WOMAN DIES FROM LOCKJAW

MRS. ANNA MAGNISON PASSED AWAY SUNDAY MORNING, A VICTIM OF TETANUS.

After several days of intense suffering, Mrs. Anna Magnuson, wife of A. Magnuson, passed away early Sunday morning at her home 111 North Cherry street, a victim of the strange malady, tetanus, commonly known as lockjaw. All that medical science could do to cope with the malady was in vain and death ended her sufferings.

Mrs. Magnuson was well known over the city and was especially well liked in the community in which she resided. She was formerly Anna Mangoven, daughter of Mrs. Mary Mangoven. Several brothers and two sisters, besides her husband and three children, Mary, Madeline and Lloyd survive her. Death occurred at 4:20 o'clock Sunday morning. She was 30 years of age at the time of her death.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at the Sacred Heart church. Requiem high mass will be celebrated by Rev. Father James Foley at 9 o'clock. The remains will be interred in Calvary cemetery.

FIREMEN HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

BROKEN BRAKE ON WAGON CAUSED HORSES TO FALL THIS MORNING WHILE RUNNING TO FIRE.

City Firemen John Donaldson, Geo. McNulty, Charles Langford, Horace Williams and Walter McGee narrowly escaped serious injury early this morning enroute to a fire on North Jefferson street. While going down the steep grade on Jefferson near Gara, the brake on the horse wagon broke knocking one of the horses off his feet. In falling the horse upset the other animal and both horses slid about fifty feet down the hill on their sides. The team was stopped as soon as possible and the horses gotten to their feet. It is miraculous that the firemen escaped with their lives. It was only luck that saved the wagon from overturning and burying the men under it. The horses were badly bruised and will be out of service for several days. City Veterinarian E. F. Lowry is attending them.

The fire was a small barn at the rear of the Jack Sweeney residence, 807 North Jefferson street. The barn had probably been set afire by some tramp. The chemical wagon reached the scene of the fire and extinguished the blaze with chemicals.
