BABY CLIMBS 30 FOOT LADDER

Griswold, Nov. 1.—The sight of his little son, Glendon, aged 2½ years, standing on the top rung of a thirty-foot ladder, with his head just above the roof of the fire department building, was the terrifying experience of George Millhollin. Mr. Millhollin and Mark Adams, who are members of the paid fire department, were on the roof to do some repairing and were busy with their work when they heard the boy crying and on looking around saw the little fellow's head above the edge of the roof. He was frightened, probably from having looked down, but he clung to the ladder in manly style until Mr. Millhollin rescued him from the danger of a frightful fall.

HIRES A HORSE; TRIES TO SELL IT

STRANGER AT RICHLAND GETS ANIMAL BUT IS LOCATED AT MT. PLEASANT.

Richland, Nov. 1.—(Special)—A man giving his name as Adams and residence in Ohio, went to the livery barn here Sunday and hired a horse and buggy, presumably to drive out a short distance in the country and would return by noon. As the time arrived the livery man, Jesse Smith, became uneasy and telephoned out to Mr. Holgate (the place he named), but the man had not been there. Mr. Smith then telephoned to all the nearby towns and finally located him at Mt. Pleasant, where he had offered the horse and buggy for less than half their worth. Mr. Smith and John Kent went down in their auto and brought him here. He confessed he was trying to sell the horse as he needed the money.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS MEET

SIDNEY WOMEN HAVE ORGANIZATIONS THAT WORKS WITH SCHOOLS.

Sidney, Nov. 1.—The Parents' and Teachers' union of Sidney, held interesting meetings in the high school room every third Friday of five months in the school year.

This organization is affiliated with the congress of mothers, whose motto is "The Welfare of the Child." At the last meeting the subject of "Physical Care of the Child," was discussed. Mrs. C. J. Esden read a portion of Dr. Emmett Holt's lecture showing how to know the signs of health and study the conditions by which it is secured and maintained during the period of growth. It is not more knowledge that is necessary, but better and more accurate knowledge.

Mrs. E. S. Murphy told how adenoid growths are formed and some of the causes. Mrs. Lewis Hills, then gave an accurate account of the effects of adenoid growths—the listlessness, half-open mouth, vacant expression and impaired hearing. Also the beneficial results of having them removed, both in the facial expression and manner, in a few weeks' time.

Some informal talks in regard to ventilation were given by Mrs. C. W. Mitchell, Rev. Jacobs and Superintendent Stone.

Last year this organization secured over $100 for the school library. The utility and entertainment committees are now planning arrangements to obtain some pictures for the high school room.

WANTS $5,000 FOR SCRATCH.

Mabel Gretchen of Des Moines Lost Her Finger—Joseph Wright Was in Too Big a Hurry.

Des Moines, Nov. 1.—His zeal to get the engagement ring off his sweet-heart's finger after a lover's quarrel, may cost Joseph Wright 5,000 hard dollars.

Mabel declares that blood poison in the district court in which she asks that Joseph be compelled by court to pay her that sum for the loss of a finger.

Things had progressed so far with Joseph and Mabel that Mabel was wearing a fine two carat diamond ring on the engagement finger of the left hand. The petition does not set forth the details of the quarrel, but it does say that they did quarrel and that Joseph jerked the ring off his lady's finger and that in so doing he tore the skin with his finger nail.

Mabel declares that blood poisoning resulted from the wound and within two weeks after the quarrel it was necessary for her to have the finger amputated.

DRAKESVILLE.

On Friday night a Halloween party was given at the parsonage. The rooms were lighted with Jack-o'-lanterns. The guests were met at the door by ghosts.

Dale Russell spent Sunday with Irvin Bonar.

Mrs. Tom Huff and Mrs. Alvah Huff and children dined Saturday at the E. J. Goodlander home. Rev. Huff has recovered his health sufficient to take up the pastoral work at Jerome, for which place he left Friday.

The family left this week.

Charlie Tomlin and family from near Mark spent Sunday at the Frank Harbour home.

Prof. Dunham will continue his musical convention for ten nights. A large class is now secured. The concert given last Thursday night was excellent and enjoyed by all present.

Mr. Spillman of Bloomfield was the guest of Miss Sylvia Fleming last Friday.

Miss Blanche Lindley of Des Moines is visiting her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Housley at Ottumwa.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Piper left Saturday for Trenton where Mr. Piper is in the Rock Island employ.

CENTER BOASTS A GOOD TICKET

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES FOR TOWNSHIP OFFICERS ARE A WORTHY SELECTION.

A WISE CHOICE

The Election of the Men Nominated in This Branch of the County Service is Made a Duty for the Thoughtful Citizen.

In the makeup of the republican ticket for Center township, the voters have a list of candidates that will grace the positions to which they aspire and it is a list that makes a bid for support which should be given heed by every thinking voter. There are nine men on the township ticket, who, if elected, will carry out the wishes of the voters to the entire satisfaction of the township.

The officers comprise two justices of the peace, two constables, three trustees, clerk and assessor.

Berry is Good Material. The candidates for the post of justice of the peace are William Berry and Edgar F. Johnson. The former, William Berry, is no stranger to the voters of the township and has held the post on a former occasion with credit to the party and dignity to the office.

Berry has lived in Ottumwa for the past twenty years, coming here from Davis county, where he saw the light of day for the first time in 1861. Two years ago he held the office of justice of the peace and since then has been engaged in real estate and insurance business. For twelve years he worked as a cooper in the establishment of Jerry Seymour and is a resident of South Ottumwa. The voter can make no mistake in voting for "Bill" Berry.

Johnson a Safe Man.

With a claim of pioneer in the community and likewise a record as a peace officer to be envied, Edgar F. Johnson makes his appeal for the support of the voters of Center township.

Mr. Johnson was born in Ohio away back in 1852, beginning life with the new year, and has the optimism to feel that his next birthday will witness his being ushered into the post of justice of the peace.

For the past thirty-five years Ed Johnson has lived in Ottumwa and eight years of that time was spent in the service of the city as one of its peace officers. For two years of his police career he was night captain and the remaining six years a patrolman.

Since 1896 Ed Johnson has been a familiar figure about Ottumwa as merchant police or watchman of the various stores about the business district.

With the exception of two years of this time, during which he was seriously ill, he has been continually in the service of the merchants. Mr. Johnson was raised on a farm in Poweshiek county, having come back to Iowa when 13 years of age, for he had during 1854 lived in Agency. For twenty years Mr. Johnson mined coal, having been employed as a miner in Iowa, Indiana and Illinois. Ed Johnson should make a conservative and safe man to preside as justice of the peace.

Derby in the Race.

Coming from a line of republicans that have been consistent members of the party in Wapello county since 1840, W. A. Derby has entered the race for the position of constable with the determination to be still in the game when the race finishes.

Candidate Derby is at present serving in the capacity of constable and there is no wisdom in making a change, for "Bill" Derby the goods. He comes from a line of Iowa pioneers, for his grandfather, Charles W. Derby, came to Iowa nearly seventy years ago. His father, Nelson Derby, has been a farmer in Adams township, for many years. Mr. Derby is a native of Monroe county, but saw the wisdom of migrating to Wapello county when four years of age, and never regretted it. Those who failed to vote for W. A. Derby two years ago, are now like to make the same mistake this year.

Crawley Has Experience.

Clarence Crawley, candidate for the post of constable, is no raw recruit in the role of peace officer. Mr. Crawley is an old policeman of Ottumwa and has seen eight years' service as a patrolman in Ottumwa.

Clarence Crawley came to Ottumwa away back in 1874 and is well known about the city. Since then he has been in the ranks of the men who toil and is a carpenter by trade. His present incumbency of the office has been prolific of results that speak his re-election to the position. The voter will make no better choice for a constable than by voting for Clarence Crawley.

A Worthy Trio.

The election of the republican candidates for trustees in Center township will be the wisest move the voter can make. The candidates for this office come from both city and country. G. M. Bissell hails from the country and is among the sturdy agricultural class that make Wapello county a desirable locality in which to live and invest. His colleagues come from both sides of the river in Ottumwa and are both from the business world of life. C. Y. Smith is a well known lumber merchant and manager of the M. B. Hutchison Lumber Co. He is also one of the hustlers who believes in boosting Ottumwa. F. L. Canfield is one of the representative merchants of South Ottumwa. Every one south of the river knows F. L. Canfield and his career in the grocery business demonstrates his capability to make a safe and conservative trustee.

Taylor Well Equipped.

What can be said of the trustees can be said with equal force of the candidate for clerk of the township, James C. Taylor. Mr. Taylor is well known about Ottumwa and is well equipped to handle the duties of the position to

The Last Supper, Matt. xxvi:17-30. Golden Text—This is my body which is given for you, this do in remembrance of me. Luke 22:19.

Verse 17—What was the feast of the passover, and what did it commemorate?

What purpose does the feast of the passover serve as evidence of Bible history?

What is the practical benefit of anniversaries, religious, national and personal?

Verse 18—Has Jesus the right to-day, as in that day, to invite himself and friends to any man's house? Why?

Was Jesus' "time" for his crucifixion, a necessary or a contingent event, i. e., was the event fixed by God or would he have preferred that the Jews had accepted, and not rejected Jesus?

Verse 19—What are the advantages of making proper preparation, in advance, for religious services, that is of the heart and mind, as well as for the place and the services themselves?

Verse 20—Which time is preferable for the most solemn and impressive service, the morning or the "evening"?

Would it tend to spirituality, and cultivate a spirit of love and unity, if the children of God were to sit down and eat together, at their exercises, or prayer meetings? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verse 21—Did Jesus know that Judas was going to betray him from passing events, or supernaturally? Give your reasons.

If human actions are contingent, and not necessary, how can God know in advance what they are going to be?

Verses 22-23—Were the loyal disciples actually in doubt, as to whether they were going to betray Jesus, and, whether or not, what was their state of mind?

Are there some acts which we may be absolutely sure we will never commit, or should we always stand in doubt of ourselves? Give your reasons.

Verses 24-25—Could Judas have refrained from betraying Jesus, and have been loyal to him, had he chosen to do so? Give four reasons.

Verses 26-28—Did Jesus' blessing of the bread and the wine change its nature, and if not, what effect did it have?

What was the precise thought Jesus meant to convey by the words, "this is my body," and "this is my blood"?

What reasons are there to believe that Jesus meant this sacrament, of the Lord's supper, to be kept up perpetually?

What blessed purposes are served by keeping up the Lord's supper?

Verses 29-30—Will there be eating and drinking in heaven and, whether or not, what did Jesus mean by these words?

ELDON.

Gov. Carroll spent an hour in Eldon while enroute to Centerville Saturday, Nov. 1 being late. He met many of his old acquaintances who pledged their support.

Friday Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Franklin returned from an extended visit of one year in Colorado Springs, Colo., and Los Angeles six months.

Mrs. Kate Whistler arrived from her home in Kansas City Friday night with her son Harvey, who has been ill. They stopped with her mother Mrs. Samuel Crow.

Leon Hincley of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived Friday night to visit his mother and sister Mrs. Henry Ritz on Walnut and Seventh street.

Rev. D. D. Proper of the Baptist church, superintendent of missions at Omaha, Neb., was an overnight visitor Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Proper was one of the 19th Iowa Infantry and his comrades at Eldon welcome him every time he is here.

which the electors of the township will elect him November 8.

A Capable Man.

There is no more capable man for the post of assessor in the township than J. F. Knox. This candidate has been a resident of the county for the past forty years and is familiar with things about this vicinity during his life here. His candidacy for the post of assessor will afford the voters of the township an opportunity to select a man from the ranks of agriculture, that is fully capable of handling the position. Vote for J. F. Knox.

Italians Headed for Iowa.

Des Moines, Nov. 1.—Secretary Sumner of the state board of health has received word that twenty-three Italian immigrants have landed in New York from Naples and are headed for Iowa. They will arrive at Des Moines, Centerville, Cleveland and Sioux City in a few days. Secretary Sumner directs local boards of health to examine them to see if they have Asiatic cholera.

"Characteristic" Clothes

Virile, aggressive Young Men are the critical judges of what style really is—they wish to dress well—they desire individuality and character in their clothes; the commonplace or out-of-date makes no appeal to them, that's why our Suits and Overcoats are their invariable choice.

We have a new and up to date line that will appeal to the man who likes good clothes.
