Washington, D. C., July 9.—Two of the congressmen who are particularly bitter at each other are Representatives William E. Humphrey, republican of Washington, and J. Thomas Hefflin, democrat of Alabama.

Mr. Humphrey is the man who was characterized by Mr. Hefflin on the floor of the house recently as "a calamity howler" and "the chairman of the committee on distress."

WARBURG TO LEAVE HIS NAME ON LIST

RECONSIDERS WITHDRAWAL IF HE DOES NOT HAVE TO APPEAR BEFORE COMMITTEE.

Washington, D. C., July 9.—Paul Warburg, the New York banker, has reconsidered his request that President Wilson withdraw his nomination as a member of the federal reserve board on the condition that he will not consent to appear before the senate banking committee to be cross examined.

After receipt of a telegram from Mr. Warburg today, it was said by officials close to the president that an active fight would be made for the confirmation.

It was declared that should the banking committee fail to report the nomination favorably, the president expects the senate as a whole to act.

Mr. Warburg's telegram to the president was not given out but after its receipt officials at the white house said the name would not be withdrawn.

That followed a visit by Senators Thomas and Shafroth to the white house. They are understood to have told the president that only a very few democrats would oppose Mr. Warburg's confirmation.

The situation as to the nomination of Thomas D. Jones of Chicago, remained unchanged, and it was said at the white house that the president would continue to press for his confirmation.

Dinner Stories

The incident of dinner stories is referred to as a dinner story when Senator George Sutherland of Utah was reminded of an incident along that line.

Some time ago, the senator said, a pretty little baby girl arrived at a happy suburban home and immediately the entire family, including aunts, cousins and mothers-in-law, were busy selecting an appropriate name.

"Harry," joyously cried mother, when the old man returned home one evening, "I have decided on a name for the baby. We will call her Gwendolyn."

For a moment father did a hard piece of thinking. The name Gwendolyn sounded to him like a fire whistle out of tune, but he knew better than openly to oppose mother.

Therefore a grey fox, "Gwendolyn," he musingly replied, "I like that a whole lot, dear. Long before I met you I had a girl named Gwendolyn and she—"
