

Henry J. Southern

FOR COUNTY CLERK OF DAVIS COUNTY.
(From Davis County Republican.)

The republican candidate for clerk of Davis county, Henry J. Southern, of West Grove, is one of the most popular men in the western part of Davis county. Ask any of the many that are intimately acquainted with him and the answer invariably is, "Southern is all right." He has had ample training for the "job," having served as agent for the Burlington and joint agent for the Wabash and Burlington at West Grove since 1898. If there is one class of work more exacting in detail than railroad work at a local station the republican has not been informed of that particular kind. Station agents' reports are complicated affairs and must be correct in every detail or they would stand inspection of higher officials. Some of the finest testimonials ever voluntarily presented an employee are those given Mr. Southern on his retirement from railroad life in February, 1910. These he prizes very highly and the compliment paid him by his superiors speaks volumes for his ability.

He was born in Bloomington, Ind., October 20, 1858, and remained in that vicinity until 23 years of age. His parents were poor and young Southern was compelled to get out and hustle for himself at an early age. In 1881 he went to Versailles, Ill., where he learned the trade of a wagon maker, and in 1884 he came to Iowa, locating in Fabius township, south of Monterey, and engaged in the pursuit of farming. In 1898 he moved to West Grove and took charge of the railroad office, conducting the business with credit to himself and entire satisfaction to the railroad companies. He resigned in February, 1910, and embarked in the grain and coal business. He is one of the "desirable" citizens, highly respected by all neighbors and friends, an active worker for any measure calculated to benefit the community. He is a member of the Odd Fellows, Masons and M. W. A. He never held public office save once, when elected clerk of Fabius township. The republicans of Davis county have every reason to feel a pride in Mr. Southern and his candidacy.

NATIVE STEERS GET SLIM CALL.

Range Cattle Prove Chief Attraction—Prices Monday Level.
Stock Yards, Chicago, Oct. 19.—A scant run of native steers was offered for sale and met slim demand, chief packing and shipping interests being shown the western rangers, which comprised 3,000 of general receipts of 8,000, while the biggest share of the cattle from corn belt feedyards were cows and heifers. Packers bid indifferently for natives and some lots went unsold. Best sold at $7.50, but the sales above $6 were quite rare. Best making grades were quoted at $2.10 to $2.50 closing rates, but steers below choice were nominally 10@20c lower. Rangers sold at Monday's rates, bulk of steers at $5@5.50 and a good grade at $6.
Native steers again had weak demand and some sales were at further decline, the general price basis being 15@25c lower than last week, and bulk of grades fed cows and heifers showing 25@50c decline from levels in force ten days ago. Bulls showed 15@25c decline from last week. Calves sold 25@50c higher than Monday, prime vealers making $10@10.50. Fedders and stock steers, in big supply, moved slowly, mediums going at 10c decline from Monday. General sales were 10@25c lower than last week's closing. Prices have followed a similar course.

SHARP BOOST IN HOGS.

Advance of 25c Scored Over Low Basis of Monday, Though Late Rounds Show Weakness.
Stock Yards, Chicago, Oct. 19.—Packing hogs sold 5c higher, while the good light and medium weight offerings were fully 15@25c higher than low point Monday. The market had a slow start, but trade gathered momentum as the session progressed and values rose steadily above levels before the night, although last rounds were weak. Packers bought as liberally as any other class of buyers and took on a better class of stock than usual, buying feed grades for $2.10 to $2.50. Monday. Prime light hogs showed more advance than any other class and sold up to $9.85, or 15c higher than the best figure obtained at the forenoon sale. Receipts for the day were posted at 15,000 head and a good clearance of the offerings was effected, only 4,000 of the least desirable lots being left in pens at the finish. Quotations follow:
Bulk of sales $5.50@9.00

WEAK HORSE DEMAND.

Dealers Report Sharp Fall in Prices During the Current Month.
Stock Yards, Chicago, Oct. 19.—The fall trade thus far has proved the most disappointing in many years. With a bountiful harvest, conditions are apparently favorable for active business development, yet the expected expansion of commercial activities fails to materialize. A depressing element to the trade is the abnormally warm fall, which decreases the demand for loggers and the inquiry for big drafters by coal companies, while receipts continue to come forward in normal volume. The market is suffering from over-supply, owing to the feeble demand and the general disposition of outside dealers to purchase their supplies at lower values. Country shippers report a sharp decline the current month, totaling in many individual sales 50 per cent, with an occasional top offering going at steady prices, but the bulk of the receipts are moving at lower values, which precipitate losses to country shippers. Bulk of sales at the following auction prices:
Poor choice to good to extra $1.15@1.65
Expressers 1.10@1.65
Loggers and feeders 60@160

Sheep and Lambs Sell Steady.
Stock Yards, Chicago, Oct. 19.—Sheep and lambs held on practically unchanged basis. Trade was active, with packers forced to take stock which would have sold to feeder buyers on any other day, owing to scarcity of prime feeders. Receipts were placed at 42,000 head, bringing the run for two days this week to 24,000 head less than for the same time last week, when record receipts were needed. Fancy native lambs were made up to $7, with range offerings topping at $6.35. There was a liberal attendance of country buyers and feeding lambs met with a ready outlet at $6.65 for the bulk of the better grades, with tops at $6.70. Fat range wethers made $5.75@6.4, but they were not very attractive as to quality. Feeding wethers went the same time last week, when record receipts were needed. No Wonder She Broke It

Edna, who had been taught to report her misdeeds promptly came to her mother sobbing penitently.
"Mother, I broke a brick in the fire-place."
"Well, that is not very hard to remedy. But how on earth did you do it, child?"
"I pounded it with father's watch."
