

Make a Good Investment.

YOU may have bought your summer clothes or not; in either case here's a good chance for making a good investment. Even if you've bought, and think you've got all the clothes you want, better think again; you'll feel that you need one more suit when you see these.

If you haven't bought, you're in big luck; we don't advise you to make a practice of waiting as late as this for your summer clothes buying, but if you have you get an extra benefit. We're going to clean up our stock of spring and summer suits; and some light weight overcoats that you may think best to buy now for any cool nights that may come along, or for next fall, when you'll surely need an overcoat.

These are bright, fresh, this season's goods; nothing wrong with them; just that they're not sold, and we want to sell them out of the way of new fall goods. Here's our way of doing it:

Suits that are big values at $22.50, $25, 27.50 now to be sold at $17.50, $20, $22.50.

Other good makes that sold regularly at $15, and $18, now $10 and $12.50.

If you need any good, cool negligee shirts or thin, light underwear, for this weather you'll find here just what you want. Negligee shirts $1.00 to $2.50; Porous Knit, "B. V. D." and Balbriggan Underwear from 50c up.

An immense line of Straws $1.00 to $5.00.

the poor little spud has to stay in the hot sun all day. That may put them "all in." California is shipping heavy quantities of fruit this way now. Peaches at thirty five cents a basket, plums at $1.75 to $2 create, and apricots at $1.75 are all from there. Tomatoes have gone into the air and must feel pretty big over the price. They are bringing ten cents a pound. Not until the growers around the city break into the game will the price make any appreciable decrease.

DOUBLE PLAY FATAL TO FAN.

Los Angeles Rooter Drops Dead When Home Team Prevents Defeat by Sensational Play.

Los Angeles, July 4.—While watching a thirteen inning ball game Saturday afternoon Marcus Goldwater, 46 years old, a wealthy manufacturer, dropped dead from heart failure.

In the thirteenth inning the score was tied, one man was out, three men were on bases. Then the batsman of the visiting team hit a liner apparently safe between second and short. Shortstop Delmas of the Los Angeles team made a phenomenal stop and threw to third for a double play.

Goldwater rose, opened his mouth to yell, and fell dead. The excitement caused another man to faint.
