HOGS CLOSE LOWER.

Initial Trading Shows Spots 5c Higher, While Bulk Go at Strong Level.

Stock Yards, Chicago, Aug. 26.—The hog market opened strong at Wednesday's best time and considerable business was transacted that way. Shippers took a third of the receipts, which was the strengthening feature. Some packers were in the early trade, but no one when they forced packing grain into off from opening quotations. Two loads of 141@150 lb steers shipped sold at $9.40 with 168@199 lb at $9.32@9.35. Packing droves averaging 275@300 lbs, cost $8.52@8.75. A shipping drove of selected 216 lb butchers cost $9.08. Receipts were short of expectations at 15,000. Quality was good. Quotations follow:

STEEPS DULL AT DECLINE.

Native Steers Largely 25c Lower Than Monday—Some 40c Below Week Ago.

Stock Yards, Chicago, Aug. 26.—Demand for native steers was not improved over the weak situation which developed in late rounds. Wednesday's market was dull at 15¢25c decline from best levels Wednesday and Monday. Good to choice heavy grades showed full strength of the break. Medium to good kinds were down 25¢ to 40¢ from high point a week ago. In spite of a slight decrease in receipts this week killers have balked at high prices, and slackened beef demand enabled them to begin a bear campaign on all classes of native steers. Westerners, however, still held at firm rates. A run of 2,000 ranges in the Thursday market sold 15¢25c higher than a week ago. Best natives went at $8.20 and few lots landed above $7.50, while most ranges sold at $5.15@5.65.

Demand for native cows and heifers was again quite active prices showing a firm basis compared with Wednesday and 15¢25c advance over a week ago. Bulls were also strong sale and calves went firm to 25¢ higher a prime kind making $8.25. Feeder and stock steers continued in big eastern demand, sales holding on a strong level. Advances of 15¢25c were shown over a week ago. Prices had the following range: Choice to good steers... 3.70@6.85; Medium to good steers... 6.35@9.30; Inferior to fair steers... 5.00@6.25.

WOOD WAS FAR FROM EFFECTIVE

SPEED BOYS BORE KNOTS INTO OFFERINGS OF SOUTHPAW AND WON EASILY.

Wood failed to throw his usual portion of sawdust into the blinks of the Speed Boys at the ball resort yesterday afternoon and Jimmy Dunn's zip ball was working overtime. Even with this brief explanation almost a wooden Indian can guess the answer. But to add that there were four double plays behind the mighty Buffalo befuddled and five miscues were made by the enemy, and it all becomes as plain as mud. The ending of the series-comic performance on the last day of the Pathfinder's sojourn here was something like 8 to nit, and the nit part of the result was crocheted to the blue blouses of the below state games. Dunn pitched no startling game so far as whiffs and the such-like go, but his offerings were poison to the four leading characters in Manager Geier's company, and only once were they found by the rest of the crew. Not the heavy part of the raps negotiated by the end men of Boss Geier's gang was that each was endorsed with a double play that allowed nary a one of the guests to get off the middle couch. While all these lovely tidings were being displayed before the stinky audience of bugs, the Speed Boys were poling out doubles and homers, and racing across the stopping point like wild deer. Of course, their antics with the big stick and on the sacks were somewhat favored by the loose work of the fornicist side, but the game of all the misplays and Egan's choice performers would have copped the canned goods.

Out-of-the-ordinary work was performed by Matt and Schuler of the visitors; Senno's clouting was worth while, and the pasting was made all the more remarkable because Umpire Johnson failed to get hit with any force by a foul tip. Of course he got hit once, but the bump was only a slight one. His hits these past three days almost total up even with the rest of the regular force.

This Shows Who Was to Blame.

To be rid of mentioning the enemy any more than is possible, let it be said that Eng. Dowling, Plympton, Wood and Schuler hit in the order named and each was partly responsible for some of the scores of the natives via the error route. It should also be mentioned that the fielding of Kessel, Oaks, Johnston, Dunn and Borton, who figured in the four double plays, helped some in preventing any scores. As Not to relate the news that pleased: Kessel opened the first with a walk and Russell sacrificed. Severeid's double to the left field fence, scored Kessel. Johnston whiffed, but Senno did the opposite, sending the ball sky-high over the left side barrier for four sacks with Severeid counting; ahead of him. Dunn popped

PREFER DAILY PAPERS

FARMERS DECIDE NEWSPAPERS FURNISH MORE VALUABLE INFORMATION.

"What books and periodicals does it pay best to have on the farm?" was the chief topic for discussion at the meeting of the Eureka Grange No. 46, Patrons of Husbandry, held at Lyons, N. Y., last week. It was the consensus of the meeting that much good was to be obtained from some of the periodicals, but the most of the articles seem to be written by people who know nothing of practical agriculture. Since rural free delivery has been so generally established and the farmers can get their daily papers, it was considered that more valuable information could be received out of them than from many of the magazines and periodicals.
