FAIRFIELD.

Mrs. Cranmore W. Gage, one of the oldest residents of Fairfield passed away Sunday evening about 8 o'clock at her home on West Broadway after an illness of several years.

She was 82 years of age and came to Jefferson county in 1844 from Ohio. When she first came to this county it was inhabited by the Indians and Fairfield was only a small trading station.

She had lived to see the country in the hands of as fine a class of civilized people as are to be found today anywhere and the little trading station has grown to be one of the most progressive cities of its size in the middle west.

Mrs. Gage's maiden name was Sarah J. Black. She was the mother of six children, four of whom, the oldest and these were her sons, answered the call of death. She is survived by her aged husband and two sons, Charles H. of this city and Fred M. of Chicago. Aside from these Mrs. Gage is survived by two brothers, Walker M. Black of Des Moines and Madison Black of Burnes, Wyo., and two sisters Mrs. Perry King and Mrs. Rhoda Burkhardt both of this city.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the residence on West Broadway and the remains were laid to rest in Evergreen cemetery.

Mrs. Elizabeth Poulton was very pleasantly surprised Saturday evening by a number of the members of Fairfield Rebekah lodge No. 36, Hawkeye Rebekah lodge No. 386 and George Strong Relief Corps. The occasion was Mrs. Poulton's 75th birthday anniversary.

The ladies went to the home Mrs. Poulton's daughter Mrs. B. F. Crall, Jr. about 8 o'clock where they awaited Mrs. Poulton's return home. They presented her with a handsome lamp and congratulated her. Refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed by all.

Misses Hannah and Nettie Carlson and Nellie Ogden left Sunday for a vacation trip of three weeks to Denver, Colo., and other points.

Miss Rebecca Harper and Fred Lathrop were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Lathrop on West Van Buren street.

Rev. Mendhall said the necessary words at 8 o'clock in the presence of only the immediate relatives. The young people will make their home for the present with the groom's parents.

Company M Fifty-fourth regiment I. N. G. left Monday for Iowa City where the annual encampment will be held for two weeks. Captain J. F. Ready and the excellent corps of officers will have to go through the instructions usually given to the privates.

The Fairfield baseball team dropped the second game of the season Saturday afternoon at Winfield when they were defeated by Washington by a score of 1 to 0. There were no errors on either side and the game was a pretty exhibition of ball from start to finish.

The fact that the regular team was not taken to Winfield is thought to be responsible for the defeat of the team.

Mrs. M. D. K. Weimer of Harison, Neb., is the guest of Mrs. J. M. Bond. Mrs. Weimer was formerly associated with her husband in the management of the Daily Journal.

The marriage of Mrs. Elizabeth Lentner and Gilbert McKee, two well known residents of this city was solemnized Monday evening at the home of Rev. T. S. Pool on East Hempstead street. The groom is 76 years the bride is 64. Their marriage was a union of their many friends.

DIAMONDS

Of First Quality Are Here

We emphasize the little knowledge the ordinary person has when buying a diamond. Every Diamond sold at this store has been bought from diamond importers of a known standing.

You take no risk whatever when you buy that diamond here. We tell you candidly the value, the size, the quality of any stone you may look at. Buy that diamond here and no worry about your purchase will ever be required.

DIAMONDS OF ALL SIZES SET IN BROOCHES, RINGS OF ALL MOUNTINGS; PENDANTS, EAR SCREWS, ETC., ARE TO BE SEEN IN AN UNSURPASSED COLLECTION OF BEAUTY, CLEARNESS AND VALUE.

Don't for your OWN sake go it blind when investing in a diamond. Go where the reliability and standing of the jeweler is known in the community. The jeweler's business is to protect the interests of the patrons and especially is this so in the purchase of diamonds. We are here to show and explain our goods and if you will call our best efforts will be extended to you.
