

THE NEW TREATMENT IN YOUR OWN HOME

High Frequency, X-Ray AND Violet Ray Treatment

Dr. Myerly was one of the first physicians in the state to use the X-Ray in the diagnosis and treatment of disease and his mammoth X-Ray and Static Electric machine, now in the Ottumwa office, was for many years the largest and most powerful X-Ray machine in the state. So powerful is this machine, he is able to make a photograph of the bones of any part of the body in a few seconds.

In addition to this apparatus he has JUST INSTALLED for the benefit of his patients one of the latest and largest portable High Frequency X-Ray and Violet Ray Collis. With this apparatus he is prepared to make X-Ray examinations, X-Ray photographs and to give X-Ray, Violet Ray and High Frequency treatments in your own home wherever the electric light current is available.

This treatment applies to every condition accompanied by PAIN and INFLAMMATION. It removes the result of inflammatory processes, improving nutrition and causing absorption of inflammatory products, and curing a multitude of ailments that can not be reached by direct medical application.

By these new modalities we are making quick and permanent cures in ovarian and pelvic diseases of women, rectal diseases, (piles, fissures, hemorrhoids), nervous diseases, chronic rheumatism, obstinate skin diseases, urticaria, headaches, neuritis, nervous and functional disease of men.

Free examination.

WEAVER BOLTS THE DEMOCRATS

REPUDES CLAUDE R. PORTER ON THE ISSUE OF PROHIBITION.

General James B. Weaver has bolted the democratic ticket and will not support Claude R. Porter.

He has written a letter in which he denounces the combination of the liquor interests and the democrats and appeals to all democrats to join him in repudiating their "effort to debauch Iowa."

General Weaver's letter follows: "Des Moines, Nov. 2, 1910.—Editor of the Register and Leader. Dear Sir: Mr. Porter's letter of May 11 published in the Democrat of Davenport settles beyond all question the fact that he had pledged himself to abide by any plank on the liquor question that the democratic convention would adopt.

"That left but one thing for the whiskey men to accomplish; that is the capture of the Ottumwa democratic convention. This they did.

"As a result, Mr. Porter now stands pledged over his own signature to carry out his platform.

"I cannot and will not support him, notwithstanding the fact that we have been lifelong friends.

"I ask every conscientious democrat in Iowa to so vote as to crush forever his attempt to debauch Iowa.

"Mr. Porter's letter came to my knowledge within the past twenty-four hours or I would have spoken sooner. I consider it my duty to let the people know how I stand in this critical period of public peril.

"Yours very truly,

"James B. Weaver."

AGED WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY

MRS. MARGARET D. RYDER, WELL KNOWN W. R. C. WORKER, ANSWERS SUMMONS.

Mrs. Margaret D. Ryder, one of the oldest residents of South Ottumwa, died suddenly at the home of Mrs. S. H. Sherman, 122 North Willard street, about 6 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Ryder was prominent in W. R. C. circles on the south side and had a wide acquaintance. She had been in ill health for some time. When Mrs. Sherman went to Mrs. Ryder's room this morning to call her, there was no answer, and entering the room she found the aged woman cold in death. It is thought that heart disease caused her sudden death.

Coroner A. W. Slaughter was called and after viewing the body and inquiring into the woman's health, came to the conclusion that no inquest was necessary to inquire into her death. The remains were removed to the C. T. Sullivan undertaking parlors.

The decedent was 77 years of age and is survived by one son, Earl A. Ryder of Oklahoma City. He has been notified of his mother's death and awaiting his arrival, no arrangements have been made for his funeral. Mrs. Ryder had been making her home for a number of years with Mrs. Sherman.

Falling in her attempt to arouse her husband, James Allen Ware, for his morning meal, and upon investigation to find him dead, was the sad experience of Mrs. Ware this morning at their home in Bear Creek. Her husband had died suddenly and although Coroner A. W. Slaughter was summoned, after an investigation it was decided not to hold an inquest. It is thought that Mr. Ware died from heart disease.

Before retiring last night Mr. Ware complained that he felt ill, but as he had been making similar complaints the members of the family thought nothing of the matter. When Mrs. Ware arose from bed this morning she did not summon her husband, who was sleeping by her side, but went into the kitchen and prepared his breakfast. She called him about 6:15 o'clock and when he failed to answer she went to his room and found him lying dead in bed. It is thought that he died during the morning hours as his body was still warm, although his feet and hands were cold. The undertaker was summoned and the coroner notified.

The deceased was 62 years of age, and was a coal miner. He had worked at the Phillips' mine at Rutledge for a number of years, and was the father of a large family. He was a hard working man and a quiet and peaceable citizen. Besides his wife, four sons, Walter, Edward and John Ware, at home and Frank Ware who lives on West Mill street, and three daughters, Mrs. Stella Fleeer, who lives in the West End, Mrs. Mary Leonard, 540 South Moore street, and Margaret Ellen Ware at home, survive him. Funeral announcement later.

Another convention is slated for Ottumwa this year, and although it is not due to meet until the very end of the year, it promises to bring to the city more than 100 men interested in sheep raising from all over the state. The Iowa State Sheep Breeders and Wool Growers' association has chosen December 20 as the date and Ottumwa as the place of the annual meeting of the organization. For the past few years this association has held its annual meetings in Ottumwa and this year promises a bigger gathering of the members than any previous convention. A number of able papers and talks on sheep and wool will be made at the convention and any person interested in the association and the objects of the organization that will have a paper to read before the convention or a topic to be discussed, is at liberty to send it to the Courier for publication or to the secretary, V. G. Warner of Bloomfield.

Mr. Warner is making the arrangements for the meeting and is planning to make the meeting in December the largest ever held by the association. The membership of the organization comes from all over the state, although most of the members reside in the southeastern part of Iowa. The sheep men have become a factor in recent years in Iowa and in the past few years have doubled their business in this state. A good market is afforded the sheep man both for wool and meat. Mr. Warner was an Ottumwa visitor yesterday.

Vinton Man MH by Car. Waterloo, Nov. 3.—(Special).—D. C. Lovejoy of Vinton, 60 years old had a miraculous escape from death last night when struck by a street car on the bridge spanning the Black Hawk creek. His right rib was fractured. He received three scalp wounds.
