery as trimming characterize both the general utility and wrap coats this season. Here and there one sees the Dolman influence in wrap coats particularly, but coats hanging straight from the shoulder and belted models bid fair to equal favor.

New Fall Fur Wraps

So graceful and elegant are these Wraps this season that one knows at a glance the designers have realized their finest possibilities. Never before have they been made up so voluminously and at the same time so light in weight. These Furs drape the figure with all the cling of the sheepest fabrics, narrowing in the new silhouette from the shoulder to the hem. We have a plentiful stock of them, in genuine Sealine, Coney, Beaverette, Marmot. All of tested quality fur, in the newest modes.

New Plush Coats

That Rival Garments of Fur

These Coats are fashioned of the finest quality plush, in smart models that are fur trimmed. There are jaunty belted short coats with enveloping fur collars, cuffs and belt-trim fur trimmed; 36 inch models, straight and slim of line. For the woman who would like to have a fur coat and yet cannot afford one, here is the best substitute, giving all the appearance of fur at the price of a cloth model. Special this week at—

Suits and Dresses That Are "Different"

Tricotine Frocks

The distinguishing note on these Tricotine Frocks is the newest of bead embroidery—bugle beads used in most effective design. The models are youthful and straight-line, following the latest French dictates; and the fabric is tricotine, which lends itself most admirably to fine tailoring. You'll find them very specially priced at—

Nothing Newer Than Our Satin Dresses

Both in point of newness and smartness, there is no style which ranks above the Redingote this season. It is straight of line, in conformity with the newest silhouette, and combines the advantages of frock and suit for Autumn wear. Of lustrous quality satin, blue, black, navy and brown. Special all this week—

A Smart Navy Blue Serge Suit Featuring Long Lines

This Suit was specially designed for immediate practical purposes—for traveling, wear to work, or shopping. It is fashioned of a splendid quality men's wear serge, has the new three quarter length, narrow shoulders and a collar which may be buttoned high around the throat or worn low. Beautifully lined. Special at.....

$32.50

Slim is the Silhouette in Women's Tailored Suits

Both belted and beltless are many of the new Autumn Suits, but in either event they follow the straight slender silhouette. Fabrics are rich in color and texture, but blue tricotine, which has become a perennial favorite, continues to enjoy a decided vogue. One of our splendid values in a suit, trimmed in seal and silk lined. Specially priced at.....
