CHARITON.

The members of the Grand Army and the Women's Relief Corps went to the home of L. F. Maple on Thursday evening and gave him a pleasant surprise. Delicious refreshments were served and some time was spent in social conversations. Mr. Maple returned but a few days ago from an absence of several months in Texas and New Mexico. The funeral services of Donavon Arlie Willoughby, son of Cyrus Willoughby of English township, who died on Wednesday after a brief illness, were held at the Central Christian church yesterday forenoon at 11 o'clock, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Brownlee cemetery. The little one was 7 years of age, and was born on November 24, 1904. His mother died just two months ago. The sorrowing relatives will have the sympathy of many friends in their grief. Miss Maude Lenhart departed yesterday morning for Salt Lake City, Utah, where she has accepted a position in a telephone exchange. She expected to visit relatives in Colorado enroute. Mr. and Mrs. John Foulks and two children of near Russell left yesterday for Denver, Colo., where they expect to reside in the future. A number of young people enjoyed a dance at the Pythian temple on Thursday evening. L. G. Harrison of Minneapolis a former resident of this city, was greeting old Chariton friends yesterday. Rev. S. C. Franzen, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, left last evening for St. Louis to attend a church conference. He expects to be absent two weeks.
