

SUPT. THIEHOFF WINS GOLF PRIZE

ENTHUSIASTIC MEMBER OF OTTUMWA COUNTRY CLUB, VICTOR IN TOURNAMENT.

THIRTY-SIX COMPETE

Winner's Score Was 72 for Eighteen Holes—Great Day for Merry Battles—Evening Was One of Much Pleasure.

W. F. Thiehoff, superintendent of the Ottumwa division of the Burlington road by occupation, and stellar golfer during his recreative hours, led a field of thirty-six victors of the Fourth of July tournament on the links of the Ottumwa Country club. Mr. Thiehoff, with a handicap of thirty strokes, turned in a score of 102 for eighteen holes, making his net score 72 for the entire distance. The lowest gross score reported was that of 83 turned in by John Stoltz and Arthur Bartlett. D. B. Baker and H. E. Brandt came next with a score of 85, and the highest score turned in was 130 by Willis Graves.

The tournament yesterday attracted more attention than any competition between Ottumwa golfers on the Country club links and it can also be said that the amusements furnished by the Fifty-fourth band and the Ottumwa Harp orchestra, together with the beautiful display of fireworks later in the evening eclipsed any previous social event of the club.

PATRIARCHS END MEETING.

E. E. Lambert of Newton Re-elected President at Clear Lake Business Session. Clear Lake, July 5.—A brilliant and imposing scene was enacted here when, in the final session of the department council of the Patriarchs Militant, the degree of chivalry was conferred on eight people. Maj. Gen. E. E. Lambert of Newton officiated. The degree is conferred on Odd Fellows who have obtained the rank of the canton, or in other words have by loyalty or distinguished service to the order been voted the honor.

At the business session E. E. Lambert of Newton was made president; C. W. Paschall of Belle Plaine, vice president, and A. O. Peterson of Emmetsburg treasurer. So well pleased were the members of the council tents for their annual encampments that it was voted to use these exclusively in the future and it was also decided to return to Clear Lake for the next annual event. Many of the members of the order and their wives remained over for the home coming celebration at the orphans' home, when from 5,000 to 10,000 Odd Fellows are expected to be present. Over $500 has been expended for illumination in the evening.

ENGINEER HERE GOING OVER LINE

Interurban Man Accompanies Major Spilman Along Route This Afternoon.

Engineer Young of Iowa City was a guest of the interurban committee of the Commercial association this morning and accompanied by Major T. P. Spilman right of way agent of the committee left this afternoon over the line as far as Farnon. The trip will probably determine whether a new or the old survey will be taken up in the construction of the line. Four men will be put to work by Engineer Young in the morning and the line will be gone over with a view to making some corrections in its makeup. The idea in mind is to avoid cutting farms any more than possible and at the same time to obtain the most direct and least expensive route available. The interurban committee of the Commercial association is holding a meeting this afternoon here in the association's rooms and going over the situation. The results of the auto trip to Keota will be gone over and steps will be taken to assist the engineer in his efforts while resurveying the line.

FINNEGAN TELLS OF EXPERIENCES

SOLDIER OF FORTUNE IN CITY JAIL HAS FOUGHT UNDER MANY FLAGS

Tom Finnegan, a soldier of fortune who has circled the globe several times before Police Judge Lawrence Wherriesy this morning upon the charge of intoxication. Finnegan pleaded guilty and was given one day and one-half in jail Finnegan is an adventurer for true and he entertained the visitors in the jail yesterday telling of his experiences while fighting under the flags of other lands. Finnegan declared that he ran away from his home in Tipperary county, Ireland, when a young man and enlisted in the Russian army where he served several years. Becoming tired of life in Russia and not liking the bleak wintry atmosphere, Finnegan went to South America and saw service in the Venezuelan army. Life in South America was "Finnegan enjoyed, and the more fighting the better he liked it. He found South America a great country for the fighting game because of the many revolutions which spring up every ten minutes in that part of the globe. During his several years residence there he participated in many battles under different flags. He later joined the United States army and saw service in the Philippines. When the Spanish-American war was over and his enlistment expired he went to Africa and participated in the Boer war, fighting with English troops. He took an active part in the Russo-Japanese war, fighting with the little dark-skinned men against the bewhiskered Russians. Finnegan has not only had fighting experience on land, but he has been a seaman on the big United States war ship and was largely through this enlistment that he went around the world. Finnegan had an interested audience all day Sunday and Monday.

Des Moines Looks Good.

Des Moines has several players who are playing very creditable golf this year among them being the present state champion, William Sheehan, who has taken a fancy to periodically lower the course record out at the new Hyperion links. Others mentioned in the Des Moines papers are Rider, Carl and Dickinson and Bert McKee, medalist of last year's tourney, and who has been knocking at the championship door for some time. Baker playing well. "Dwight Baker was recently in Cedar Rapids, playing the course several times. He says the grounds are in splendid shape, afford a great variety of golf, and wishes to state that the trees along the various links do not stand so close together as some have the impression. Each link has a very nice view, although these long o'-side pokes come to grief there the same as they should on any course."

"Marriage is no Farce."

Chester, July 5.—Mayor Johnson has come to the rescue of future brides and bridegrooms of this city and has pledged himself to use the power of the entire police force to protect them from hazers. On his way home from a meeting of the council he passed a crowd of hazers marching along Market street with a newly married couple at the head of the line. Calling up police headquarters he summoned a detachment of policemen, broke up the parade of the hazers, rescued the bride and bridegroom and sent them home in a cab. Then he issued the following edict: "Marriage is no farce and must not be treated as such. In the future, so long as I am chief executive of Chester, there shall be no permits issued for parades or public demonstrations that will have a tendency to annoy newly married couples. Such matters should not be treated lightly."

ELDON.

Mrs. Emma Irwin has returned home from her visit with her mother and other relatives. Mrs. Elmer Finney received a call to attend the funeral of a nephew at Chicago, and left Saturday night, her husband and sons going Sunday night. L. L. McCoy of Moline, Ill., T. J. McCoy and George McCoy of Brighton spent the Fourth at their sister's Mrs. J. E. Houghland. Friday evening Clyde Guesford, clerk at the railway yards was loaded a toy cannon which exploded and tore his fingers badly, besides blinding him for a time. His eyes will be saved but his hand will be badly injured. A son of Mr. Brown who lives on the Dave Steekin farm east of the city had his lip badly cut by a horse rearing up and striking it with his hoof.

IS SURVIVOR OF THE "REAL SONS"

WESLEY J. BANKS, LIVING NEAR CENTERVILLE, SERVED IN MEXICAN WAR.

Centerville, July 5.—Wesley Banks, living southwest of Centerville, has a lot of friends in this county. He is one of the old war heroes of the country, having served in the Mexican war. He was able to come to Centerville to see his friends and met several of the soldier boys in whom he maintains such an interest.

To be a son of the American Revolution is an honor in itself, but to be the only man in Iowa whose father was a soldier of the revolutionary war carries with it a far greater honor. Such is the distinction borne by Wesley Johnson Banks, whose home is in Appanoose county, about five miles from Centerville.

Several sons of revolutionary sires have lived in Iowa, but not all are remembered. It is remembered that at least eight, and probably ten soldiers of the revolution passed their declining days in Iowa, and have been buried in Iowa soil. But Mr. Banks is the last survivor of the "real sons" in Iowa.

William Banks, the father of Wesley Johnson Banks, was born in Culpeper county, Virginia, June 23, 1762. He enlisted in the patriot army at Amherst county, Virginia, and served six months as sergeant in Captain Popple's company of Colonel Richardson's regiment, under command of Baron Steuben, and was in service through the war. Linn Banks and William Brown, his grandfathers, were also in the service for American freedom. That several of his relatives were in the war of 1812 shows that the family were of fighting stock. For fourteen years Wesley lived in daily, hourly touch with one who was true in days "that tried men's souls," and absorbed from his father his patriot zeal.

Wesley Johnson Banks, when he was born in Garrard county, Kentucky, July 28, 1825, thus inherited fighting qualities which were sure to assert themselves in time. The father, William Banks, died in Putnam county, Indiana, having removed from Kentucky some time before.

The young Wesley, being full of the fire of youth, and true to the warlike spirit of his ancestors, enlisted in the First Indiana regiment when the Mexican war came on, as did his brother Joseph. Young Banks served faithfully and efficiently in the Mexican war and on receiving his discharge at its close, at once re-enlisted in the regular army and marched with the troops sent to California, remaining in the service in California until he received an honorable discharge March 31, 1849.

He returned home in 1851, via Panama and New Orleans, and soon afterward removed to Iowa and settled in Appanoose county, which has been his home ever since, where he is an honored and esteemed member of the community. As the result of an accident he has not been able to walk for nine years. In his young manhood he stood six feet tall, was of commanding presence and pleasing person. His eighty years have not clouded his mind nor left him without interest in men and events and his mind is as well filled storehouse of knowledge garnered through his four score years.

He became a member of the Iowa Society of the Sons of the American Revolution in July, 1897, and it is with pride that the society carries his name upon its rolls.

LOCAL GOLFERS ARE CONFIDENT

OTTUMWA CLUB MEMBERS EXPECT TO MAKE GOOD SHOWING IN TOURNAMENT.

WANT TEAM HONORS

Enthusiastic Golfer in Speaking of Tourney at Cedar Rapids Says it Will be Best Ever Held—Is Optimistic.

Ottumwa golfers are very enthusiastic over the coming state tournament at Cedar Rapids, commencing Tuesday, July 12, and the locals expect to capture the team championship. The Ottumwa golfers expect to make a strong showing in the championship. Ottumwa will send a large delegation to Cedar Rapids. One of the enthusiastic Ottumwa golfers has the following to say of the state tournament at Cedar Rapids: "Starting Tuesday, July 12, the tenth annual tournament of the Iowa Golf association will be put in full motion, and with the weather favorable, the Cedar Rapids Country club is all prepared to show the Iowa golfers how she can entertain, surpassing any other in the history of golf in Iowa. In addition to the pleasant festivities as suggested, there will be a classy exhibition of golf during the week which will be a credit to any state association. More clubs than ever before will have entries to this event, and to care for this large entry Secretary Maxwell has added an extra flight, and a nice prize, appropriately named the Cedar Rapids cup. Prizes Are Fine.

The prizes put up in this tourney are the finest ever played for by the Iowa Golf association. The prizes are put in the hands of the real supporters of the game, and all of whom get more enjoyment out of the game than the select "under bogeyites" possibly could. "Ottumwa Country club is going to attend this tournament good and strong, and are out for everything with much spirit and hope. Many of the local players have already signified their intention of going, and there is no doubt they will have more on their minds than their own city with the exception of Des Moines, which always takes in the tournaments right after Team Championship.

"Ottumwa, the Hyperion of Des Moines, and Cedar Rapids, are strong contenders for the team championship. Hyperion has the habit, that is, they always win the team championship, and this time they are conceded that advantage, but Ottumwa Country club certainly looks good this year. The Ottumwa team will be selected by Field Captain Brandt from the following and from their records they are known to play top-notch golf:

N. W. Cowles, Roy C. Smith, John Stoltz, Dwight Baker, Arthur Bartlett and H. E. Brandt. Bartlett is the midget golfer of the squad, but he has developed into a skillful player, and will be a worthy opponent for any one in the state. At present Bartlett and Baker are playing in the finals for the city championship, and the result will be watched with interest, as both are scratch men in the club and the added interest of playing the 3 off so near the interest of the tournament at Cedar Rapids. Baker has had two good years of tournament experience, and while this year so far he has not struck his gait, practice from now on should bring him rapidly to form.
