

Reasonable Prices In Clothing Again

Tomorrow, Friday, November 18, a new clothing store will be opened to the public where clothing can again be bought at reasonable prices...

People are not buying fashions when they buy clothes and should not be expected to pay a profit on the fixtures and clothing both.

S. L. Graham, the old clothing price wrecker, will "be on the job."

He knows how to buy clothing as well as how to sell it. He believes that low prices will sell the goods, and intends to make lower prices than over-capitalized firms can afford to make.

The store is located on Market street, between Main and Second streets—108 Market street.

Here's your suit or overcoat tailored to order. $15 Stern & Stern New Era Tailors 129 East Second street.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR ON CHRISTMAS

GRAND COMMANDER OF IOWA ASKS OBSERVANCE IN CONFORMITY WITH SENTIMENT.

Mr. Pleasant, Nov. 15.—J. W. Edwards, grand commander of the Knights Templar, has issued a circular letter which contains the beautiful sentiment of the Knights Templar organization relative to the Christmas time, that demonstrates an approving thoughtfulness not only for the members but for others as well.

The following is the response of the grand master: "The sentiment proposed is unconditionally in line with what has been in my mind for weeks. While it is true, that, with most of us the spirit of Christmas broods and sings of happy, hopeful, helpful things, all for you and me; it is also true there are thousands who are needy and whose necessities appeal to us, and some of these are undoubtedly those left near and dear to our departed fraters."

"I call upon each grand commander to ask each commandery in his jurisdiction to make notable the 1910 celebration of the birth of Him who is our great exemplar by the giving, as a commandery, or by voluntary contributions collected by each commandery of its individual knights, of a special offering of thankfulness and love, in the spirit of the master, to the destitute widows and helpless orphans of departed fraters, or Masonic homes, children's homes or to any charitable organization that reaches the helpless poor at Christmas time."

"If my beloved fraters will but do this, I will appreciate their compliance with the spirit of the toast proposed to me as grand master much more than any personal compliment shown me by letter, message or telegram."

"Our thoughts will go out at the happy Christmas time to each Templar in the land, wishing him joy in all his deeds and days, wishing him time for the task, wisdom for the work, peace for the pathway, friends for the fire-side and love to the last."

The grand commander of Iowa has expressed the desire that each commandery of the jurisdiction convene his commandery in its asylum on Monday, December 26, at 11 o'clock, and participate in this sentiment expressed and also extend to all Sir Knights sojourning in the jurisdiction a knightly and courteous invitation to participate in same.

FT. DODGE GETS OATMEAL MILL

GREAT WESTERN CEREAL COMPANY DISCONTINUES MUSCATINE PLANT.

Muscataine, Nov. 15.—The Muscatine branch of the Great Western Cereal company is to be abandoned for the present, according to information received by the local manager J. R. Reuling, from the head offices at Chicago, Ill.

That the company really intends to abandon the Muscatine institution is verified by the action of the head office in asking for the resignation of Mr. Reuling.

The death knell of the local factory was sounded when it was decided to establish the corn meal department at the Fort Dodge plant rather than at Muscatine. Officials of the company visited Muscatine some time ago and when here practically stated that the new department would be established in Muscatine, but later advices contained the intelligence that Fort Dodge would get the plant. The company has contended that it is not possible to develop the business fast enough to keep all mills running and hence the drastic action just taken in regard to the Muscatine plant. The abandonment of the oat meal mill will mean the passing of one of Muscatine's oldest present day industrial institutions. For almost a third of a century the plant has been in operation and J. R. Reuling has been with the company for a quarter of a century and for many years it was considered one of the really big factories of the town. The plant was formerly controlled by the Muscatine Oat Meal company but in 1901 the local company merged with many others and formed the Great Western Cereal company, and since that time the local plant has not been operated regularly.

The Muscatine plant is favorably situated geographically and the shipping facilities are good, and with the good machinery still in place it is possible that at some future date the plant will again resume operations, but that is very uncertain at present, and not considered likely.

DEATHS.

CLEVETT—Tuesday, November 15, 1910, at 12:40 p. m., at the family residence, 220 South Willard street, Edith M. Clevett, wife of Wallace Clevett, and her infant child. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

With Judge M. A. Roberts presiding the November term of the district court convened here Monday afternoon. The grand jury reported this morning and immediately went to work, but their session is not expected to result in any sensational indictments. The term will last only three weeks and few important cases will be tried. The term will probably be busy, however, because of the amount of business left over from the September term. Judge Roberts devoted yesterday term to the assignment of cases. The court sentenced W. G. Robison, former manager of the Lockridge Lumber company, a branch of the United Lumber company, to five years in the penitentiary for embezzlement. Robison was arraigned Monday afternoon and entered a plea of guilty. He stated that he did not desire an attorney and desired that sentence be passed at once. Both J. P. Starr, attorney for the lumber company, and County Attorney Hugin asked the court for leniency because of the youth of the defendant and because his wife and children are dependent upon him. It is probable that a parole can be secured for Robison.

Miss Mas E. Halferty of Birmingham and Fay W. Riggs of Libertyville were quietly married Saturday evening at the Methodist parsonage by the pastor, Rev. Thomas Osborn. After spending a few days in Fairfield the young couple will go to a farm near Libertyville on which they will reside. Both Mr. and Mrs. Riggs are well known in the county. Mr. Riggs is a prosperous young farmer, while his bride formerly lived in Fairfield, where she was very popular. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Halferty of Birmingham.

Two revivals are in progress in Fairfield and a third will be begun Sunday. At the Presbyterian church Rev. Frank S. Arnold, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Kansas City, Mo., is assisting the pastor, Rev. W. W. Montgomery, in the evangelistic services. The meetings began a week ago and will continue through this week. At the Free Methodist church the pastor, Rev. F. M. Smith, began gospel services Sunday evening. He will be assisted by Miss Marguerite Barnes of Greenville, Ill. These meetings will continue through next week. Next Sunday Rev. Thomas Osborn of the First Methodist church begins evangelistic meetings.

By an agreement recently entered into by the Jefferson County Telephone company, the former leases the Bell company's business and Fairfield toll bus lines. As soon as connections can be made, the Iowa offices here will be closed and everything operated from the home company's office. The lease is for five years. The change will be a benefit to subscribers of the Jefferson county company, for the two lines were practically non-competing, the Fairfield company having nearly all the local business and the Bell company the toll business. The new arrangement will give subscribers of the home company toll connections without going to the Bell office.
