

S. JOE BROWN MAKES ADDRESS

DES MOINES COLORED ATTORNEY URGES NEGROES TO VOTE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

GAME THEM LIBERTY

Tells of Legislation Enacted for Colored Race by Grand Old Party—Praises Governor Carroll and Congressman Kendall.

During his colored brothers to vote the straight republican ticket from governor down to township trustees, S. Joe Brown, the learned negro attorney of Des Moines, addressed a large audience of Afro-Americans in the hall of the Central drug store last night. W. S. Page was chairman of the evening. Attorney Brown, the speaker of the evening, was well known to his audience, having formerly resided in Ottumwa where he received his education. Joe Brown is the only colored boy who ever graduated from the Ottumwa High school. His address was one of the best political speeches ever heard during the campaign. He pointed out why the colored voters should vote the republican ticket. To the grand old party, he declared, the negro was responsible for his freedom from the bondage of slavery and for the legislation which made the negro a citizen and voter. He urged the democratic party, and stated that it was largely responsible for the condition of the negro race in the south, where the Afro-Americans have been deprived of their right of citizenship.

Attorney Brown highly praised Governor Carroll and Congressman N. E. Kendall, stating that the negro race had no better friend than these gentlemen. He stated that Congressman Kendall had kept his promise by introducing a bill in congress asking for the representation of negroes in the southern states be cut down, because negroes were not allowed to vote.

Short talks were made by several of the colored ministers of the city and by others. Rev. P. M. Lewis, Rev. M. I. Gordon and Rev. Benjamin F. Abner and William Thompson were heard. Among the candidates present were L. L. Duke, Frank Shane, A. W. Roberts, J. R. Stodghill, E. L. Peterson and Dr. A. W. Slaughter.

Attorney Brown's Address.

"It is indeed a pleasure," said Mr. Brown, "for me to be called upon to return to the county where I was brought up, and in which I cast my first vote, to say a few words by way of reasons why I feel that every negro voter in the county should on next Tuesday, November 8, cast one straight republican vote, as I did upon the instance above referred to, fourteen years ago. My especial text on this occasion shall be a few potent reasons why the negroes of Iowa and especially of Wapello county should go to the polls on the eighth and cast their straight ballot for the nominees of the grand old republican party, which had its birth and its ascendancy to political prestige in the election of Abraham Lincoln, the martyr to the cause of the emancipation of you and your fathers and mine just fifty years ago this month.

First, because, as I have already said, the republican party is the child of the contest between the north and the south in which the negro was the bone of contention. While we are told that times have changed, the democrats of today are the democrats of fifty years ago. I note that the states in which the negroes are disfranchised are in which they are Jimcrowed today, almost the same as fifty years ago, are democratic states.

"Therefore have come to the conclusion that regardless of what I might do in a municipal campaign or even in a state or county campaign, where there are no federal officers to be elected, in any election such as this, as the result of which all the members of the national house of representatives and one-third of the members of the national senate are to be chosen, a bad republican is to me better than a good democrat.

"Second, because the grand old republican party is the party that a few years after the emancipation made the negro a citizen by the adoption of the fourteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States. This amendment is today being openly violated in more than half a dozen states of the union which, as I have already said, are every one of them democratic states.

Third, because this same grand old party a few years after making the negro a citizen, passed another, the fifteenth amendment to the federal constitution which declares that the ballot shall not be denied us because we are black, and notwithstanding this fact, this amendment as well as the fourteenth is today being openly violated by the same democratic states, starting as far south as Mississippi and coming as near to us as the newly admitted state of Oklahoma. And right here allow me to remind any of you of democratic persuasion that had it not been for the fact that Missouri, our nearest neighbor, went overwhelmingly republican two years ago, many of you, who no doubt lived in Missouri at that time, would have been deprived of the right to vote the same as your brothers in Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, North and South Carolina, Virginia, Oklahoma and Louisiana.

"Fourth, because the republican party is the party that has produced all the presidents that have governed this country during the past fifty years, except Grover Cleveland, whose democratic administration from 1893 to 1897 brought upon the greatest panic that this country has experienced during the present generation. Praises Carroll and Kendall.

"I want to say a few words concerning the two men whom I consider the standard bearers of the republicans of the sixth district, namely Governor B. F. Carroll and Hon. N. E. Kendall. Both these men are my personal friends and both have proven by their past records that they are also the friends, not only of the negro, but of all those who toil. Mr. Kendall has been for one term a member of the national house of representatives. I believe it was the chairman of this meeting. W. S. Page, at that time president of the Ottumwa local Afro-American council, who, when Mr. Kendall was a candidate for his first term in congress, asked him to define his attitude toward the proposition of reduction of representation in those democratic states that have disfranchised practically their entire negro population.

Kendall kept promise. "In response to that inquiry Mr. Kendall declared as no other member of congress from the state of Iowa has ever declared, that if elected he would introduce a bill demanding the reduction of representation in all those states which have disfranchised the negro in violation of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments of the federal constitution. You took him at his word, you sent him to congress and during the very next session he introduced the bill demanding the reduction of representation in compliance with the provisions of the constitution of the United States. If he had done nothing else this one act of Representative Kendall is sufficient to recommend him to every negro voter in the sixth congressional district, and I am sure that when the votes are counted on the eighth of this month he will have been re-elected by an overwhelming majority.

Carroll is Negro's Friend. The other standard bearer for the republicans of the sixth district and for the entire state is Governor B. F. Carroll. As your chairman can well inform you, not only since he has been in politics but when he was conducting an ordinary butcher shop in Bloomfield, Ia., Governor Carroll was known throughout Davis county as the friend of all common people, regardless of race, color or previous condition. But some of you, possibly all of you who reside in Wapello county, are under special obligation to Governor Carroll for the firm stand that he took in regard to justice, equality under the law to all men, even to confessed criminals of the negro race. A little more than a year ago, a negro whose name has become a byword in this community, confessed his guilt of the atrocious murder of an innocent white girl in your city. There was much talk of mob violence being visited upon him and of the impossibility of bringing him into court for trial in the day time, lest he should be mobbed. Governor Carroll rose to his full six feet four, to the full dignity of his manhood and republicanism and in his usual cool, deliberate, yet determined fashion, and declared that John Junkin, confessed murderer, should be given a fair and impartial trial in open court and in the day time, if it required the entire military force of the state of Iowa to do it. You will also remember that Junkin was given such a trial and it was not necessary to call out the militia. I am convinced if there were any who had in mind the taking of law into their hands they were deterred from that determination by this declaration of Governor Carroll, who did not want the good name of the state of Iowa and Wapello county to be marred by the lynching of a negro which has never yet taken place since Iowa has been a state."

Rev. Reid Gives Talk. Rev. J. Cornelius Reid, pastor of the Second Baptist church, delivered a short address preceding that of Attorney S. Joe Brown. He said in part:

"The republican party can never abandon its efforts to enforce the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments. There was an outcome of the war for the union and one of the terms of settlement made between the north and the south. To allow it to become permanently a dead letter would be cowardly and disgraceful. A deliberate determination to surrender it would be the destruction of the republic. One of the business men of the nation, although a negro, and admitted as such, has said that the negro is a man, but there will surely come a time of revival of fidelity and courage. The continued adherence of colored men to the republican party which gave liberty and suffrage to us will necessitate the renewed championship by the party of the political equality of the prescribed race. The present unnatural and dangerous conditions of the negro in the south where the black man is deprived of his constitutional rights, is a constant menace against the peace and prosperity of the white people. Justice and obedience to the constitution can only avert the danger. We should keep courage and looking for the coming of the morning."

MISS HUGHES' WORK PRAISED

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

HAS HAD WIDE EXPERIENCE

W. L. Stephens, Head of Lincoln, Neb., Schools Says Her Work There Has Been Excellent—Paper Endorses Her.

The voters of Wapello county can make no wiser choice at the election Tuesday, November 8, than to elect Miss Winnifred Hughes, the republican candidate for the office of superintendent of the schools of Wapello county. The numerous recommendations Miss Hughes has received from school boards and papers in the cities where she has taught bear eloquent testimony to her standing in her profession. She is widely acquainted with educational work, having filled various important positions in Lincoln, Neb., and Montpelier, Idaho, in addition to teaching in the schools of Ottumwa and Wapello county. Her election to the county superintendency will raise the Wapello county school to rank with any school of the middle west.

Stephens' Recommendation. W. L. Stephens, superintendent of instruction of the board of education of Lincoln, Neb., praises Miss Hughes' work highly in a letter of recommendation which he has written. His letter follows:

Stephens' Letter.

"To whom it may concern: "This is to certify that Miss Winnifred Hughes has been a teacher in the city schools of Lincoln, (Neb.) for the past three years and a half. She was at first a regular teacher. In this position she was so successful that she was given what I consider the most difficult position in our system to fill, that of regular supply teacher. For the past two years she has acted in this capacity. With only a moment's notice she is called upon to fill any temporary vacancy from that of first grade to that of principal. It is necessary for her to be conversant with every phase of the work throughout all the grades. In this work she has been successful in an unusual degree; every teacher and principal on our force holds her in the highest esteem, while all the children in the city respect her and follow her lead with real joy and confidence. "Miss Hughes has my unqualified endorsement. She is a woman of thorough education, wide experience, womanly instincts and progressive ideas. She would bring to the schools

If she should leave Lincoln she should consider it a serious loss, for her place could be satisfactorily filled only with the greatest difficulty.

"Respectfully yours, "W. L. Stephens." Paper Speaks Highly.

In speaking of Miss Hughes' excellent work in the schools of Montpelier, Idaho, the Examiner, the leading paper of the western city says: "Miss Winnifred Hughes, a former teacher in the Montpelier schools, is a candidate for school superintendent on the republican ticket in Wapello county, Iowa. As principal of the Washington building in this city for three years, she gave universal satisfaction. She is qualified in every particular to fill the office she is now seeking and the Examiner would be pleased to hear of her election on the 8th of November."

URGES INTEREST IN GOOD ROADS

BETTER HIGHWAYS SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED SAYS THE ROAD ENTHUSIASTS.

The enthusiast for better roads will find the suggestions given in a number of useful hints by the Des Moines Capital, of some value. "Random shots on the road question," is the title given the hints and the dragged road is made the chief feature among the ideas suggested which follow:

The friends of dragged roads throughout the state should remember that now is the time for action.

We urge the men along the line of the River-to-River road to do such work as they have not done before.

We urge the men along the line of the road from Des Moines to Colfax to become especially busy. The road from Des Moines to Colfax only needs dragging to be a good road.

We urge every man to remember that the taxpayers of Iowa are paying into the township treasuries an aggregate of $5,000,000 a year and that they are not getting much tangible service in return.

The sum of $5,000,000 ought to keep the roads of Iowa in order all the year around.

We ask every man to remember that when he uses his influence against dirt roads he is giving us nothing in return. He is offering nothing better. Therefore we urge him to cooperate in a statewide endeavor to have the road fund properly expended.

We suggest to the good roads men throughout the state that they have immediate talks with the nominees of both political parties for the legislature. Ascertain at once how these men stand. Make no threats against them. Use no unseemly language, but argue with them; attempt to convince them that the drained and dragged dirt road is the only one within reach, and that going back to the old plan of working out the township road tax is too absurd to be considered. Such a plan would turn the state back fifty years.

We urge upon all automobile men to have interviews with the legislative nominees in regard to the care of roads in this great state. The automobile is no longer to be despised. Out of the twenty-one thousand automobiles in Iowa one-third of them belong to the farmers. The automobile has come to stay. It will stay until it is driven out by the aeroplane. The aeroplane will be a success, but dirt roads will be needed just the same.

The legislative nominees living along the line of the River-to-River road ought to be taken on an inspection tour. In this case, seeing would be believing.

Every friend of good dirt roads should ascertain who is nominated for trustee in the township where he lives. The township trustees are responsible for the expenditures of the township road tax. Good trustees means good roads.

These are random shots on the good roads question, but they are timely.

ARE MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

MR. AND MRS. MARTIN OF WEST POINT CELEBRATE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

West Point, Nov. 2.—On Tuesday, November 1, 1860, Charles Martin and Mrs. Fannie Jarrett, the latter the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Jarrett, of Marion township, were married at the bride's parents' parental home, a one-room log cabin with a spacious attic above. The conditions may have been somewhat out of the ordinary, but considering that the event took place fifty years ago, the true import may be realized.

The groom at the time was a clerk in one of the local stores, but being both ambitious and persevering he decided to go into business for himself a move which was in direct opposition to the status of his funds.

John E. Jarrett, Mrs. Sarah Ehart, Mrs. J. E. McCracken, C. Courtright and Iowa Patterson, who were present at the ceremony fifty years ago, were present again Tuesday at the golden anniversary. The program was carried out at the opera house, and included a reception from 2 to 7 o'clock, a mock marriage taking place at 2 o'clock; Rev. B. K. Brockert officiating.

Attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. C. Martin and son, Byron; William Smith and children, Stanley and Isabelle, of Chicago; Mrs. Elmer Alter of Beaver City, Neb.; Mrs. Sarah Ehart, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Courtright, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Sample, Mrs. I. W. Traverser, Henry Smith, Dr. J. D. N. Coon, of Fort Madison; Henry Smith and daughter, Katie, of Morning Sun; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. HOUGHLAND IS FOR GOOD MEN

ELDON PIONEER URGES ALL VOTERS TO SUPPORT REPUBLICAN TICKET.

J. E. Houghland, a well known resident of Eldon, urges all voters of the county to support the republican ticket, and he gives a reason. "In case you wanted to hire or engage a man to do some particular kind of work," says Mr. Houghland, "would you not first enquire about his qualifications? In the selection of county officers, the voter should first ascertain if the men are qualified for the offices they seek. We have been losers in money as well as in performance of duties in our offices for many years. Many have been appointed for the posts as a farmer for a bank, a plasterer for a carpenter and yet they have been nominated and elected. What is more detrimental to the business interests of our county than such men? Why should we elect such men when there can be men elected who are admirably fitted for the offices? In the offices of representatives in the house and senate we should select men who have at least a good common school education. They should be fitted to read understandingly any measure that comes up for consideration in every way. They should not only be educationally fitted, but should be morally men of unquestionable character. It is a matter of business to the voter as well as every one else who has to live under the laws enacted. The party by whom the candidate has been nominated makes no difference if he is unfitted for his duties. The party will not make good what the officer fails to do. Many officers who have served this county have been unfitted and some have had to go down in their pockets to pay the loss and may have defaulted and the county has been the loser. In the office of county supervisor, only the best men should be selected and elected. The business of Wapello county requires business men of sufficient capacity to handle the immense funds and do the business. Why is our county now in debt to the tune of thousands of dollars? Would you hire a man to do your business who is wholly incapable, or has not made good in his own business transactions? In case your party, who has been nominated in the offices of county officers, is the loser? Think of these suggestions and November 8 be sure you are voting for the best man."

ROAD BOOSTERS VISIT IN ALBIA PARTY IN NINE AUTOMOBILES TRAVEL OVER PROPOSED NEW HIGHWAY YESTERDAY.

In nine autos thirty-three men calling on Blakesburg and Ottumwa made a trip yesterday over the proposed "Blue Grass" road from Ottumwa to Albia. The trip was one of great satisfaction to all who participated in it, and the results may mean a greatly improved up-to-date highway for road travel between this city and the capital of Blakesburg on the route, lent no little enthusiasm to the proposed road scheme and a number of the enterprising citizens of that locality in eight four to one in the state. The body of men outnumbered the Ottumwas from the Old Glory floated to the breeze from the auto train as it whisked through the rich farm country of Wapello and Monroe counties enroute. The trip was a most enthusiastic one and its first good result will be seen in the meeting arranged for at the Commercial association's rooms yesterday after returning to Ottumwa.

This meeting is scheduled to be held in Blakesburg one week from today at which it is hoped to arrange the details which it is hoped will bring the road to be interested in the movement. The purpose will be the raising of funds to cut down the hills along the route of the "Blue Grass" road between Ottumwa and Albia, and the general improvement of the highway to be used for the proposed route.

Road is Excellent. The party of Ottumwas left here yesterday morning about 10 o'clock and were joined outside the city by the eight Blakesburg cars filled with boosters. The combined party then proceeded to Blakesburg where a stop was made and thence on to Albia via the Blakesburg-Albia road. This route took the autoists alongside the great Bradley Bros. farm of 3,000 acres west of some of the richest and most valuable land in the state.

To Meet November 10. Arriving at Albia, the party took dinner at the New Monroe and gathered before the court house, posed for a few minutes while staff photographer of the party, Postmaster Frank Nimocks, officiated at the camera. Another group picture of the party was taken at Blakesburg. Returning, the caravan came by way of Eddyville, where enthusiasm among the people of the city and vicinity was aroused in favor of the good roads. Encouragement was met all along the line and upon reaching Ottumwa about 4:30, the party met in the rooms of the Commercial association and arranged for the meeting to be held in Blakesburg Thursday, November 10. The party comprised the following:

The Boosters. Ike Jones, Blakesburg. Walter Schoech, Ottumwa. R. F. D. W. Suttle, Ottumwa. R. F. D. Ed. Lames, Ottumwa. R. F. D. Charlie Harlen, Ottumwa. R. F. D. Lee Jones, Blakesburg. George Millard, Ottumwa. R. F. D.
