TODAY'S MARKET NEWS

LOCAL MARKETS
HOGS TAKE DECLINE.
Drop of From 15 to 20 Cents in Porkers—Apples Enter Market at 85 Cents.
A decrease from 15 to 20 cents is noticeable in the local hog market. The grocers have apples at sixty-five cents per peck and simultaneously the blushing peach advances fifty cents and is now retailing at $2.25 per bu. New potatoes take a raise of five cents and this trio of staples show the only visible changes on the local retail market.

Stock Yards, Chicago, July 29.—There was a weak undertone to horse market as market was on retail basis, the auction having been suspended for the remainder of the week. Prices looked steady at low point of this week. Receipts the first four days this week approximated 1,060 against 925 same period last week and 925 corresponding time last year. There were few drafters good enough to sell above $200 while some plain ones went below $175. Most expressers went at $175 for 1,000 lbs. and 25¢ per cwt. Expressers made $140@160. Prime drivers were quotable upward of $250.

STEER TRADE PANICKY.

Further Recession in Values for All Classes Effected Under Weakest Demand in Months.
Stock Yards, Chicago, July 29.—Panicly rate of steer trade continued and fresh declines of 10c were registered for bulk of offerings, a break of 50¢ being shown for natives compared with last week's closing rates. Market was in a semi-demoralized state and many of the holdovers from Wednesday could not find outlet. The packers and shippers favored fresh offerings where they took the stale stock many of these showed declines of 15¢@20¢ from bids they received in last rounds Wednesday.
Four days' receipts totaled 65,500, largest since January, and in face of a badly weakened beef trade with coolers heavily loaded, packers buyers were out to hammer prices to the limit. Choice light choice 1,500 lb steers at $7.40 and top was $8.60 at $7.60 and top was $8.60 at $7.55, these being a class good enough to bring $8 last week. Biggest share of medium good steers, a short corn fed steers sold at $5.50@6.15. No western rangers were offered but packers had 500 Texans direct for slaughter.

A cow and heifer market a slightly better demand developed, but prices could not be boosted above the previous day's level. Few cows went above $4.50 and bulk made $3.25@4. Heavy calves were weak at $2.50; bulls steady and good calves firm. Feeders and stock steers sold freely at unchanged rates compared with Wednesday, but sales showed 25¢@35¢ decline from last week. Prices had the following range:
Choice to fancy steers $7.00@8.00
Medium to good steers $5.75@6.50
Inferior to fair steers $4.50@5.20
Fat cows and heifers $2.00@3.00
Canning cows and heifers $2.00@3.00
Native bulls and stags $3.00@5.00
Feeding cattle, 600@1000 lbs $2.50@5.40
Fair to fancy calves $6.75@8.75
Heavy calves $3.00@4.25
Export steers $6.35@7.10
Western range steers $4.60@6.20
Distillery steers $7.00@7.75
Milkers and springers (hd) $2.00@6.00

REACTION IN HOGS.

Hogs Break 10 1/2 Cents—Armour a Big Buyer.
A break of 10 1/2c in hog values carried the average to $8.56, or 13c lower than Wednesday, same as Monday and 5c higher than a week ago. Fancy selected light reached 39 and a few 130 lb pigs $9.05. Only choice 160 @200 lb averages sold above $8.85. Packing droves averaging 240@280 lbs estimated early at 16,000 and later at 20,000, but with 6,700 carried over from Wednesday nearly 27,000 were in the pens. Of the latter number 6,000 remained in the pens. The market closed weak, with packers talking lower prices for near future. Quotations follow:
Bulk of sales $8.45@8.70
Heavy butchers $40@200 lbs $8.60@8.80
Light butchers $30@230 lbs $8.25@8.50
Light bacon $160@190 lbs $7.70@8.00

Most Lambs Off 25c.

Stock Yards, Chicago, July 29.—While bulk of sheep sold steady some lots late in the day were down 10¢@15¢. Lambs were generally 25c lower than spot late Wednesday, although a few prime ones at start ruled about steady. The close was flat and some offerings were left unsold. No range lambs were offered. Native lambs sold at $4.50@7.00, with many quoting best on close down to $6.50. Range wethers made $4.30 or 15c lower. Feeding yearlings went at $5.15 while wethers went to the country at $4, and breeding ewes landed at $4@5, with bucks at $3.75@4.25. Native ewes landed at $2.60@4.00, while killers bought bucks at $2.75 to $3.50, few above $3.25. Quotations follow:

Range wethers, plain to prime 4.00@4.40
Fed wethers, inferior to best 4.10@4.50
Yearlings, fair to choice 5.00@5.50
Ewes, common to best 3.85@4.40
