100,000 TAKE PART IN PARADE

BRILLIANT PAGEANT CLOSES EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS AT MONTREAL.

GIBBONS IS SPEAKER

Cardinal Delivers Last Sermon After Papal Legate Carries Host Through Street; 200,000 Sleep Out of Doors.

Montreal, Que., Sept. 12.—A religious pageant as rich in devotional emotion as in sacred imagery, diverse in nationality and huge in size, closed Sunday the twenty-first international eucharistic congress. The procession marched four miles through the streets, the host at its head, to Mount Royal, above the city. There were 100,000 in line and 600,000 viewed it.

The city was so crowded that 200,000 slept last night on the slopes of Mount Royal, in Dominion square and in other city parks.

The cardinal legate marched at the head of the procession, carrying the host. Slowly and majestically, like pilgrims of the crusades, the great pageant followed. Organized choirs sang in Latin, French and English and bands played devotional music. When the crowd knew the air, it joined in with mingled languages.

Envoys From Foreign Lands.

The procession had been arranged to demonstrate the unity and universality of the Catholic church. It started from Notre Dame with a preliminary detachment of mounted officers, firemen and Papal Zouaves, followed by a choir of 200 male voices. The state, the church and the army were represented; every rite had its delegation, and there were envoys from the missionary activities in foreign lands.

The Knights of Columbus were 1,500 strong, head by Bishop Fallon of London, Ont.; then followed the Catholic club of New York, Greeks, Poles, Hungarians, Lithuanians, Serbians, Ruthenians, Chinamen, Indians, and the long file of religious congregations. Two priests marched among the Chinamen clad in native costume. After this gathering of the nations followed Dominicans and Carmelites, Jesuits and Benedictines, Redemptorists, fathers of the blessed sacrament, Paulists, Eudists, members of the Holy Cross and the Holy Ghost and a group of fifty trappist monks.

DEPOSED AS WIFE BUT GETS $3,500

CONTRACT MARRIAGE DECLARED VOID BUT HOUSEKEEPER IS ENTITLED TO WAGES.

Modale, Sept. 12.—After four years of litigation and after having been deposed legally as the wife of Elias W. Pegg, Margaret Asher has won a victory as housekeeper and has been adjudged to be entitled to $3,500 for services during twenty-one years of employment.

Elias W. Pegg was a farmer residing near here. He died August 7, 1906, leaving considerable personal property and lands of the value of $25,000. For some years prior to July 11, 1885, Margaret Asher had been his housekeeper employed at a regular salary. On the date last mentioned they entered into the following agreement:

"The undersigned make and enter into this agreement and contract. Elias W. Pegg his day takes Margaret Asher to be his lawful wife and agrees to live with her as such.

"Margaret Asher this day takes Elias W. Pegg to be her legal husband and agrees to live with him as such during life.

"Witness, J. C. Croble." "As husband and wife Pegg and the woman lived together until the death of the former. Pegg failed to leave a will and immediately after the funeral his relatives not only took possession of the property and refused to recognize Margaret Asher Pegg as the widow, but refused to compensate her for her twenty-one years of service in assisting to accumulate the estate.

Margaret Asher Pegg instituted suit to recover one-half of the Pegg possessions. The suit was tried in the supreme court of Iowa, where it was held that the contract did not constitute a legal marriage under the provisions of the laws of the state.

Legally deposed as a wife, Margaret Asher dropped the name, Pegg, and brought suit for $3,500, alleging that this sum was due her as housekeeper for Elias W. Pegg. This case, like the former one, went to the supreme court which has held that her claim is just and that it must be paid out of the property of the estate left by Pegg.

His wife is just as active and has accomplished much in building up the home.

I am a son of God; I was born for greater things. I am destined for heaven. I have dined with the king. I have come from the banquet of the Lord. The blood of Christ flows through my veins. Those lips which are purpled with the blood of the lamb nourished with the bread of angels, and with God's grace I shall never degrade myself by feeding on the husks of swine."
