A NICE 40 ACRE FARM.

I have a nicely improved 40 acre farm, new house on it, in well improved neighborhood. School only 1/2 mile, railroad town four miles, good roads, land lays well, priced at $2,000. Owner would take small residence in Ottumwa, worth $900 to $950, and give good terms on the balance. Here's one to look after now as this item will appear but this once. You can contract for it now and get possession March 1st, just in time for farming. The property I advertised in last Saturday's Daily, I had just six customers for the next day. It's because I hunt out properties which are "snaps." This is one. Call me up or see me this evening or Monday.

SMALL BLAZE EXTINGUISHED. Fire Department Called to Residence of Chris Lowenberg Yesterday. A telephone alarm called the fire department to the residence of Chris Lowenberg, 311 West Second street, about 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The fire was found to be in the kitchen near the well, and it is supposed the blaze was started in thawing out the pump which had frozen. When the department arrived, the chemicals were used and the fire was soon extinguished. The damage will amount to about $75. A Timely Topic. At this season of coughs and colds it is well to know that Foley's Honey and Tar is the greatest throat and lung remedy. It cures quickly and prevents serious results from a cold.
