

[From the Daily (Ind.) Journal.]
Card from Hon. G. W. Julian.
 WASHINGTON, June 25, 1862.
 ED. JOURNAL.—I learn that certain persons are circulating the story in your section of our State, and elsewhere, that I am opposed to the Union movement inaugurated in Indiana on the 18th inst. This is a misrepresentation. I do not know personally all the gentlemen nominated, but I consider the ticket a good one, and am decidedly for it. I have never entertained any thought of opposing it, and have not, of course, authorized any one so to report me.
 Very respectfully,
 GEO. W. JULIAN.

Platform of the Late Union Convention.

PLATFORM.
 WHEREAS, The National Government is engaged in a war waged against it by its enemies for the avowed purpose of its destruction, and the subversion of our Republican form of Government; therefore,
 Resolved, That the present civil war was forced upon the country by the disunionists of the Southern States, who are now in rebellion against the constitutional government; that in the present national emergency, we, the people of Indiana in convention assembled, forgetting all former political differences, and recollecting only our duty to the whole country do pledge ourselves to aid with men and money the vigorous prosecution of the present war, which is not being waged upon the part of the government for the purpose of conquest, subjugation or the overthrow or interfering with the rights or established institutions of any of the States, but to suppress and put down a wicked and causeless rebellion, defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and preserve the Union as established by our patriot fathers, with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired, and when these objects are fully accomplished, and not before, we believe the war ought to cease; and that we invite all who coincide in these sentiments to unite with us in support of the ticket this day nominated.

Resolved, That we demand and expect of our Executive and Legislative bodies, both State and National, an economical administration of Governmental affairs, and that the punishment of and against the government, as well as a fearless discharge of their duties.

Resolved, That as long as patriotism, courage, and the love of constitutional liberty shall be honored and revered among the people of the United States, the heroic conduct of the soldiers of the Union, who have offered up their lives for the salvation of their country, will be remembered with the most profound feelings of veneration and gratitude, and that we now tender to them the warmest thanks and lasting gratitude of every member of this Convention.

Resolved, That we tender to the 60,000 volunteers from Indiana our heartfelt congratulations, and hail with pride the fact that upon every battle field where Indians have been found, they have displayed the bravery of patriots in defence of a glorious cause, and we pledge them that while they are subduing armed traitors in the field, we will condemn at the ballot box all those in our midst who are not unconditionally for the Union.

We are under obligations to Hon. G. W. Julian for a pamphlet copy of his speech on Confiscation and Liberation, recently delivered in the U. S. House of Representatives. Mr. Julian used to be called a fanatic, but the irresistible logic of events is fast converting the most conservative to his fanaticism. Truth never goes backward; Mr. Julian has not receded one iota from the position he occupied years ago, when he was persecuted, vilified, condemned and rejected; but the truth, then struck to earth, has risen again, and is shaking the pillars of this mighty Republic as they never were shaken before, and, if truth triumphs, can never be shaken again.—Mayflower.

General Fremont.

MIDDLETOWN, VA., June 28.—Gen. Fremont, having been superseded in the command of his Department by the orders appointing Gen. Pope, his inferior in rank, over the army of Virginia, and having asked leave of absence, has, at his own request, been relieved from duty. The command is turned over to Brig. General Schenck, the next highest in rank, by order of the President, and Gen. Fremont will leave for N. York to-morrow. Many of his officers go with him.

His resignation is not generally known in camp, but will be announced to-morrow by a general order.

HEADQUARTERS, MIDDLETOWN, VA.
 June 28, 1862.

Gen. Fremont, with his personal staff and an escort of cavalry, left camp at 8 o'clock this morning. After visiting Gens. Banks and Sigel, he dismissed most of his staff, and with the rest rode on to Martinsburg.
 No opportunity was given for demonstration, but there is a general regret and indignation throughout the camp.

Amorosa—de tenero mediatat unguis.

[For the Journal.]
 MESSRS. EDITORS:—In your last issue I notice an article over the signature of "Logan," which calls for a little explanation. The law not only makes it the duty of the School Examiner to visit each School once during its term, but makes it the duty of the County Commissioners to allow him a reasonable compensation for such services out of the Township Fund in proportion to services rendered in each Township.

Last winter we had but a few Schools in the County. This fact, in connection with our high tax and perturbed National condition, induced me to dispense with this part of my official duty, and was so advised by your County Commissioners. This is the reason why I did not visit the Schools in session last Winter.

He next says, "Last Spring when the Superintendent of Public Instruction notified him [the County Examiner] that he would be in Winchester, there was no notice given; even the citizens of Winchester did not generally know of it." In the first place the Superintendent never notified me; and had it not been for some of your citizens remarking in my hearing that the Superintendent would be in Winchester on such a day, I should not have known it myself. The Superintendent gave notice of his appointments in the Indianapolis Daily Journal, but I was not reading that paper at the time, and failed to get the notice; hence the reason why I did not give the required notice. So far as Mr. Logan's compliment to my School and its prosperity is concerned, he has my thanks.

As to the Educational Convention, if its object be the elevation of our standard of Common Schools and the invigoration of our Teachers, it is what I have had in contemplation for some time, and would co-operate in calling such a meeting, and here suggest the 8th of September next. I will, in a few weeks, publish a call for such a meeting and its objects, and all those willing to participate can give their names to be appended to the call.
 P. HIATT.

At a meeting of the 5th Congressional District Delegation in attendance upon the Union State Convention, held in the Senate Chamber in Indianapolis, on the morning of the 18th ult., Miles Murphy, of Henry county, was appointed Chairman, and David Nation, of Delaware, Secretary.

After some discussion it was determined to appoint a Central Committee, consisting of three from each county in the District, whose duty it shall be to make some arrangements for concerted action between the several counties in the nomination of a candidate for Congress, either by calling a District Convention, or in such other method as may seem best. The following persons were selected to constitute said committee:

Henry County—Amos B. Fithian, Simon T. Powell, W. L. Boyd.

Wayne—Lewis Burk, Benj. Martin, Eli D. Sprigg.

Fayette—W. M. Smith, A. T. Becket, Temple Beeson.

Union—E. Vansant, Elisha Cockefair, Jos. Pierce.

Delaware—Samuel Orr, W. Brotherton, G. W. Spilker.

Randolph—Peter S. Miller, J. B. Goodrich, Thos. L. Scott.

This committee then retired, and fixed on the 4th day of September as the time for holding a District Convention at Cambridge City.

Delegates to attend this Convention to be either appointed or elected in the several counties on the third Saturday in August.

NUMBER OF SLAVES IN DELAWARE.—The Blue Hen's Chicken says that the number of slaves in Delaware, it is believed, is much less than returned by the census. The Marshal's deputies have in many cases counted boys, free at twenty-one, as slaves, according to the census, in St. George's Hundred was 160, but the assessor cannot find more than 102, valued at $3,702. It is more than probable similar mistakes have been made all through the State. If so, the number of slaves instead of 1,800, would be a little over 1,100.

Love is a kind of warfare.
