 Jesus Entering Jerusalem. Matt. xxi:1-17.
 Golden Text—Hosanna to the son of David; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest. Matt. xxi:9.
 Verses 1-2—What did Jesus want of this ass and her colt?
 How did Jesus know where these animals were?
 Was Jesus limited in his knowledge or did he, when on earth, know all things including future events? (See Luke 2:52, Mark 13:32.)
 When God speaks to the soul now, concerning the future, may we depend on that happening which we think he has said to us?
 Verse 3—Did Jesus have any right to take these animals without the permission of their owners?
 Why has God got a right to take anything we have, with or without asking our permission?
 Why is there never any need to indulge in regrets at what God takes from us?
 Verses 4-5—Did Jesus plan these events to fit this prophecy, or did he act without thinking of it?
 See Sec. 9:3, and say if you think the writer had Jesus, and this event specifically, in mind, or did he write wiser than he knew?
 Verses 6-7—What reason is there to believe that if we obey God, we shall always get what we go for?
 If Jesus had been rich, would he have put on more style than riding upon a lowly ass?
 Is God pleased, or displeased, when

Christians put on style?
 Verses 8-11—Did this crowd believe their own shout?
 What is the evidence which proves that the shout of a crowd cannot be depended upon?
 Why is it a thing both natural and to be encouraged, to sing and demonstrate when Jesus is triumphing?
 Verses 12-13—What right had Jesus to turn these people out of the temple?
 Why did they make no resistance?
 Did Jesus turn out these traffickers in an even and quiet manner, or did he manifest anger?
 What is the moral or spiritual difference between a bazaar in a church, or anything else of a commercial nature, and these money changers and dove sellers in the temple?
 Why can it, or not, be well pleasing to God for our houses of prayer, in these days, to be turned into places for selling concerns, lectures, refreshments, etc? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)
 What is the difference between giving to the church, and buying something in the church to help support it?
 Verse 14—Should the church today look after the bodies as well as the souls of the people? Why?
 Verses 15-16—Why were the chief priests so much displeased at the wonderful work of Jesus?
 Are children, and those with the child-like spirit, better judges of spiritual truth than proud scholarly men?
