

DRAIN TILE

For prices and information write OTTUMWA BRICK & CONSTRUCTION CO., OTTUMWA, IOWA

Tri-Weekly Courier

CHANGING ADDRESSES. Subscribers wishing their address changed will please give the name of the Postoffice to which the paper has been sent as well as the Postoffice where they desire it to be changed to

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

From Tuesday's Daily. Newsman sells the best watches. Mrs. D. C. Abernathy of Kirkville was in the city today. She was accompanied home by Miss Julia Sheehan, 925 East Fourth street, who will visit friends and relatives in Kirkville.

Misses Nellie Guggerty and Lloyd Finley of Chillicothe, were shoppers in Ottumwa yesterday.

Victor talking machines. Sargent's. Mrs. Emma Smith and Miss Eva Barton of Foster, passed through Ottumwa last evening enroute to Peoria, Ill., where they will visit relatives and friends.

Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Edwards of Delta passed through Ottumwa yesterday enroute to Moulton where Mrs. Edwards will make her home with her parents during the next three months. Mr. Edwards leaves soon for New York city, where he will join a delegation of twenty Iowa conference ministers who will make a three months' tour of the Holy Land, leaving for the old world April 2. Rev. C. N. Pace of Knoxville, W. S. Smith of Washington, J. F. Robertson of Keota, and J. W. Foster of Keokuk are some of the ministers who will be in the company.

All the new and latest Victor records at Sargent's.

Mrs. J. E. Barnett of Bloomfield was in the city yesterday.

Miss Alice Ford of Melrose has returned home.

Mrs. W. H. Spinks of Osceola, who has been visiting relatives and friends in the city has returned home.

Zenoleum, the effective and economical spray for plants and animals. Sargent's.

Mrs. Richard Morrow of Douds-Leoand was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Delia Holmes and daughter, Miss Edna, of Fairfield, were shoppers in the city yesterday.

Mrs. E. S. Lamman and daughter, Miss Effie, and Mrs. Henry Sloan of Eldon, were shoppers yesterday in the city.

Fruit tree and animal sprayers, 50c. Sargent's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnston of Albia, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adey in Bear Creek, passed through Ottumwa last evening enroute home.

Mrs. J. W. Reardon and Miss Edna Doran and brother, Charles, of Eldon, were business visitors in the city yesterday.

Kodaks and cameras from $1 up to $40 at Sargent's.

Mrs. C. T. Stafford and Mrs. J. P. Hardin of Charleston spent yesterday in Ottumwa with Mrs. W. S. Childs, who resides on East Second street.

Miss Ida Smith of West Grove, passed through Ottumwa yesterday enroute home from Nichols, where she has been visiting relatives.

Mrs. H. L. Stevens and daughter, Miss Laib, of Floris, were shopping in the city yesterday.

Mrs. N. F. Cox of Bonaparte passed through the city today en route home from Linby, where she has been visiting relatives.

Mrs. L. Graham of Kirkville, visited friends in Ottumwa yesterday.

Mrs. Lyzie Kelce of Mystic, who has been in the city on business the past few days, returned home today.

Mrs. J. M. Miksell of Albia, who has been visiting Mrs. P. G. Drummonds, who resides on Tindall street returned home this morning.

Our footwear must look good to the people—they carry them away by the arm load and they must give satisfaction for our sales are increasing. Watch us. Church Shoe Co.

Mrs. J. W. Fansher and daughter, Miss Vera, of Batavia, were in Ottumwa yesterday.

Mrs. J. A. Sloan, 1112 East Second street, and Mrs. C. F. Ferguson, 227 North Sheridan avenue, are spending the day with relatives and friends in Fairfield.

Mrs. William Grooms of Bidwell, returned today with her son Clair, who has been in the hospital the past two weeks.

Mrs. Salonia Swartzenbach of West Grove, was a visitor in the city today enroute to Elkhart, where she will visit relatives and friends.

To Subscribers of the Tri-Weekly Courier.

Notice the label on your paper. If your subscription is not paid up, please do not wait for the solicitor to call. Just send a check or money order to The Courier, Ottumwa, Iowa. The government postal ruling says that the publishers can only send the paper a limited time to a subscriber without receiving the money for the subscription, and we ask you to look at the label on your paper, and send to this office an amount sufficient to pay in advance.

Special Present with one pound of Tea at 50 cents a pound or above, a large size black diamond enameled pudding pan. You should have one of these useful pudding pans. They are heavily coated with enamel and therefore very durable. We offer this expensive special present to introduce Grand Union Tea into every home. Grand Union Tea Co.

AGENCY.

T. J. Parsons, brother of R. B. Parsons, son of S. B. Parsons, who died in a train here yesterday morning between here and Ottumwa, came here yesterday at 1:20 p. m. and left this morning for Stronghurst on No. 18. Mr. Parsons was a widower, his wife having died some time ago. He was a member of Co. D. 182nd Ohio Vol., during the civil war. He was a Mason and Modern Woodman and a prominent man in his home town. His brother is a real estate agent and his son is cashier of a bank. There was no inquest held, the coroner deciding it was not necessary.

Mrs. G. W. Casseman of Parsons, Kan., here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buchanan.

Miss Clara Rodibaugh was in Fairfield Tuesday.

Miss H. McGuire left today for Indianapolis.

BLOOMFIELD.

Rosa Hancock and wife have purchased the John Leasure property, two blocks south of the southwest corner of the square.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Day were in West Grove on business Tuesday.

Ola Barton of Newton dropped in Tuesday for a surprise on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Barton. He will remain a few days.

Mrs. Marley Curry of Clinton is visiting this week with her parents, Geo. Dunn and wife.

Mrs. J. E. DeVault, who has been under a specialist's care at St. Louis, came home Thursday very much improved in health.

Mrs. W. B. Ekin spent Tuesday at the Dr. Ware home in Moulton.

The Twentieth Century club will meet Friday night with Mrs. Virgie Lorenz.

Mrs. J. M. Eberline of Belknap was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Ralph Sherman returned to her home in Malsom Tuesday from a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Grady.

Mrs. Gertrude Daughert was called to Richland Tuesday on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Hamilton.

Mrs. John Holt and daughter, Miss May, were Ottumwa visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Virgie Lorenz will entertain the P. E. O.'s next Monday.

Mrs. Kate Kent of near Bloomfield, was in Ottumwa Tuesday.

Miss Exa Campbell of Hillsboro returned home Tuesday from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Mattie West.

Mrs. J. W. Altheide was an Ottumwa visitor Tuesday.

L. A. Townsend of Milton passed through this city Tuesday en route to Pawlich, S. D., where he is interested in land.

Miss Dema Dodge left Tuesday for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. D. B. Armstrong of Elkhart.

Miss Ollie Schulte, who stays at the hospital, left on the evening train on Tuesday for a visit with her brothers at Milton and Bonaparte.

Miss May Canady entertained a number of little friends Saturday afternoon.

The little son of Les Turpin, who lives near Belknap, fell Friday and dislocated his elbow.

Mrs. Harvey Wray will entertain the Fortnightly which club Thursday evening. The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Herbert King, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wray, Mesdames Fannie Cook, Fay MacAchan and Misses Helen Wray and Maud Corrick.

KEOTA.

Morrain, the little six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hulse, was seriously hurt Sunday evening while sliding down a banister of an open stairway at their new home, falling from the banister, a distance of about ten feet, striking her head on the register and cutting a large gash in her forehead. Her mother, hearing the noise, ran to her and found her unconscious. Medical aid was summoned immediately. Monday she was in a very critical condition.

The various churches of Keota gave their annual Easter programs Sunday evening, all of which were fairly well attended and much enjoyed.

EDDYVILLE WOMAN PREACHES GOSPEL

LUCY WHITTIER CARTER.

REV LUCY CARTER A JONES CONVERT

ELOQUENT EDDYVILLE PASTOR PLANNED TO FOLLOW EXAMPLE OF SHAW AND WILLARD.

Eddyville, March 30.—(Special)—The Rev. Lucy Whittier Carter, pastor of the Congregational church here, was born about thirty-five years ago in the heart of Boston. Her parents were Episcopalians, but she was reared by her grand parents in a strictly Methodist home. She traversed a triangle extending between church and school and home. Her young mind was religiously inclined and she listened with the deepest awe and keenest enjoyment to the great preachers and lecturers. She was soundly converted at the age of twelve under Sam P. Jones and ever since she has been engaged actively in religious work. Before she was thirteen she planned to follow the example of Anna Shaw and Frances Willard and become a public speaker, and from that time resolved to be an ordained preacher. The Methodist church would not ordain her. They were willing for her to be a deaconess and do religious calling or nursing or marry a minister and thus silently serve the church, but no pulpit could be permanently hers, hence after graduating from the Boston schools and entering Boston university, she joined the Congregational church, where she became an ordained minister. She supplied pulpits all over New England and held the pastorate of Romsey Chapel, Dorchester, Mass., for a year. When she graduated from Boston University School of Theology she settled down to teach theology and kindred subjects and held a professorship at the Lucy Webb Hayes training school at Washington, D. C., but this was no her forte so she left it and traveled over the middle west for a couple of years. But the woman prevailed over the preacher. She married a noted musician and for three years lived the ideal life, the life she would advise every woman to live rather than the professional career. When she was widowed in the Black Hills, S. D., she took her baby, her dog and her trunks and sojourned eastward. She stopped in Iowa, in speaking of her chosen life Rev. Carter says: "The work is blessed if courage and faith in human nature can equal my faith in God the Father. The problems of church keep pace with all the changing conditions of this great land. Competition is rife, expenses are higher and salaries diminish, but we battle not in the flesh alone, and the outcome cannot be otherwise than victorious."

EDDYVILLE.

Mrs. Al Mater and Mrs. J. Mater, who have been visiting in Iowa City, returned home today.

Monday was the thirty-sixth birthday of Mrs. Richard Baker and her friends planned a surprise for her in honor of the event. They went to her home with well filled baskets and spent the day. About fifteen were present. Mrs. Baker received a number of beautiful gifts. Her mother, Mrs. Ruggles of Benton, and her sister, Mrs. Glen, and two children, of Wright, were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Rice arrived from Ottumwa today. Mr. Rice, who received a serious injury to his eyes a few days ago, is somewhat improved. The doctors hope to be able to save the injured eye.

Howard Hedrick stopped off in Eddyville today on his way to Des Moines to visit for a short time with relatives.

Harris Neston, telegraph operator at Grinnell, spent Sunday with his parents in Eddyville.

Mrs. Charles Young of Oskaloosa visited over Sunday with her mother, Mrs. McCloney.

Mrs. Fick went to Mountain View, Mo., Sunday to visit her son and daughter for a short time.

Ira Bain, who moved to Eddyville from Kansas a short time ago, has purchased a house in Pekay and will move it to Eddyville and fix it up as a residence.

Mrs. S. C. Brown spent Sunday in Ottumwa with her sister Mrs. Brockman.

Ottumwa passengers today were: Mrs. George Stephenson, Miss Don Scott and Mrs. H. S. Davis.

Lloyd Walters and wife spent Sunday in Ottumwa visiting Mrs. Walters' father.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stuber attended the quarterly meeting of the Columbia Methodist Episcopal church Sunday.

Minnie Lams, Raymond, Walter and Leo Lams, spent Sunday in Ottumwa visiting relatives.

Miss Bertha Tension, Miss Josie Coker and Mrs. Lizzie Birch attended Easter services in Oskaloosa Sunday.

Mrs. Will Steinhoff entertained her

Advertisement for Donelans Linoleums and Rugs. Features 'OUR BIG ANNUAL LACE CURTAIN, DRAPERY AND RUG SALE' and lists various items like Rugs, Draperies, Carpets, Lace Curtains, and Madras with prices.

Advertisement for Victor Gramophone and Arnold Jewelry and Music Co. Includes text 'Life Without Music is Like Bread Without Butter' and 'When you go without a Victor in your home you are "skimping".'

Advertisement for W. C. Wyman Soap. Text: 'You're Very Careful What Kind of Soap You Give a Guest' and 'If it's Pears' or Colgates' you feel all right. Now why don't you make sure of your China? We have the kind you ought to have at prices you'll think are very reasonable.'

READ THE COURIER FOR NEWS