

Fifty Years the Standard

Improves the flavor and adds to the healthfulness of the food.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO. CHICAGO

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Maple Grove.

Maple Grove, Nov. 15.—The social given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dodd last Thursday evening was well attended and all report a very pleasant time.

Mrs. Sylvia and Arlie Tadlock departed Saturday evening for a visit with relatives and friends in Ottumwa.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Duval were in Moravia Tuesday.

Miss Ono Hicks spent Sunday with her parents at this place.

A pie supper will be held at the Maple Grove school house Tuesday evening.

Edward Derst transacted business in town recently.

Miss Maude Lovell spent Sunday evening with Miss Sadie Palmer.

Miss Beryl Sharp teacher at this place is at her home in Moravia enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

Bentonsport.

Bentonsport, Nov. 16.—C. E. McKinney was in Ottumwa Wednesday before the board of pension examiners.

Bert Miller and family are making an extended visit with relatives near Big Maunt.

Frank Coins has moved into Alex Carter's residence on Main street. Mrs. W. J. Bragg and Miss Etta Weaver attended the Sunday school convention in Keosauqua this week.

David Marriott of Vernon left last week for Oklahoma to spend the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Ocy McIntosh. George Hennings now occupies the M. E. parsonage. The house he vacated is now the property of John Sneath.

Henry Fulton and family have moved into the brick house above the railroad formerly occupied by Geo Robinson, who is now living in the Presbyterian parsonage.

J. W. Scott was a business visitor at the county seat the first of the week. Harry Robinson is in Keosauqua this week attending court.

H. H. Fulton has been home this week assisting his father move.

Mrs. J. M. Murphy is making an extended visit with her parents.

Eddyville.

Eddyville, Nov. 16.—The work of re-flooding the wagon bridge, which has been delayed the past three weeks on account of lack of lumber, was resumed Friday morning.

John Pickercell of Eveland, was in town Tuesday afternoon on business.

John Werner departed Tuesday night for Billings, Missouri, to spend the winter with his sons, Charley and Clark, and with his sister, Mrs. Bonnie Morlock. Prior to his departure he visited in Oskaloosa with his sons, George and Henry Werner.

The pump station at the Iowa Central depot will soon be remodeled.

Mrs. Fanny Cassatt, who resides with her mother, Mrs. John Homer, on Mill street, was a guest the first of the week of her sister, Mrs. Vanderzyl, at Pella.

The Rev. J. E. Van Winkle tenant property corner Fourth and Mill, occupied by H. J. Wing, the Rock Island agent, is being improved by fresh paint and otherwise.

Mrs. George Pendray, of Keithsburg, Illinois, is expected to arrive Friday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McNeese, corner Second and Elm streets.

D. Lloyd Manford, of Ottumwa, district director of the S. D. Adventist church, returned to Ottumwa, Tuesday after a few days' visit with the Adventist people here.

Wm. Booth, of Lost Creek, expects to depart November 17 for Huntington, Arkansas, to spend a couple of weeks with his parents. He resided there about ten years ago.

Miss Ethel Mintonye, teacher of the Bridgeport school across the river, is on the program for a paper to be delivered before the teachers' meeting at Albia November 21. Her subject will be "The Need and Uses of a Library."

John B. Sipes, the Courier correspondent, attended the semi-annual meeting of the Southwestern Iowa Editors' association, held in Albia Thursday, and had a most enjoyable time. Frank Much returned Tuesday to Hamilton where he has been working. He had been spending a few days at Muchaknock.

Hedrick. Hedrick, Nov. 16.—W. H. Young is in Des Moines attending the army post meeting.

Eli A. Grubb and Mrs. Amelia Hedges were married at the residence of Rev. J. N. Smith in this city, Thursday morning. Both the contracting parties are well known in this vicinity and will reside on a farm north of town.

Prof. John F. Hankhammer gave his first entertainment of the season at Albert Lea, Minnesota, Saturday night.

Eddyville, Nov. 16.—The work of re-flooding the wagon bridge, which has been delayed the past three weeks on account of lack of lumber, was resumed Friday morning.

John Pickercell of Eveland, was in town Tuesday afternoon on business.

John Werner departed Tuesday night for Billings, Missouri, to spend the winter with his sons, Charley and Clark, and with his sister, Mrs. Bonnie Morlock. Prior to his departure he visited in Oskaloosa with his sons, George and Henry Werner.

The pump station at the Iowa Central depot will soon be remodeled.

Mrs. Fanny Cassatt, who resides with her mother, Mrs. John Homer, on Mill street, was a guest the first of the week of her sister, Mrs. Vanderzyl, at Pella.

The Rev. J. E. Van Winkle tenant property corner Fourth and Mill, occupied by H. J. Wing, the Rock Island agent, is being improved by fresh paint and otherwise.

Mrs. George Pendray, of Keithsburg, Illinois, is expected to arrive Friday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McNeese, corner Second and Elm streets.

D. Lloyd Manford, of Ottumwa, district director of the S. D. Adventist church, returned to Ottumwa, Tuesday after a few days' visit with the Adventist people here.

Wm. Booth, of Lost Creek, expects to depart November 17 for Huntington, Arkansas, to spend a couple of weeks with his parents. He resided there about ten years ago.

Miss Ethel Mintonye, teacher of the Bridgeport school across the river, is on the program for a paper to be delivered before the teachers' meeting at Albia November 21. Her subject will be "The Need and Uses of a Library."

John B. Sipes, the Courier correspondent, attended the semi-annual meeting of the Southwestern Iowa Editors' association, held in Albia Thursday, and had a most enjoyable time. Frank Much returned Tuesday to Hamilton where he has been working. He had been spending a few days at Muchaknock.

Hedrick. Hedrick, Nov. 16.—W. H. Young is in Des Moines attending the army post meeting.

Eli A. Grubb and Mrs. Amelia Hedges were married at the residence of Rev. J. N. Smith in this city, Thursday morning. Both the contracting parties are well known in this vicinity and will reside on a farm north of town.

Prof. John F. Hankhammer gave his first entertainment of the season at Albert Lea, Minnesota, Saturday night.

Eddyville, Nov. 16.—The work of re-flooding the wagon bridge, which has been delayed the past three weeks on account of lack of lumber, was resumed Friday morning.

John Pickercell of Eveland, was in town Tuesday afternoon on business.

John Werner departed Tuesday night for Billings, Missouri, to spend the winter with his sons, Charley and Clark, and with his sister, Mrs. Bonnie Morlock. Prior to his departure he visited in Oskaloosa with his sons, George and Henry Werner.

The pump station at the Iowa Central depot will soon be remodeled.

Mrs. Fanny Cassatt, who resides with her mother, Mrs. John Homer, on Mill street, was a guest the first of the week of her sister, Mrs. Vanderzyl, at Pella.

The Rev. J. E. Van Winkle tenant property corner Fourth and Mill, occupied by H. J. Wing, the Rock Island agent, is being improved by fresh paint and otherwise.

Mrs. George Pendray, of Keithsburg, Illinois, is expected to arrive Friday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McNeese, corner Second and Elm streets.

D. Lloyd Manford, of Ottumwa, district director of the S. D. Adventist church, returned to Ottumwa, Tuesday after a few days' visit with the Adventist people here.

Wm. Booth, of Lost Creek, expects to depart November 17 for Huntington, Arkansas, to spend a couple of weeks with his parents. He resided there about ten years ago.

Miss Ethel Mintonye, teacher of the Bridgeport school across the river, is on the program for a paper to be delivered before the teachers' meeting at Albia November 21. Her subject will be "The Need and Uses of a Library."

John B. Sipes, the Courier correspondent, attended the semi-annual meeting of the Southwestern Iowa Editors' association, held in Albia Thursday, and had a most enjoyable time. Frank Much returned Tuesday to Hamilton where he has been working. He had been spending a few days at Muchaknock.

Hedrick. Hedrick, Nov. 16.—W. H. Young is in Des Moines attending the army post meeting.

Eli A. Grubb and Mrs. Amelia Hedges were married at the residence of Rev. J. N. Smith in this city, Thursday morning. Both the contracting parties are well known in this vicinity and will reside on a farm north of town.

Prof. John F. Hankhammer gave his first entertainment of the season at Albert Lea, Minnesota, Saturday night.

Eddyville, Nov. 16.—The work of re-flooding the wagon bridge, which has been delayed the past three weeks on account of lack of lumber, was resumed Friday morning.

John Pickercell of Eveland, was in town Tuesday afternoon on business.

John Werner departed Tuesday night for Billings, Missouri, to spend the winter with his sons, Charley and Clark, and with his sister, Mrs. Bonnie Morlock. Prior to his departure he visited in Oskaloosa with his sons, George and Henry Werner.

The pump station at the Iowa Central depot will soon be remodeled.

Mrs. Fanny Cassatt, who resides with her mother, Mrs. John Homer, on Mill street, was a guest the first of the week of her sister, Mrs. Vanderzyl, at Pella.

The Rev. J. E. Van Winkle tenant property corner Fourth and Mill, occupied by H. J. Wing, the Rock Island agent, is being improved by fresh paint and otherwise.

Mrs. George Pendray, of Keithsburg, Illinois, is expected to arrive Friday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McNeese, corner Second and Elm streets.

D. Lloyd Manford, of Ottumwa, district director of the S. D. Adventist church, returned to Ottumwa, Tuesday after a few days' visit with the Adventist people here.

Wm. Booth, of Lost Creek, expects to depart November 17 for Huntington, Arkansas, to spend a couple of weeks with his parents. He resided there about ten years ago.

Miss Ethel Mintonye, teacher of the Bridgeport school across the river, is on the program for a paper to be delivered before the teachers' meeting at Albia November 21. Her subject will be "The Need and Uses of a Library."

John B. Sipes, the Courier correspondent, attended the semi-annual meeting of the Southwestern Iowa Editors' association, held in Albia Thursday, and had a most enjoyable time. Frank Much returned Tuesday to Hamilton where he has been working. He had been spending a few days at Muchaknock.

Hedrick. Hedrick, Nov. 16.—W. H. Young is in Des Moines attending the army post meeting.

Eli A. Grubb and Mrs. Amelia Hedges were married at the residence of Rev. J. N. Smith in this city, Thursday morning. Both the contracting parties are well known in this vicinity and will reside on a farm north of town.

under the management of the Buffalo Lyceum bureau of Bufile, N. Y. Mrs. Frank Erwin of North English visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Loch, this week.

Geo. Withall of Ottumwa was in town Thursday on business.

Peter Shook and Miss Dell Shook of Ioka were in town Wednesday.

Robert Adams of Sigourney was in town Friday between trains on his way to Ollie, where he had been called on official business.

J. T. Brooks was in Ottumwa Friday on business.

Mrs. Jas. Reach is reported very ill.

Davis County Line. Davis County Line, Nov. 16.—Miss Ida Beatty closed a very successful term of school at District No. 7 Nov. 6. There were several visitors present. A very interesting program was given in the afternoon, which was as follows:

Song by the school, "Happy Greeting to All."

Declaration, "The Best Way"—Holes Brown.

Declaration, "Guilty or Not Guilty"—Ruby Hamm.

Declaration, "Pussy"—Joe Heger.

Declaration, "Lady Blue Eyes"—Chloie Davis.

Declaration, "My Grandpa"—Mary Parson.

Declaration, "The Little Philosopher"—May Heger.

Declaration, "Sword of Bunker Hill"—Morton Dyer.

Song, "America"—School.

Declaration, "Six Years Old"—Susie Carter.

Declaration, "The Best Way"—Eddie Hamm.

Select reading, "When Mamma Was a Little Girl"—Ethel Parson.

Declaration, "A Happy Boy"—Willard Hamm.

Declaration, "Tommy's Prayer"—Grace Gilbert.

Declaration, "My Old Speckled Hen"—Glen Schlotter.

Select reading, "Farmer Brown and Justice"—Scott Davis.

Declaration, "A Boy's Mother"—Edd Carter.

Declaration, "My Little Friend"—Ethel Brown.

Select Reading, "Every Little Help"—Roy Davis.

Declaration, "Helping Mamma"—Bertha Heger.

Song, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," by school.

Mrs. Jake Schlotter returned Saturday from Oskaloosa, where she has been visiting with relatives the past three weeks.

Seth Adamson is very ill at his home.

Sam Hamm and Mrs. Lauro Hills were in Eldon Saturday.

Henry Hamm is on the sick list.

Miss Sylvia Bagley visited at Will Heger's recently.

Mrs. Laura Hills visited here Saturday.

Sigourney. Sigourney, Nov. 16.—Sigourney is to have a $1,500 organ soon. The "Old Maids" have raised $500 and will get pledges for $500 to be paid in one year and $500 in two years. The organ will be sent when half the amount is raised. The company will send an expert to give an opening recital which will probably net $100 or more.

The hostess furnishes cream, sugar and coffee and each couple brings one article of food and a sumptuous 6 o'clock dinner is served. The members of this club are Messrs. and Mesdames E. E. Phelps, F. L. Goeldner, W. D. Beatty, C. C. Heining, H. F. Wagner, A. H. Brunt, W. I. McLean, Jr. and W. H. Hamill.

Miss McKinnis of Ollie, is visiting at the G. B. Richardson home.

Miss Bonnie Johnson, of Brighton, is visiting at the home of her uncle, J. M. Richardson.

Mrs. Tillie Selby and her mother, Mrs. Wm. Randall, entertained the Adams-Hanson families at the White house last night.

Rev. Humphreys, of Delta, was in town Thursday.

Elvin M. Parker and wife came from Council Bluffs Thursday to attend the Parker golden wedding.

Marriage licenses were issued to F. L. Hannah, 23, and Mollie Dell Eckley, 21; E. A. Grubb, 58, and A. C. Hedges, 62; Andrew Nelson, 42, and Alice Dack, 32; V. C. Black, 24, and Bessie Gledfelter, 19.

F. W. Ritter, of Hedrick, was transacting business in town Wednesday.

John F. Riggs has appointed J. C. Bennett, of Ringgold county, as his deputy state superintendent. Mr. Bennett is now superintendent of Ringgold county.

Miss Bronson, a classmate of Bessie Seymour, at Cornell college, spent a few days in Sigourney with Bessie, while on her way to Ottumwa where she is a delegate to a convention.

Agency. Agency, Nov. 16.—George D. Wycoff and Gertrude Bailey, were married Sunday evening at 6 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bailey, near D. M. Lower officiating. It was a quiet wedding, only the immediate relatives and a few of the intimate friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. Wycoff left for Burlington for a short wedding tour. Their many friends wish them a long and prosperous voyage through life.

Dr. J. F. Newell has returned from a trip through the southern states.

Mrs. N. J. Thomas has been quite sick during the past week.

Mrs. C. S. Foster of Lorimer and Limon Reynolds of Lincoln, Neb., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Reynolds.

Misses Lottie Carmon and Fannie Pumphrey leave Tuesday for South Dakota to see the country and will probably take a claim while they are there.

Mrs. D. Newell has returned home, after visiting her son at Des Moines.

The Women's Aid society of the Methodist church will hold its annual flower show and social in the town hall November 25.

Mrs. Lizzie Snider and Sylvester Kinney of Troy, Kansas, and Mrs. Lizzie Burnett of Spokane, Washington, are visiting at the home of Wm. Johnson.

TO FIGHT FIRES.

Albia People Decide to Buy Chemical Fire Engine.

Albia, Nov. 14.—(Special)—The city council and a number of business men at a joint meeting last night decided to buy a chemical fire engine to be used in fighting fires in the future and to prevent, if possible, a repetition of the disastrous conflagration which visited Albia Thursday. Accordingly an engine which was on exhibition at the Iowa state fair was last night ordered and will be shipped to Albia from Des Moines at once. Another engine will probably be ordered soon.

TODAY'S MARKETS.

This market is furnished by Weare Grain Co., Chicago, E. C. French, Suite 18, Hofmann building, Agents.

Table with columns: Wheat, Open, High, Low, Close. Rows for Wheat, Corn, Pork, Lard, Short Ribs, May, and Northwestern Receipts.

Chicago Receipts Today.

Wheat, 146 cars; corn, 195 cars; oats, 221 cars.

Estimated Receipts Tomorrow.

Wheat, 220 cars; corn, 350 cars; oats, 290 cars.

Primary Receipts.

Wheat today, 1,088,000 bushels and last year 1,882,000 bushels; corn today 428,000 bushels and last year 620,000 bushels.

Shipments.

Wheat today 741,000 bushels and last year 644,000 bushels; corn today 584,000 bushels and last year 363,000 bushels.

Cleanings.

Wheat, 569,000 bushels; corn, 205,000 bushels; oats, 137,000 bushels.

Visible Supply.

Wheat has decreased 2,701,000 bushels; corn has decreased 495,000 bushels; oats has increased 547,000 bushels.

Liverpool Cables.

Opening—Wheat, unchanged; corn, 1/2c lower. Closing—Wheat, unchanged; corn, 1/2c lower.

Hog Market.

Receipts today, 32,000; left over, 1,600; estimated tomorrow, 26,000; official receipts yesterday, 15,000.

Visible Supply.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—The visible supply of grain is as follows: Wheat, today, 27,046,000 bushels and a year ago 28,091,000 bushels; corn, 7,289,000 bushels today, and a year ago 2,455,000 bushels; oats, today, 3,752,000 bushels and a year ago 7,571,000 bushels.

MARKETS BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chicago Live Stock Market.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Cattle, 40,000; lower; good to prime, 4.90@5.00; poor to medium, 3.25@4.20; stockers, 2.00@4.00; cows, 1.50@4.00; Texans, 2.75@3.55.

Chicago Produce Market.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Wheat No. 2 red, 82; No. 3 red, 80@81; No. 2 hard, 80@83; hard 76@79; December opened, 77 1/2@77 3/4; highest, 77 3/4@77 3/4; lowest, 76 3/4; closing, 76 3/4@76 3/4.

Chicago Butter and Egg Market.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Butter, steady; creameries, 15@21 1/2; dairies, 14@18 1/2; Eggs, steady; 22@24.

Chicago Poultry Market.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Poultry, turkeys, firmer, 14@15; chickens, steady; 9@9 1/2; springs, 10.

New York Butter and Egg Market.

New York, Nov. 16.—Butter, firm; extra creamery, 22 1/2; common to choice, 16@22.

New York Poultry Market.

New York, Nov. 16.—Poultry, alive, nominal; dressed firmer; chickens, 12 1/2@13; fowls, 11@11 1/2; turkeys, 17@18.

Peoria Produce Market.

Peoria, Nov. 16.—Corn, steady; No. 3, 42; Oats, easy; No. 3 white, 33 1/2@34 1/2.

LOCAL MARKETS.

WHOLESALE PRICES.

Table with columns: Live Stock, Poultry, Oysters, Game. Rows for Choice hogs, Spring chickens, Ducks, Oysters, and Wild duck.

Advertisement for 'IF' with decorative border and text: 'IF YOU ARE IN DOUBT about what to do with your old heater or gasoline stove...'.

FOR RENT. FOR SALE.

FOR RENT—100 ACRE DAIRY FARM ALREADY equipped. E. L. Randel, Ottumwa, R. F. D. No. 5.

FOR RENT—LANNING FRUIT FARM, three miles east of the city. Enquire James Lanning, 222 South Davis street.

FOR SALE—100 ACRES, BUILDINGS, 100 acres improved, 60 acres timber, worth $4,000; soil extra good, $8,000; 20 acres near town; good buildings, fruit, $2,000; write for particulars and list. Frank G. Simpson, Hartford, Mich.

FOR SALE—FARM, 227 ACRES, ONE mile from Ottumwa, suitable for food or dairy purposes at a price that makes it a good investment. Call on or address S. C. Cullen & Co.

FOR SALE—IN SOUTHEASTERN IOWA 200 farms in Jefferson, Keokuk, Wapello and Mahaska counties, farms ranging from $5 to $200 acres. Send for description list or call on C. L. Denn, Hedrick, Iowa.

FOR SALE—240 ACRES FINE LIVING land; 100 in cultivation, four miles county seat; large orchard, fine spring improvements, worth $2,500, price $3,000. Send for list of bargains. Frank Landers, Doniphan, Missouri, Ripley county.

FOR SALE—TWO YEARLING STEERS and two calves. H. F. Michael, South Ottumwa.

FOR SALE—YOUNG M. B. TURKEYS for breeding, large bone and well marked. Address Thos. F. Schultz, Fremont, Iowa.

FOR SALE—EVERYONE TO ATTEND A. I. Berrill big stock at his farm three miles south of Ottumwa, Thursday, Nov. 19, 1903, 10 o'clock a. m.

WANTED TO RENT—A WELL IMPROVED farm near Ottumwa. Address "W. R. L." care Courier.

WANTED TO RENT SMALL FARM near Ottumwa, suitable for poultry and garden. Will buy on payments. Box 163 C. Cleveland, Iowa.

WANTED TO RENT—FARM OF 100 TO 250 acres. Address "Farmer," care Courier.

WANTED—MANUFACTURER WANTS reliable man to deliver and collect; horse and wagon and $150 deposit necessary; $21 a week and expenses; permanent. Franklin, Box 78, Philadelphia, Pa.

Advertisement for DR. A. J. MUMMERT, EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT GLASSES. Includes an illustration of an eye.

SPECIAL EXCURSION. November 24 the Rock Island will run an excursion to all points on their lines in Oklahoma, Kansas, and Indian Territory, also points in Texas at $18 round trip; also cheap rates to New Mexico and Arizona. Better get in early and see the country. In the meantime come in and trade with us. We have a good 120 acres at $35. Splendid 400 acre stock and grain farm at $70, within five miles of Ottumwa. Vacant lot in Des Moines, South Ottumwa or near Packing House, or Oskaloosa to trade for live stock. 60 acre farm, plenty fruit, good improvements, $75 per acre. 112 1/2 acres near city, sell or trade.