CHAMPION JOE LYNCH AT LAST BOUT

ON THE SIDE LINES.
Watson is sure out of the sweetest looking forwards that ever played in Whiting, 11 baskets is no mean night's work.
Young, one of the Denver guards, used to play for Pan du Lao several years ago. He came over to say "Hello" to some of the old time Owls team.
It sure would be a good game between the Crosses and the big five at Chicago place your bets boys as this game will be played if Judge Green and Doc Cook have their way.
And while we are about it don't forget the two premier lightweight teams, Polaris and Renown.
It sure has been a big week for Coach Hart of the high school as all of his teams came across with victories this week. More power to you Coach.
Andy "Gump" Griffith was not missed from the Renown lineup as Benson filled his place to a T.
Morrie Cole is one of the fastest forwards that ever played in Whiting.

Duggan and Hoskins sure make a sweet pair of forwards, both are fast and accurate basket shooters.
Gervitz, the old time Owl player, refereed the three games and done a very good job of it as there was practically no kicking done in the three games.
Watch The Times sport sheet for the next name as it sure will be a bummer.

PREBYTERIAN VS. HIGH SCHOOL

The strong Hammond Presbyterian team will meet the High school in a return game at either the Irving gym or the Presbyterian gym. Watch the paper tomorrow for the place. The Presbyterian lineup has been strengthened by a good deal of practice and the addition of new men. Eric Rhind, the Knox College center, will play center, Wallie Hess and Arthur Hess will play forwards and Wallie Grace and Herbert Wilhelm or Ollie Roth will play the guard positions.
All basketball fans wishing to see a first class basketball game should be sure to see this game Wednesday evening, Dec. 29.

O'DOWD WANTS GO WITH WILSON, OR CLAIMS TITLE

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Tex Rickard, who has staged a parade of two championship fights in a row, may soon get a nonfighting king into action.
John Wilson, who has almost forced the aspirants for the middleweight championship to go to work for a living, is stirring in his stronghold.
Wilson will defend his middleweight title or forfeit the crown, according to word from the hallwack of Mike O'Dowd, the former champion. The St. Paul Irishman threatens to claim the title if the Boston Italian continues to sit in the discount fondling his regal robes.
Rickard has made continual efforts to get Wilson in a bout, but the champion's most recent excuse is that he's out of condition.

FIGHT DECISIONS
At New York—Larry Regan beat Kid Duke (10); Al Waters knocked out Jimmy Kirk (2); Ray Quinn knocked out Pete O'Brien (1).

Harry Mulehy knocked out Kid Wagner (3); Johnny Rosner beat Mickey Nelson (12); Charley Hittington beat Happy Smith (12).
At Cleveland, O.—Johnny Klesch beat Jack Shea (10); Jack O'Brien stopped Young Harkness (6); Young Carney beat Louis Deareo (6).
At Detroit, Mich.—Harry Webb knocked out Glenn Metzer (2); Harry Huskins knocked out Jack Collins (1); Jack Dunn beat Eddie Harris (10); Frankie Engl beat Dick Russell (10).
At Boston—Johnny Clinton knocked out Johnny Downes (6).

BIG LEAGUE WAIL AGAINST THE MINORS

BY JACK VEIOCK
(N. S. Service Sporting Editor.)
NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Sentiment against several provisions in the proposed new National-Minor agreement is growing among the minors and will be strongly voiced at the next joint meeting in Chicago Jan. 12, it developed today.
The minors agreed to act jointly with the majors in reconstructing the government of the game, it is pointed out, with the understanding that they were to have an equal voice in all future councils in which they might have any interest, and they will insist on this right.
While the text of the proposed agreement has not been made public, it is apparent that, although some of the minor leagues may be satisfied with the past, this sentiment is not unanimous.
In a circular sent out by George H.

Maines, president of the Michigan-Ontario league and a member of the minor league committee, sentiment expressed by the objecting factor is set forth in a lengthy statement embodying the following principal points:
An important clause in any Major-Minor league pact shall provide for the disputes between leagues, clubs or individuals of the parties to the agreement.
That it shall provide for making rules, regulations or amendments of mutual interest to both parties.
That it should officially recognize Judge K. M. Landis as the commissioner of organized baseball, empowering him to act for majors and minors alike.
