ENGLISH GIRL TRAVELS ALONE

AFTER TWO WEEKS DETENTION AT ELLIS ISLAND CHILD REACHES DUBUQUE.

Dubuque, Nov. 9.—Fifteen-year-old Alice Brown, tired but happy, arrived here, having come all the way from Newcastle on Thames, Eng., to Dubuque alone.

She comes to make her home with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Cameron, 3130 Pine street, and reached here after having been detained for two weeks on Ellis Island by the immigration authorities, who stated that she was a year too young for entrance to the states.

Alice Brown is a pretty little thing, small and plump, with smiling blue eyes and a mass of golden hair. She was smiling when she stepped from the train at the station here, and the welcome given by her relatives, whom she had never seen, was a warm one. The child is remarkably bright and attractive, and she talked with interest and intelligence of her experience on Ellis Island, where she was held up with dozens of others, mostly Hungarians, she stated.

Little Miss Brown says that regardless of her first-unfavorable impression of America, she thinks she is going to like it very well. New York and Chicago mystified her tremendously, and she believes she will like Dubuque much better than either of them, because there isn't so much smoke here and not nearly so much noise.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron are greatly relieved to have the little traveler safe at her journey's end, and they expressed warm gratitude to those who assisted in the securing of her release from Ellis Island.

SEYMOUR.

The Womens' Home and Foreign Missionary society held its annual praise service at the church at 11 a. m. Sunday Nov. 6, 1910. The offering for Bert Shriver and wife and infant son came from Centerville Saturday to visit Mrs. Shriver's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lowry. Mr. Lowry has been very ill for a number of weeks.

Next Friday afternoon will be the second annual guest day of the Presbyterian Missionary society. The society will meet at the home of Mrs. Briggs at 2:30 p. m.

W. F. Press and V. C. Glasgow of Ottumwa have rented the Seymour skating rink.

There will be no prayer meeting held in any of the Seymour churches on Wednesday of this week as there will be a union meeting at the Baptist church, presided over by Dr. Powell, founder and organizer of the Knights of the Holy Grail. He will spend a week here in the interest of that order and that of the "Boy Scouts" which is already practically organized.
