

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Chariton, Nov. 5.—A. E. Dent and daughters Misses Blanche and Daisy left yesterday afternoon for Spokane Washington where they will join Mrs. Dent who went there some months ago and will make that place their future home.

Charles Bowdel of Derby was a business caller in the city Wednesday. Ed Vells made a business trip to Afton yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Lewis went to Murray yesterday where they will reside in the future. Harry Bond returned home from a trip to Des Moines, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt Wilson came from Harlan yesterday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eph Badger.

J. M. Harrison made a trip to Ottumwa yesterday. The Baptist Benevolent society will meet with Mrs. J. O. Crips tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Alice Lorimer went to Galesburg yesterday for a three weeks' visit with relatives. Ed Northcut who is located in the western part of the state is visiting with friends for a few days.

S. Foster of Onondia, Ill., came the first part of the week for a visit with relatives. Will Trost made a business trip to Ottumwa yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sellick are moving to the capital city this week, where they will reside in the future. Elmer Hasselquist is assisting at the postoffice during the illness of Stant Howard and Fred Lorimer.

Jacob Cortelovoy is seriously ill at his home on North Main street. Albia, Nov. 5.—The Epworth league social and entertainment Tuesday evening at Dr. C. B. Powell's residence was a success in every particular. Nearly one hundred leaguers and their friends were in attendance and a most enjoyable evening was spent with music, refreshments and athletic sports.

Miss Bertha Harlow, principal of the McKinley school was declared champion with the gloves. Carl Hammond was in Ottumwa yesterday on business. Wm. Evans of Ottumwa was a business caller in Albia Tuesday.

Mrs. M. J. Nelson and Mrs. Ella Luke of Avery were Albia callers Tuesday. Oden Robinson is in Moulton looking after his business interests.

Roy Deaver and W. O. Appleman of Avery were in the city Tuesday. John L. Nelson was in Moravia yesterday. Bert Norwood of Eddyville was in the city Monday.

William O'Conner of Melrose was a business caller in the city Monday. Albia, Nov. 5.—The case of Flockhart vs. the Eddyville Coal Co. is being tried in the district court today. It is a damage case. Flockhart claims damages for personal injury received while working at the mines.

The clerk of the district court issued marriage licenses November 3 to John Buford, aged 26, of Hiteam, and Mrs. Mary Priestly, aged 34, of Ottumwa; and to Andrew Blakey, aged 21, and Miss Vetta Stepp, aged 20, both of Buxton; and yesterday to Benjamin F. Tate, aged 32, and Miss Edna Amby, aged 21, both of Buxton.

Arthur Dowd of Oakdale, Wis., has accepted a position in Albia and expects to make his future home here. Colonel Hoard of Davenport, writes L. T. Richmond that he will be here the latter part of this week to take up the interurban electric road matter.

Mrs. Wilson of Avery visited Miss Sophia Melcher a part of this week. Chas. Smallock has been elected secretary of the Albia school board. Ben Jackson, who was in Moravia on business returned home last evening.

Mrs. Gilbert Nelson of Chariton has been visiting at the home of John Nelson and family for the past few days. Mrs. Ralph Downs and baby Burt spent last week with her parents, Conductor and Mrs. S. P. Ralston of Chariton.

Episcopal services next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the corner of Jackson and Taylor streets. Mrs. Sarah Enix is visiting her brother and sister in Colorado, last week.

The furnace for the new Iowa Central-Wabash depot arrived the first of the week. Mrs. John Sexton has been ill for several days. J. M. Tedford, who lives near Maxon, was in town this morning on business.

Mrs. W. C. Hammond, who has been visiting in Prescott for the past ten days, returned to her home yesterday evening. The Whist club was entertained last evening at the Dr. T. E. Gutch home. All report a good time.

Frank Haur, who has been in Colorado for the past two years, returned home yesterday. Sigourney, Nov. 5.—Thomas Gilstrap who was shot in Mr. Hart's hen house, died a few days ago.

Mrs. Hannah Pope has gone to Colorado to spend the winter with her son John. Charles J. Stevens and wife and Forest Stevens started to Washington state Monday.

Mrs. C. K. Needham spent Sunday and a few days at home. Mrs. Needham is court reporter for Judge Clements. Miss Corna Fidler departed Tuesday for Burlington to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. E. C. Gould.

H. S. McVicker is principal of the Thornburg schools. He came to the county seat Tuesday. County Auditor E. E. Phelps went to Hedrick Tuesday.

Invitations to her young friends for a party pulling at her home Saturday evening. Wm. Beauty and wife left November 3 for California to spend the winter. Mrs. L. A. Funk and Mrs. Ralph Smith entertained a large company of their friends Tuesday evening at the Funk home. An elegant two-course luncheon was served. The rooms were tastefully decorated with the flowers of the season and autumn leaves.

The ladies of the Methodist Missionary society held a missionary tea at the home of A. James home Wednesday afternoon. A large turnout enjoyed a good program and a good supper.

Russell, Nov. 3.—Jno. Wagoner and wife, of Coshocton, Ohio, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. A. D. Boyd, of Russell, left on No. 3 Friday morning for San Francisco, California, where they expect to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Shuler, of Russell, accompanied their son, W. B. Shuler, on his return to Ridgeway, Missouri, Thursday, after a week's visit with his relatives. Mr. Shuler will spend two weeks with their two sons at Ridgeway.

Walter Price, of Russell, who is a brakeman on the north branch out of Chariton, had his skull fractured Thursday night on a bridge south of Lacona. Although still living there is little hope for his recovery.

Ralph Huston went to Des Moines Friday to visit his brother Harley who is attending school at that place. Mrs. Sadie Lewis and son, Fred, of Russell, returned to Chariton Friday evening to visit for a few days.

Mrs. M. J. Matthews, of Johnston, Pa., arrived Wednesday evening for a week's visit with her niece, Mrs. H. W. Elliott. Miss here Stevens went to the country Saturday for a week's visit at the home of G. F. Dyers.

Foster, Nov. 4.—Thomas Crook and family of Hiteam were over Sunday visitors at the home of David Lewis. James Anderson and Jules Lambin went to Albia Saturday and took out their naturalization papers and became citizens of the United States and will vote hereafter.

George Funkhouser moved to Hilton Thursday where he has secured employment. Quite a number went to Albia Saturday night to hear Major Leake and the Hon. N. E. Kendall speak. Mrs. Cross is visiting relatives in Hamilton this week.

Ern, to Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, October 26. Anthony Pavellig moved out to Sheppard mines last week. Roy Maner and Miss Annie, Erickson were visiting in Albia Saturday. Born October 26 to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sly a daughter.

Harry William and wife of Hocking were over Sunday visitors at the home of Bert Seely. Robert Wilson moved on the E. T. Adams southeast of town. Frank Buck of the Excelsior Coal Co., was in Chicago last week on business for the company.

Dudley, Nov. 4.—Samuel Johnson of South Ottumwa visited with his sons, Andrew and Wilfred Johnson, south of here, on last Friday. E. L. Peterson was in Ottumwa last Saturday.

Miss Cora Augustine, teacher of the No. 7 school south of here, spent last Saturday at her home in Agency. John Gustafson of a new residence is nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy.

A. O. Stevens is building a new barn on his place south of here this fall. Alex Anderson and his mother called on E. L. Peterson's last Saturday afternoon. Alfred Peterson, principal of the school at Cromwell, who came home Monday morning and spent the night, returned yesterday afternoon on No. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carlson, living west of here, spent last Sunday at the home of J. M. Nelson's east of Munterville. Albin Allen, who has been working in Ottumwa for the past three months, returned home a few days ago and is now working for Wilfred Johnson.

S. B. Ferguson of Des Moines made a few days' visit with his parents near here last week. Eddyville, Nov. 4.—Born, Monday, November 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Victor McGee, on the W. Chapman farm, four and one-half miles south of the city, a son.

Mrs. G. N. Berry, northwest of town, submitted to a surgical operation at the W. G. Berry home, on South Third street, Tuesday afternoon. The operation was performed by Dr. E. L. Bay and Dr. R. P. Hinchshaw of this place, and Dr. D. C. Brockman of Ottumwa. The patient was resting as well as could be expected last night. Mrs. Berry's sister, Miss Electa McCrea of Oskaloosa, was down Tuesday and spent the day at her bedside.

Melvin Johnson, driver of Pais' ice wagon, while unharnessing his team Monday morning received a blow on the head from the front foot of one of the horses, making an ugly scalp wound with the calk of its shoe, which it required several stitches to close. He was also injured on the back and arm. His injuries were attended to by Drs. F. E. Vance, E. L. Bay and R. F. Hinchshaw, and he suffered quite severely Tuesday.

Willie Bell, the young man at Pekay who was shot Saturday evening while out with a party of young men enjoying Halloween, is getting along nicely, and will in all probability recover. In the absence of the regular pastor, Rev. W. R. Yard, who has been conducting revivals at Prairie Flower for two or three weeks, Rev. Mistle of Pella, preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening, and in the hall at Lakonia Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Seifert entertained a number of ladies at a 6 o'clock tea Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Ed Smith, of Des Moines, who is here on a visit. Those in attendance were: Mesdames Mary Snow, J. N. Elliott, Lucy Laffer, Henrietta Sprague and J. R. Davidson, Sr.

Will Albaugh, south of town, has been indisposed. Rev. W. T. Howe, assisted by Rev. Bevan of Ottumwa, commenced a series of revivals at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday. Adam Embling, reading about four miles south of town in the vicinity of Last Creek, purchased the Courts property on Ninth street Monday, and will move his family to town.

The Halloween party given at the home of Miss Ethel Mintoyne, on South Second street, Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Congregational church was largely attended, 40 or 50 people being present. The evening was spent in playing games and eating nuts, doughnuts and apples. The rooms were illuminated with jack-o'-lanterns. A portion of the crowd assembled on the lawn the hours being from 8 till 11 o'clock. The Eddyville Social club, which the young people enjoyed so much last year, was reorganized, to hold meetings each alternate week, the next meeting to be held with Miss Hazel Ogden on Friday, November 13. The organization starts out with 50 or 60 members. The following are the officers: President, Dr. Martin Long; vice president, Miss Ida A. Welch; secretary, Miss Ethel Mintoyne; treasurer, Frank Waungan. Miss Minnie Templeton of Oskaloosa, has been visiting her friend, Mrs. R. E. Grattan, on Fourth street.

Miss Laura Donegan of Gray Creek, who has been in Colorado on an extended sojourn, visiting relatives and friends, returned home Sunday. Her father, who accompanied her out, returned several weeks previously. Miss Blanche Odgen of Marshalltown, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. L. McCord, in Oskaloosa, was calling on relatives here Friday while en route to Ottumwa to visit relatives there. Her little cousin, Master Harold McCord, accompanied her. Ed Kussart, who left Eddyville August 18, and has since been sojourning at various places in Minnesota, arrived home Monday afternoon. Enroute home, he stopped off and visited in Marshalltown, Oskaloosa and Pella. While in Minnesota he was a guest for some time of his brother, Dr. Jacob Kussart, whom he reports to be getting along fine. A number of friends spent Halloween with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Davis. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames J. L. Wilson and Jesse Swan; Mesdames E. A. McGaugh, H. R. Fortune and J. C. Kirfman. L. E. Gray, who has for the past year assisted Agent H. J. Wing in his duties at the C. R. L. & P. depot, took charge of the depot at Coalfield Monday, having secured a position as operator and agent there. Miss Nina Allbaugh was a passenger to Ottumwa on business Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lemmon and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fullmer of Athens, Michigan, drove to Oskaloosa Friday and spent the day. On Saturday Mrs. Lemmon, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fullmer and son, and Samuel Fullmer, the latter of Kirkville, went to Olivet for an over Sunday visit with Will Fullmer. Thomas Van Winkle, a prominent farmer south of town, has been visiting his aged mother at Pella. Mrs. M. J. Williams, corner of First and Elm streets, has been planning to leave soon for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Jerry Mansfield, at Rock Island, Ill. Misses Grace and Clara Hartman have gone to Des Moines for an extended visit with their brother, Russell Hartman. Sidney Newell, who has been working at No. 9 mine the past ten months, left Friday morning for Ottumwa, where he will stop for the present. The Catholics will hold a festival in the K. P. hall on Wednesday, November 11. There will be dancing and other amusements. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Miller, son, Harry, and daughters, Alta and Frank, were in Ottumwa Saturday on business, and Harry remained for an over-Sunday visit. Misses Lucy, Eva and Blanche Kussart were passengers to Oskaloosa on business Friday. Mrs. Charles B. Barnett, who has been visiting for several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jager, Sr., and other relatives, has returned to her home at Jonesboro, Arkansas. Mr. Barnett arrived Friday for an over-Sunday visit, and accompanied her home.

Walter and Myrtle Erlacher of Ottumwa, were over-Sunday guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Buhler. W. W. DeLong has been on the sick list. A party was tendered Mrs. Wesley Ruggles Saturday night in honor of her birthday anniversary, which fell on Sunday, Nov. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Denning of South Fourth street, spent Sunday with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Denning, east of town. Mrs. Walter Jones and children of Kalona, arrived Saturday for a week or 10 days' visit with Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. S. E. Mintoyne, on South Second street, and at the parental J. B. Jones home, near Coalfield.

Miss Jennie Cottum, of St. Louis, Mo., visited with her friends here. Those from here that attended the thirty-seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rose, of Pleasant Home, Sunday evening, were Messrs. and Mesdames C. H. Chisam, G. H. Hishman, W. J. Taylor, H. T. Latrop and Daniel Rosecrans. Joseph Hoacok was transacting business in Ottumwa Saturday. Mrs. Cora DeWitt of South Ottumwa, visited Bidwell friends recently. Mr. Chills, of Ottumwa, was a Bidwell visitor Sunday evening.

Miss Cora DeWitt finished the new residence for George Chisam last week. It is the most spacious and elegantly finished residence in this part of the country. Hazel Dell, Nov. 4.—Married, October 28, at Pella, Iowa, the bride and groom, Miss Ida Skinner to Lewis Condor of South Ottumwa. Rev. Bailey of Ottumwa, officiating. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served and after the evening Mr. and Mrs. Condor were treated to a charivari by their many friends. The newly married couple went to housekeeping at once in South Ottumwa where they will be at home to their friends. Mrs. Will Wolfe and little daughter, Maudie, visited Wednesday at the parental Robert's home at Ashgrove after a pleasant trip. Otto Adamson is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crane and children and Miss Bessie Coganah visited Saturday and Sunday. Stephen Coganah and family, of Blakesburg. Rev. Bailey conducted revival services at Christian Chapel last week. Miss Bessie Fleming was on the sick list last week. Mrs. Jas. Arnold visited Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. White, of Ashgrove. Fred Hollingsworth visited last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hollingsworth. Jesse Hobbs and family have moved on to the Henry Hirsch place. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baines and children spent Sunday with F. P. Salter and family, of South Ottumwa. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Overstreet and baby and Mrs. Frank Overstreet, all of South Ottumwa, spent Sunday at the parental Stephen Overstreet home. Walter Smith visited Sunday with Lloyd Hollingsworth. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cokerill and children spent Sunday with George Wilson. A harness ride was enjoyed by a few of the young people Thursday evening out to Frank Smith's north of Ottumwa, and a very good time reported by all. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Nick Smith and baby of Ottumwa, Misses Dora Hendricks, Della Smith, Eva Harsch, of Hazel Dell, and Altes Rutledge, of Ottumwa, Messrs. Ira Berry, Will Hendricks, Henry Smith, Earl Harsch and Elmer Hendricks. Harry Skinner, of South Ottumwa, spent Sunday with relatives and friends in Hazel Dell Sunday. E. G. Harsch and family visited relatives in Ottumwa Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey, of Copperhill, attended the Condor-Skinner wedding Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Mariz, of Ottumwa, called on their daughter, Mrs. Henry Harsch, Thursday. E. Kosman and wife spent Sunday with relatives in Ottumwa. Little Miss Helen Saylor, of southeast of Ottumwa, spent the latter part of last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McHugh. A pie social was given at the Christian chapel Friday evening and a neat sum realized. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hollingsworth and children and Miss Virgie Baum spent Sunday with J. B. Jackson and family. Miss Flora Cokerill spent Friday night with her friend, Miss Regina McHugh.

Blakesburg, Nov. 3.—Sam'l Millard will leave the farm and move to Blakesburg to assist Iowa farmers make enough money to afford to retire and spend their old days at leisure. J. Chopin is going to move to Lucerne. Mr. Chopin is a member of the town council, member of the school board and a number one citizen. Dr. Tait is located in the Udel home. Dr. Udel is going to Chicago for a few days. John Mon has moved from Dakota to Blakesburg and will have charge of the section left vacant by the removal of J. Chopin. C. Cunningham has returned from Missouri and will resume his work as section foreman. Sam'l Burton will leave the farm and move to Blakesburg. Farris Burton will soon occupy the Thos. Thompson home. Tom Thompson will remove his family to Des Moines to place his children in the State University. Several Blakesburg people have located claims in South Dakota. John Abernathy will leave the farm and locate in Blakesburg. Dan Rybolt is removing from Albia to Blakesburg. The demand for houses here exceeds the supply. Chas. Post has purchased a house and lot on Oak street. John Eddle and Isom Childster have just completed additions to their houses that place them among the neatest cottages in the town. James Angel and wife have returned from Colorado. Mrs. Sadie Henderson, of Centerville, is in Blakesburg. Wm. Shea and wife attended the cattle show in Kansas City. S. L. Cohanen has sold one of his farms, known as the Frank Derby farm, to Frank Nolan of Missouri. Hon. Toab Smith, of Harlin, visited his parents in Blakesburg last week. Ed and daughter, Zay, visited a few days in Blakesburg. The mayor has shut off all the slot machines in town. Mrs. Amanda Kaufman has returned from her home in Missouri. Roy Farand has been at home for a few days. Mrs. Fred Hardy has returned to her home in Missouri. The farmers have made good use of the fine weather and have their fall work well along.

Sidney Newell, who has been working at No. 9 mine the past ten months, left Friday morning for Ottumwa, where he will stop for the present. The Catholics will hold a festival in the K. P. hall on Wednesday, November 11. There will be dancing and other amusements. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Miller, son, Harry, and daughters, Alta and Frank, were in Ottumwa Saturday on business, and Harry remained for an over-Sunday visit. Misses Lucy, Eva and Blanche Kussart were passengers to Oskaloosa on business Friday. Mrs. Charles B. Barnett, who has been visiting for several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jager, Sr., and other relatives, has returned to her home at Jonesboro, Arkansas. Mr. Barnett arrived Friday for an over-Sunday visit, and accompanied her home.

Walter and Myrtle Erlacher of Ottumwa, were over-Sunday guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Buhler. W. W. DeLong has been on the sick list. A party was tendered Mrs. Wesley Ruggles Saturday night in honor of her birthday anniversary, which fell on Sunday, Nov. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Denning of South Fourth street, spent Sunday with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Denning, east of town. Mrs. Walter Jones and children of Kalona, arrived Saturday for a week or 10 days' visit with Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. S. E. Mintoyne, on South Second street, and at the parental J. B. Jones home, near Coalfield.

Miss Jennie Cottum, of St. Louis, Mo., visited with her friends here. Those from here that attended the thirty-seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rose, of Pleasant Home, Sunday evening, were Messrs. and Mesdames C. H. Chisam, G. H. Hishman, W. J. Taylor, H. T. Latrop and Daniel Rosecrans. Joseph Hoacok was transacting business in Ottumwa Saturday. Mrs. Cora DeWitt of South Ottumwa, visited Bidwell friends recently. Mr. Chills, of Ottumwa, was a Bidwell visitor Sunday evening.

Miss Cora DeWitt finished the new residence for George Chisam last week. It is the most spacious and elegantly finished residence in this part of the country. Hazel Dell, Nov. 4.—Married, October 28, at Pella, Iowa, the bride and groom, Miss Ida Skinner to Lewis Condor of South Ottumwa. Rev. Bailey of Ottumwa, officiating. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served and after the evening Mr. and Mrs. Condor were treated to a charivari by their many friends. The newly married couple went to housekeeping at once in South Ottumwa where they will be at home to their friends. Mrs. Will Wolfe and little daughter, Maudie, visited Wednesday at the parental Robert's home at Ashgrove after a pleasant trip. Otto Adamson is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crane and children and Miss Bessie Coganah visited Saturday and Sunday. Stephen Coganah and family, of Blakesburg. Rev. Bailey conducted revival services at Christian Chapel last week. Miss Bessie Fleming was on the sick list last week. Mrs. Jas. Arnold visited Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. White, of Ashgrove. Fred Hollingsworth visited last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hollingsworth. Jesse Hobbs and family have moved on to the Henry Hirsch place. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baines and children spent Sunday with F. P. Salter and family, of South Ottumwa. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Overstreet and baby and Mrs. Frank Overstreet, all of South Ottumwa, spent Sunday at the parental Stephen Overstreet home. Walter Smith visited Sunday with Lloyd Hollingsworth. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cokerill and children spent Sunday with George Wilson. A harness ride was enjoyed by a few of the young people Thursday evening out to Blakesburg, Nov. 3.—Sam'l Millard will leave the farm and move to Blakesburg to assist Iowa farmers make enough money to afford to retire and spend their old days at leisure. J. Chopin is going to move to Lucerne. Mr. Chopin is a member of the town council, member of the school board and a number one citizen. Dr. Tait is located in the Udel home. Dr. Udel is going to Chicago for a few days. John Mon has moved from Dakota to Blakesburg and will have charge of the section left vacant by the removal of J. Chopin. C. Cunningham has returned from Missouri and will resume his work as section foreman. Sam'l Burton will leave the farm and move to Blakesburg. Farris Burton will soon occupy the Thos. Thompson home. Tom Thompson will remove his family to Des Moines to place his children in the State University. Several Blakesburg people have located claims in South Dakota. John Abernathy will leave the farm and locate in Blakesburg. Dan Rybolt is removing from Albia to Blakesburg. The demand for houses here exceeds the supply. Chas. Post has purchased a house and lot on Oak street. John Eddle and Isom Childster have just completed additions to their houses that place them among the neatest cottages in the town. James Angel and wife have returned from Colorado. Mrs. Sadie Henderson, of Centerville, is in Blakesburg. Wm. Shea and wife attended the cattle show in Kansas City. S. L. Cohanen has sold one of his farms, known as the Frank Derby farm, to Frank Nolan of Missouri. Hon. Toab Smith, of Harlin, visited his parents in Blakesburg last week. Ed and daughter, Zay, visited a few days in Blakesburg. The mayor has shut off all the slot machines in town. Mrs. Amanda Kaufman has returned from her home in Missouri. Roy Farand has been at home for a few days. Mrs. Fred Hardy has returned to her home in Missouri. The farmers have made good use of the fine weather and have their fall work well along.

Sidney Newell, who has been working at No. 9 mine the past ten months, left Friday morning for Ottumwa, where he will stop for the present. The Catholics will hold a festival in the K. P. hall on Wednesday, November 11. There will be dancing and other amusements. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Miller, son, Harry, and daughters, Alta and Frank, were in Ottumwa Saturday on business, and Harry remained for an over-Sunday visit. Misses Lucy, Eva and Blanche Kussart were passengers to Oskaloosa on business Friday. Mrs. Charles B. Barnett, who has been visiting for several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jager, Sr., and other relatives, has returned to her home at Jonesboro, Arkansas. Mr. Barnett arrived Friday for an over-Sunday visit, and accompanied her home.

Walter and Myrtle Erlacher of Ottumwa, were over-Sunday guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Buhler. W. W. DeLong has been on the sick list. A party was tendered Mrs. Wesley Ruggles Saturday night in honor of her birthday anniversary, which fell on Sunday, Nov. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Denning of South Fourth street, spent Sunday with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Denning, east of town. Mrs. Walter Jones and children of Kalona, arrived Saturday for a week or 10 days' visit with Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. S. E. Mintoyne, on South Second street, and at the parental J. B. Jones home, near Coalfield.

Miss Jennie Cottum, of St. Louis, Mo., visited with her friends here. Those from here that attended the thirty-seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rose, of Pleasant Home, Sunday evening, were Messrs. and Mesdames C. H. Chisam, G. H. Hishman, W. J. Taylor, H. T. Latrop and Daniel Rosecrans. Joseph Hoacok was transacting business in Ottumwa Saturday. Mrs. Cora DeWitt of South Ottumwa, visited Bidwell friends recently. Mr. Chills, of Ottumwa, was a Bidwell visitor Sunday evening.

Miss Cora DeWitt finished the new residence for George Chisam last week. It is the most spacious and elegantly finished residence in this part of the country. Hazel Dell, Nov. 4.—Married, October 28, at Pella, Iowa, the bride and groom, Miss Ida Skinner to Lewis Condor of South Ottumwa. Rev. Bailey of Ottumwa, officiating. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served and after the evening Mr. and Mrs. Condor were treated to a charivari by their many friends. The newly married couple went to housekeeping at once in South Ottumwa where they will be at home to their friends. Mrs. Will Wolfe and little daughter, Maudie, visited Wednesday at the parental Robert's home at Ashgrove after a pleasant trip. Otto Adamson is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crane and children and Miss Bessie Coganah visited Saturday and Sunday. Stephen Coganah and family, of Blakesburg. Rev. Bailey conducted revival services at Christian Chapel last week. Miss Bessie Fleming was on the sick list last week. Mrs. Jas. Arnold visited Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. White, of Ashgrove. Fred Hollingsworth visited last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hollingsworth. Jesse Hobbs and family have moved on to the Henry Hirsch place. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baines and children spent Sunday with F. P. Salter and family, of South Ottumwa. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Overstreet and baby and Mrs. Frank Overstreet, all of South Ottumwa, spent Sunday at the parental Stephen Overstreet home. Walter Smith visited Sunday with Lloyd Hollingsworth. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cokerill and children spent Sunday with George Wilson. A harness ride was enjoyed by a few of the young people Thursday evening out to Blakesburg, Nov. 3.—Sam'l Millard will leave the farm and move to Blakesburg to assist Iowa farmers make enough money to afford to retire and spend their old days at leisure. J. Chopin is going to move to Lucerne. Mr. Chopin is a member of the town council, member of the school board and a number one citizen. Dr. Tait is located in the Udel home. Dr. Udel is going to Chicago for a few days. John Mon has moved from Dakota to Blakesburg and will have charge of the section left vacant by the removal of J. Chopin. C. Cunningham has returned from Missouri and will resume his work as section foreman. Sam'l Burton will leave the farm and move to Blakesburg. Farris Burton will soon occupy the Thos. Thompson home. Tom Thompson will remove his family to Des Moines to place his children in the State University. Several Blakesburg people have located claims in South Dakota. John Abernathy will leave the farm and locate in Blakesburg. Dan Rybolt is removing from Albia to Blakesburg. The demand for houses here exceeds the supply. Chas. Post has purchased a house and lot on Oak street. John Eddle and Isom Childster have just completed additions to their houses that place them among the neatest cottages in the town. James Angel and wife have returned from Colorado. Mrs. Sadie Henderson, of Centerville, is in Blakesburg. Wm. Shea and wife attended the cattle show in Kansas City. S. L. Cohanen has sold one of his farms, known as the Frank Derby farm, to Frank Nolan of Missouri. Hon. Toab Smith, of Harlin, visited his parents in Blakesburg last week. Ed and daughter, Zay, visited a few days in Blakesburg. The mayor has shut off all the slot machines in town. Mrs. Amanda Kaufman has returned from her home in Missouri. Roy Farand has been at home for a few days. Mrs. Fred Hardy has returned to her home in Missouri. The farmers have made good use of the fine weather and have their fall work well along.

Sidney Newell, who has been working at No. 9 mine the past ten months, left Friday morning for Ottumwa, where he will stop for the present. The Catholics will hold a festival in the K. P. hall on Wednesday, November 11. There will be dancing and other amusements. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Miller, son, Harry, and daughters, Alta and Frank, were in Ottumwa Saturday on business, and Harry remained for an over-Sunday visit. Misses Lucy, Eva and Blanche Kussart were passengers to Oskaloosa on business Friday. Mrs. Charles B. Barnett, who has been visiting for several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jager, Sr., and other relatives, has returned to her home at Jonesboro, Arkansas. Mr. Barnett arrived Friday for an over-Sunday visit, and accompanied her home.

Walter and Myrtle Erlacher of Ottumwa, were over-Sunday guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Buhler. W. W. DeLong has been on the sick list. A party was tendered Mrs. Wesley Ruggles Saturday night in honor of her birthday anniversary, which fell on Sunday, Nov. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Denning of South Fourth street, spent Sunday with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Denning, east of town. Mrs. Walter Jones and children of Kalona, arrived Saturday for a week or 10 days' visit with Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. S. E. Mintoyne, on South Second street, and at the parental J. B. Jones home, near Coalfield.

Miss Jennie Cottum, of St. Louis, Mo., visited with her friends here. Those from here that attended the thirty-seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rose, of Pleasant Home, Sunday evening, were Messrs. and Mesdames C. H. Chisam, G. H. Hishman, W. J. Taylor, H. T. Latrop and Daniel Rosecrans. Joseph Hoacok was transacting business in Ottumwa Saturday. Mrs. Cora DeWitt of South Ottumwa, visited Bidwell friends recently. Mr. Chills, of Ottumwa, was a Bidwell visitor Sunday evening.

Miss Cora DeWitt finished the new residence for George Chisam last week. It is the most spacious and elegantly finished residence in this part of the country. Hazel Dell, Nov. 4.—Married, October 28, at Pella, Iowa, the bride and groom, Miss Ida Skinner to Lewis Condor of South Ottumwa. Rev. Bailey of Ottumwa, officiating. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served and after the evening Mr. and Mrs. Condor were treated to a charivari by their many friends. The newly married couple went to housekeeping at once in South Ottumwa where they will be at home to their friends. Mrs. Will Wolfe and little daughter, Maudie, visited Wednesday at the parental Robert's home at Ashgrove after a pleasant trip. Otto Adamson is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crane and children and Miss Bessie Coganah visited Saturday and Sunday. Stephen Coganah and family, of Blakesburg. Rev. Bailey conducted revival services at Christian Chapel last week. Miss Bessie Fleming was on the sick list last week. Mrs. Jas. Arnold visited Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. White, of Ashgrove. Fred Hollingsworth visited last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hollingsworth. Jesse Hobbs and family have moved on to the Henry Hirsch place. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baines and children spent Sunday with F. P. Salter and family, of South Ottumwa. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Overstreet and baby and Mrs. Frank Overstreet, all of South Ottumwa, spent Sunday at the parental Stephen Overstreet home. Walter Smith visited Sunday with Lloyd Hollingsworth. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cokerill and children spent Sunday with George Wilson. A harness ride was enjoyed by a few of the young people Thursday evening out to Blakesburg, Nov. 3.—Sam'l Millard will leave the farm and move to Blakesburg to assist Iowa farmers make enough money to afford to retire and spend their old days at leisure. J. Chopin is going to move to Lucerne. Mr. Chopin is a member of the town council, member of the school board and a number one citizen. Dr. Tait is located in the Udel home. Dr. Udel is going to Chicago for a few days. John Mon has moved from Dakota to Blakesburg and will have charge of the section left vacant by the removal of J. Chopin. C. Cunningham has returned from Missouri and will resume his work as section foreman. Sam'l Burton will leave the farm and move to Blakesburg. Farris Burton will soon occupy the Thos. Thompson home. Tom Thompson will remove his family to Des Moines to place his children in the State University. Several Blakesburg people have located claims in South Dakota. John Abernathy will leave the farm and locate in Blakesburg. Dan Rybolt is removing from Albia to Blakesburg. The demand for houses here exceeds the supply. Chas. Post has purchased a house and lot on Oak street. John Eddle and Isom Childster have just completed additions to their houses that place them among the neatest cottages in the town. James Angel and wife have returned from Colorado. Mrs. Sadie Henderson, of Centerville, is in Blakesburg. Wm. Shea and wife attended the cattle show in Kansas City. S. L. Cohanen has sold one of his farms, known as the Frank Derby farm, to Frank Nolan of Missouri. Hon. Toab Smith, of Harlin, visited his parents in Blakesburg last week. Ed and daughter, Zay, visited a few days in Blakesburg. The mayor has shut off all the slot machines in town. Mrs. Amanda Kaufman has returned from her home in Missouri. Roy Farand has been at home for a few days. Mrs. Fred Hardy has returned to her home in Missouri. The farmers have made good use of the fine weather and have their fall work well along.

Sidney Newell, who has been working at No. 9 mine the past ten months, left Friday morning for Ottumwa, where he will stop for the present. The Catholics will hold a festival in the K. P. hall on Wednesday, November 11. There will be dancing and other amusements. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Miller, son, Harry, and daughters, Alta and Frank, were in Ottumwa Saturday on business, and Harry remained for an over-Sunday visit. Misses Lucy, Eva and Blanche Kussart were passengers to Oskaloosa on business Friday. Mrs. Charles B. Barnett, who has been visiting for several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jager, Sr., and other relatives, has returned to her home at Jonesboro, Arkansas. Mr. Barnett arrived Friday for an over-Sunday visit, and accompanied her home.

Walter and Myrtle Erlacher of Ottumwa, were over-Sunday guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Buhler. W. W. DeLong has been on the sick list. A party was tendered Mrs. Wesley Ruggles Saturday night in honor of her birthday anniversary, which fell on Sunday, Nov. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Denning of South Fourth street, spent Sunday with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Denning, east of town. Mrs. Walter Jones and children of Kalona, arrived Saturday for a week or 10 days' visit with Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. S. E. Mintoyne, on South Second street, and at the parental J. B. Jones home, near Coalfield.

Miss Jennie Cottum, of St. Louis, Mo., visited with her friends here. Those from here that attended the thirty-seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rose, of Pleasant Home, Sunday evening, were Messrs. and Mesdames C. H. Chisam, G. H. Hishman, W. J. Taylor, H. T. Latrop and Daniel Rosecrans. Joseph Hoacok was transacting business in Ottumwa Saturday. Mrs. Cora DeWitt of South Ottumwa, visited Bidwell friends recently. Mr. Chills, of Ottumwa, was a Bidwell visitor Sunday evening.

Miss Cora DeWitt finished the new residence for George Chisam last week. It is the most spacious and elegantly finished residence in this part of the country. Hazel Dell, Nov. 4.—Married, October 28, at Pella, Iowa, the bride and groom, Miss Ida Skinner to Lewis Condor of South Ottumwa. Rev. Bailey of Ottumwa, officiating. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served and after the evening Mr. and Mrs. Condor were treated to a charivari by their many friends. The newly married couple went to housekeeping at once in South Ottumwa where they will be at home to their friends. Mrs. Will Wolfe and little daughter, Maudie, visited Wednesday at the parental Robert's home at Ashgrove after a pleasant trip. Otto Adamson is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crane and children and Miss Bessie Coganah visited Saturday and Sunday. Stephen Coganah and family, of Blakesburg. Rev. Bailey conducted revival services at Christian Chapel last week. Miss Bessie Fleming was on the sick list last week. Mrs. Jas. Arnold visited Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. White, of Ashgrove. Fred Hollingsworth visited last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hollingsworth. Jesse Hobbs and family have moved on to the Henry Hirsch place. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baines and children spent Sunday with F. P. Salter and family, of South Ottumwa. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Overstreet and baby and Mrs. Frank Overstreet, all of South Ottumwa, spent Sunday at the parental Stephen Overstreet home. Walter Smith visited Sunday with Lloyd Hollingsworth. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cokerill and children spent Sunday with George Wilson. A harness ride was enjoyed by a few of the young people Thursday evening out to

Blakesburg, Nov. 3.—Sam'l Millard will leave the farm and move to Blakesburg to assist Iowa farmers make