JUMPS IN WELL AND IS DROWNED

MRS. DOUGLAS CARR, WHILE DEMONSTRATING, COMMITS SUICIDE IN SENSATIONAL WAY.

Suffering from tuberculosis in an advanced stage, Mrs. Douglas Carr of Cherno, New Mexico, while temporarily insane, committed suicide yesterday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. Oliver Harter, twelve and one-half miles north of Ottumwa, by jumping into a well and drowning herself. Her body was soon recovered from the well and removed to the Harter home near by.

Suffered Poor Health. Mrs. Carr had formerly resided in Wapello and Mahaska counties, but had gone to New Mexico on account of her ill health. The dry air of the southern state did not seem to cure her of tuberculosis and she came back to Iowa to visit her sister, despite the advice of her physicians, who believed that she would be cured of the ailment if she remained long enough in New Mexico. Since her return to Iowa she had not been feeling well, and worrying over her condition, relatives believe that she became temporarily insane and ended her life by jumping into the well while in a fit of insanity. The well in which the woman ended her life was within a few feet of the Harter residence. She was missed from the house shortly after 3 o'clock and her body was found in the well about 3:40 by relatives.

Will Hold Inquest. Mrs. Carr was about 44 years of age and was well known in the northern part of Wapello and the southern part of Mahaska counties. Her husband is in New Mexico and has been notified of his wife's death. He is expected to reach the city by the latter part of the week. Coroner J. C. Barringer of Mahaska county was notified, following the suicide, and he will hold an inquest over the body today. The date and hour of the funeral have not been announced, awaiting the arrival of Mr. Carr. Interment will be made in Wapello county.

HALF DOLLAR IN BOYS' STOMACH Coin Swallowed Week Ago Located By An X-Ray Examination.

Neola, July 26.—Dwight Williams, while playing on the lawn at his home Monday evening swallowed a silver half dollar and since has been the object of considerable concern on the part of his parents and relatives. Fortunately the coin, though large, passed down the throat without pain or inconvenience but what effect the metal will have upon the stomach has occasioned no little anxiety. He has been under the care of a physician and was taken to Omaha where he was placed under an X-ray. While this was not deemed absolutely necessary it was taken as a precautionary measure and resulted in locating the coin. No ill effects of the unique experience are expected.

SMALL SCRATCH CAUSES DEATH

MRS. LORETTA ALBERTSON, WIFE OF PROMINENT FARMER, DIES FROM BLOOD POISONING

A small scratch on the left leg, has resulted in the death of Mrs. Loretta Albertson wife of corellus Albertson a wealthy and prominent farmer residing twelve miles north of Ottumwa. Death occurred Monday afternoon about 2 o'clock quite suddenly. Mrs. Albertson was 43 years of age.

Mrs. Albertson was out searching for a hidden hen's nest, a few days ago and while looking through the weeds she sustained a small scratch on the leg from a piece of window pane which was striking out of the ground. She thought nothing of the abrasion and paid no attention to it. Blood poisoning set in and her death followed yesterday afternoon. She appeared in good health yesterday and partook of dinner with her husband and the other members of the family. Soon after dinner she was taken seriously ill. The deceased was one of the most highly respected residents of that section of Wapello county. She was the daughter-in-law of Mrs. Martha Buchanan, 1237 North Court street.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from the residence and from the Kirkville M. E. church at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Decker will conduct the services. The remains will be interred in the Kirkville cemetery.

STREET CAR AND AUTO COLLIDE

MACHINE DRIVEN BY CHAS. DUTTON STRUCK AT WAPELLO ST.—NO ONE HURT.

An automobile driven by Charles Dutton and an east bound west end street car in charge of Motorman J. J. Childs collided last night about 7 o'clock at the corner of Wapello and Second streets. The driver of the automobile, Mr. Dutton, and his companion, Lewis Satchel, were badly shaken up, but were not otherwise injured. The automobile was partially wrecked, several spokes being knocked out of the rear left wheel, the axle was bent and the horn impaired.

Mr. Dutton and his machine were going up Wapello street at a fast clip and the street car was coming east, traveling at a good speed on account of the up grade at this point. Motorman Childs saw the automobile as he approached the Wapello street crossing, and thinking that they intended to stop, he says he slowed down, but did not stop. The driver of the automobile thought that he could cross the track before the car, and did not slow up. The street car struck the rear of the machine, turning the auto completely around. The automobile belonged to Tom Keffe and Mr. Dutton was getting experience in driving a car, as he intended to purchase one in a short time. The machine was hit with sufficient force to force it upon the sidewalk.

Must Be College Trained

Des Moines, July 26.—The medical colleges of Iowa must change their matriculation requirements to the extent of demanding that all students who enter the colleges must have a two years' collegiate course before they can become medical students. Any college which does not adopt this new rule will not be recognized by the state medical examining board nor the state board of health nor will graduates of those colleges be permitted to practice in Iowa. Drake and the State University medical colleges both meet the requirements and will not be affected.

Cerro Gordo Short of Teachers.

Mason City, July 26.—Forty-six persons, mostly young ladies, were examined here for teachers' certificates. Of the forty-six examined only thirteen out of the lot passed. One of them only stood 4, indicating that but a fraction of one question was answered correctly. The county is now very short of teachers.

GRIMES GIVES UP TO VOLLEY OF HITS

KEWANEE FLINGMASTER WAS NO ENIGMA TO ACCURATE BLINKS OF THE SPEED BOYS.

Dumpling Grimes with his whirlwind manner of flinging occupied the mound in yesterday's joyfulness at the Myrtle street park and the combination did neither frighten nor puzzle the "came back" speed boys employed by Ned Egan. The answer was 5 to 1, and a bulk of the scoring was done in the first one-third of the pastime.

Opposite Grimes was one Ray Boyd of whom the good folks in these parts have heard several things about in times gone by. In the last game Boyd pitched at home he was by no means a strike out workman, whiffing but two men, but yesterday he elected to be a regular fooler and eight Boller-makers succumbed to his effective whip. The lone score made by the guests was through a fluke, nary a hit, except Mason's rap in the slats, being made to assist the runner around. In the fourth, fifth and eighth Raymond struck out two men in a row. The fact that none of the five hits allowed by Boyd figured in Kewanee's lone score is evidence of the high handed manner in which he was flinging the game.

Back of the work of Boyd was some very classy fielding, and even the flingmaster himself figured in some of it. Kensel and Oaks executed some rare spasms of fielding in the skinned section, while Hank Severid's swallowing of Blake's sky visitor near the foul line in the sixth was the glory work in the gardens.

Kewanee Had 'Em Scared.

When Kewanee tied up the score in the third stanza, the faithful few in the stands and bleachers became worried, but after Ottumwa's operations in No. 3, the look of worry had vanished and serenity again prevailed. The Boller-maker score came in this fashion: Connors lived on Johnston's error and advanced a bag when Boyd smote Mason in the ribs. Grimes' dump was fielded to Oaks in time to nip Connors after a rare spring to the bag was made by Oaks. Overaker poled to Kensel, who whipped rapidly to second and Grimes expired. Mason went to third on this play, and when Overaker drew the throw from Link to second, Johnston pegged back to Borton, to get Overaker, but the throw home by Borton was just a second later than Mason's arrival. Lewis' wild throw of Johnston's easy grounder in the second round was the start of Ottumwa's scoring. Senno popped out to Grimes, and Oaks walked, sending Johnston to second. Borton hit to Lewis, who extinguished Oaks at second, but the Chattanooga cyclone, under full steam rounded third corner and slid into the plate in advance of Lewis's relayed throw via Fleming. The third frame, which brought Ottumwa the game was opened with Link's retirement. Boyd hit safely to left and Kensel put Overaker on his toes racking after a beauty two sack smack. Russell struck out attempting to dump the ball, but Severid lifted the pill over the garden wall for the half way distance and Boyd and Kensel registered. Johnston's double to left scored Severid, and Senno's whiff retired the side.

Rare fielding of Langdon and Blake saved Grimes from further damage in the mix, and Boyd's support, too, worked energetically to hold the score down.

Grave Stones Vs. Soda Fountain

Logan, July 26.—The Illinois Central and the Burlington are defendants in a suit for damages brought by Thos. Seever of Logan. It seems that Mr. Seever had two marble soda fountains in transit, but he was horrified to find on the dray, instead of marble soda fountains, marble slabs similar to those used in marking graves. Mr. Seever is said to view the whole matter with marked superstition but is determined however, that the railroad companies shall make good his loss.

ORMANVILLE. Misses Mildred Wood and Vera Ramsey were callers at the W. S. Creech home Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Skinner of Ottumwa visited with their daughter Mrs. Millie Rime and family Sunday.

Mrs. R. F. Skinner's mother is with her again.

A new concrete platform in front of the Ormanville graded school house greatly improves the looks of the grounds.

Some Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson For July 31

FOR THE INTERNATIONAL NEWSPAPER BIBLE STUDY CLUB. [Copyright, 1910, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.]

A Lesson on Forgiveness. Matt. xviii: 21-35.

Golden Text—If you forgive men their trespasses, your Heavenly Father will also forgive you, Matt. vi: 14.

Verses 21-22—What would be the result if an individual or the community were to forgive injuries to those who have no regret for having done them? Why is it the duty of every man to forgive injuries when they are truly repented of?

What is the limit, as to the number of times we should, on repentance, forgive a person who has injured us? What should be our attitude to one who constantly does us injury and takes delight in doing so?

What can you say for or against the statement that the state should forgive crime on the principles here laid down by Jesus?

What are the theoretical reasons for punishing criminals? What are the practical results of the present method of punishing crime—(1) does it prevent crime? (2) does it reform the criminal?

Verses 23-27—In what sense does Jesus use the phrase "the kingdom of heaven" here? Who does this king here stand for, and how does his method of forgiveness represent God's method?

What reason is there for us to suppose that the sentence of this king against his unfaithful servant, would have been carried out if the servant had not cried out for mercy? If a sinner is truly sorry for his sins and is desirous of not repeating them, and prays to be forgiven, how much breaking does God require before his prayer is granted?

When a sinner is fully forgiven, is he as innocent before God, as if he had never sinned? Give your reasons.

Verses 28-30.—What was the amount which the first servant had been forgiven, and what was the amount the second servant owed to the first, in our currency?

What can you say for, or against, the opinion that a truly converted man could not act in this harsh manner?

If this parable teaches the method and the conditions of God in forgiving a sinner, how can the parable be reconciled with the commercial theory of the atonement?

Can you cite any case of a professed Christian acting in this harsh way and how can you account for such action? Should a Christian debtor ever sue at the law a debtor when he knows he has nothing to pay with, and on getting judgment should he terrorize the debtor on every opportunity? Give your reasons.

Verses 31-34.—Suppose at this stage the hard-hearted servant had become tender and repented, would the King have forgiven him again?

What gave this king a right to require a debt that had been forgiven? Does it represent the law of Divine forgiveness?

Verses 35.—Why is it not possible, under any circumstances, for one to enjoy the favor of God while he cherishes a grudge against his brother? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

COMBINED AGE 180 WEDDED 70 YEARS

LOUISA COUNTY RESIDENTS BORN IN 1821 ENJOY LIFE ON FARM.

Wapello, July 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Dennis B. Hammond, interesting characters of pioneer days, have the title of the oldest couple in Louisa county. They reside on the old homestead about five miles from Columbus City. Mr. Hammond was born in Cincinnati, O., May 4, 1821. His wife, Hannah Padgett, was born in Salem county, New Jersey, October 5, 1821; so both are nearing their ninetieth milestone.

Farmers in Ohio. They were married January 24, 1840, and began life as farmers on the Ohio river bottom, where they lost everything by the floods, escaping only with their lives. Mr. Hammond being a miller, he sought and found employment at his occupation, which he followed for a number of years at Rising Sun, Ohio. From this place, in the fall of 1850, they removed to Iowa, attracted by the alluring tales of the famous country known as "The Black Hawk Purchase," comprising a strip about three counties wide along the west side of the Mississippi river, including Louisa county, which was a part of the Sac and Fox reservation.

Plowed With Oxen. They came over in the old fashioned covered wagon, locating in Columbus city township. Soon afterwards they moved to Washington county, where they lived the life of true pioneers, breaking the prairie with oxen and rearing a large family of children, eight boys and four girls. Two of the older boys went through the civil war. In 1864 they moved back to Louisa county, settling on the farm where they still live.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond were married when quite young, and have been married over seventy years, making them the oldest married couple in the county.

Oskaloosa Pioneer Dead. Oskaloosa, July 26.—(Special)—Ezekiel Rodgers, aged 89 years, a resident of this county for forty years, died at his home last night.

BIG NATIONAL SHOOT IS NEAR

IOWA GUARD'S CHANCES GOOD FOR PRIZE AT CAMP PERRY MEETING.

Des Moines, July 26.—The Iowa National guard is much interested in the preparations for the national match at Camp Perry, Ottawa county, Ohio, commencing Monday, August 22. The chances of the Iowa guard are considered good for taking some of the prizes at the shoot.

Last year there were forty-nine teams in the national match from the regular service, the military and navy academies and the state territorial and District of Columbia militia. In accordance with the customary program, the matches will be in two kinds of shooting, team and individual, with regulation army rifle and pistol competition.

The rifle fire has been divided in the following manner: Slow fire at 200, 600, 800 and 1,000 yards; rapid fire at 200 yards, and skirmish fire, one run. In the pistol competition the 200 yard fire is standing, and all other with the body prone and head toward the target. For preliminary practice the war department has given each team 15,000 rounds of the selected ammunition.

The contesting teams are divided into three divisions. The fifteen teams showing the highest scores in 1909 are placed in division A, the next fifteen teams in division B, and all the other entering teams in division C. The teams in class A shoot for the national trophy and a cash prize of $450, each man getting a bronze medal. The second, third and fourth prizes are $350, $300 and $250 respectively. Teams in class B shoot for the Hilton trophy and a $350 cash prize, while the teams in class C shoot for the bronze soldier of Marathon trophy with a cash prize of $300.

The navy team finished first last year, the army second, and the Massachusetts national guard third. Each team is allowed to take eighteen men, whose expenses are paid. These are a captain, coach, spotter, twelve principals and three alternates.
