Prices Reduced Nearly a Half in Women's Wearing Apparel

Tomorrow—Dividend Day—will be the greatest day for women and misses to make the largest savings on apparel they have ever looked for this year. We have gone over our stocks and have taken big price reductions—unbelievably large—in many instances nearly a half has been cut off the former selling price. But we must clean up the broken assortments, and certainly such astounding reductions as prevail here will cause speedy selling with satisfaction to you.

This bargain is startling news. The very smartest coats imaginable, wonderfully tailored, and such elegant styles causes one to look twice at the price tag—its present price and the original mark.

Materials are our usual standard quality, in blues and browns for winter. Included are a few for stout women up to 48½; all at $21.75.
