Eddyville. Eddyville, Nov. 18.—The Russells Novelty company, which appeared Monday at the M. E. church as the second number of the Chicago Lyceum Bureau's lecture course, was the most unique and pleasant entertainment appearing here for a long time. The music on the organ chimes, sleigh bells, hand bells, musical coins, and Swiss bells, while something unusual, was nevertheless beautiful and was listened to and applauded by a well filled house. The program was made up of eleven numbers, as follows: Part 1—Organ chimes, "Abide With Me," and "Vandoe," by Mr. and Mrs. Russell; readings, "Pink Carnations," and a selected readings by Mrs. Russell, Sleigh bells, "Dixie Land Melody," and "Swath," by Mr. Russell; Hand bells, "Blue Bells of Scotland," and a Scotch air, by Mr. Russell; Recital, "Old Mother Goose," by Mrs. Russell; Part 2—Chimes, selection and "Manzanillo" by Mr. and Mrs. Russell; Musical coins, "Kentucky Home" and "How Can I Leave Thee?" by Mr. Russell; Swiss bells, "Never, My God to Thee" and, "O Promise Me," by Mr. and Mrs. Russell; Recital, "Child Impersonations," by Mrs. Russell; Chimes, "Moonlight Serenade" and "Queen of the May," by Mrs. Russell; Recital, "Grecian Postings of 50 different statues by Mrs. Russell.

TEN PER CENT INTEREST. If you know where you could loan your money on perfectly safe security, at 10 to 15 per cent, you would gladly do so. I have plantations to sell in the fertile Mississippi Delta country at $6 to $20 per acre, land which brings in a cash rental of $2 to $5 per acre, on all of it that is cultivated, and the balance just as good, just as productive when the valuable timber is cut off, and will then bring in just as much rent. These rich Mississippi Delta lands should not be confused with the worn out uplands in Mississippi, and cannot be had but double and treble the value in the next few years. Low rate excursions first and third Tuesday each month. MORRIS WILLIAMS, Baker Building.
