Burst Like a Bomb

Phillips Big Store Co. offers a reward of $100.00 for any stamp book presented by the user that it has refused to honor—our Red Stamps are backed by years of Honest dealing

NOTHING LESS THAN

$95.00 Gets a Premium with Green Stamps

You get 10 stamps free every Saturday and double stamps on special occasions with either Red or Green stamps which cuts the amount you have to buy to get a premium from $2.00 to $5.00 but the result is the same.

You have to buy just twice as many goods to get a premium with green stamps as you do to get a premium with red stamps.

there is no rake off on Red stamps. we have them printed in large quantities at a cost of 12c a thousand—the dealer giving out green stamps has to pay from 30c.00 to 40c.00 a thousand, some dealers paying one price some another, the profit, and its a big one goes to a million dollar corporation—as all stamps not redeemed is a clean profit of from $30.00 to $40.00 a thousand as very few people can buy $95.00 worth of goods which is the smallest amount of stamps on which you can get a premium with green stamps and the tax on the community is very great.

Morris Williams

LARGEST AND BEST HORSE MARKET WEST OF THE MISSISSIPPI.

Private Sale on Thursday.

EXTRA LARGE SALE NEXT WEEK.

That's my idea and I am going about it to make next week's sale not only extra large, but extra good.

Cooler weather will undoubtedly stimulate the demand for coal wagon horses, and for loggers for the northern trade, and this bumper crop now past all danger of harm from frost should and will give confidence to the buyers of big-boned feeding horses.

The southern demand continues good, especially for small mares weighing 800 to 1200 pounds, branded or unbranded.

So I am going to "get busy" and do a lot of advertising of the sale on Friday the 11th. Bring on the stuff. I'll have the buyers.

MORRIS WILLIAMS, Ottumwa, Iowa.

P. S. Also likewise, I want to say to some of you farmers, I have a head of my coming 2-year-old fillies, all haltered and gentle, and I will sell them singly or in a bunch, at a price that I know will enable the buyer to make plenty of money out of them.

These are nice clean fillies and will grow to mares weighing from 1000 to 1200. They may be seen at the sale barn any day now. Prices $35 to $45 and they will grow into mares worth $125 to $150.
