Sigourney, May 20.—The Iowa Conference of Seventh Day Adventists have decided to hold four camp-meetings in the state this year, and the location selected for holding the meeting to accommodate the Southeast Quarter of the state is Sigourney, Iowa, from June 6th to 12th. The beautiful grove in the west part of town has been secured for the encampment. The camp-meeting committee with their assistants will be here on or before the first of June, set up the tents and put the camp in order ready for the campers and the meetings. In addition to the preachers belonging to the Iowa Conference, there will be at least three prominent general conference ministers, R. A. Underwood of Minneapolis, Minnesota; K. C. Russell from Washington, D. C.; and Percy T. Morgan of Nashville, Tennessee. It will be worth while for you to hear these men talk.

Three lectures or sermons will be given each day for the general public at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m., and 7:30 or 8:00 p. m., which will be free to all. The people of Keokuk county are cordially invited to come and spend a few days camping. The outing will be a nice thing for you and the sermons, lectures and Bible studies will be edifying and instructive.

FAIRFIELD.
Additional paving for Fairfield was probably postponed indefinitely at a special meeting of the city council when the proposition to secure plans for the construction of a modern sewer system failed to carry by the necessary majority. Although many citizens are urgently demanding more paving, it is not probable that any will be installed until new sewers are laid. The last reports of the financial condition of the city shows that the only indebtedness consists of bonds not yet due, with much more than enough money in the treasury to meet these.

After considerable warm discussion in which the board of directors of the Jefferson County Agricultural association paid their respects to each other in plain language concerning the past management of the association's affairs, it was decided to sell the fair grounds, this sounding the knell of fairs in Fairfield.
