Mrs. Adella Beck, of Elkhart, Ind., who came to Hammond on Thursday, Oct. 14th to attend the W. C. T. U. convention became very ill on the second day of her visit here when she was seized with an attack of acute indigestion which developed into pneumonia. She was a guest at the home of A. M. Turner of Glendale Park. Mrs. Beck's condition grew more alarming and finally, accompanied by Mrs. John Gavit and her nurses she was removed to her home in Elkhart, where she died yesterday, Oct. 14th. She is one of the oldest residents of Elkhart and has been an ardent W. C. T. U. worker.

Mrs. Guss Fuss entertained the members of the F. E. G. club at her home on Johnson st. last night. The last evening was spent with needle work and a nice luncheon was served. The next meeting will occur in two weeks with Miss Zoe Busch, which will be a Halloween party and also gentlemen's evening at Miss Busch's home, 357 Johnson st.

The Baptist Women's Union met in the church parlors yesterday for an all day session. A pot luck lunch was served at noon and a great deal of sewing was accomplished.

Such Clean-cut Tones Increase Your Enjoyment

Music gives the truest pleasure when you can forget your surroundings, forget the presence of any instrument, and lose yourself in the enchantment of beautiful harmony.

But to be beautiful, harmonies must be free from the harsh, scratching sound of needle on record. So long as records are made as they are today, there is necessarily a slight friction. Since this cannot be prevented, it must be muted. It is this problem which is solved by the principles of THE CHENEY reproducer.

Let us show you how THE CHENEY's tone adjuster, reproducer, tone arm, acoustic throat, orchestral chambers and violin resonator also increase the charm of its music. If you cannot call, send the coupon for the interesting CHENEY booklet.
