GRINNELL COLLEGE WILL GET REVENGE

Grinnell, Oct. 6.—Smarter under their defeat by Leander Clark Saturday, the Grinnell team turned out for practice Monday determined to leave nothing undone that will help them to retrieve their laurels next Saturday when they meet Drake at Des Moines. Coach Fisher is giving the squad thorough drill in interference, as he is not yet quite satisfied with their work in this department, and is working hard to perfect the line, which showed some ragged work in the Leander Clark game.

Joe Greenwood, a former star line man, is considering returning to Grinnell. It is not yet known whether he will get into the Drake game, but he will make a powerful addition to the team, and should prove a tower of strength in the later games.

CLARK VAN NOSTRAND DIES IN THE WEST

Fairfield, Oct. 7.—Clark Van Nostrand, one of the original charter members of the Christian church of this city, passed away Tuesday morning at the home of his son, Andrew Van Nostrand in Monte Vista, Colorado where he had gone for a several months' visit. Relatives and friends here were shocked to learn of his death for although he had not been well for sometime his last illness was only of ten days' duration.

Mr. Van Nostrand was born in Ashland county, Ohio on January 12, 1831 and there spent his youthful days. On October 3, 1850 he came with his parents to Iowa and Jefferson county having started in a wagon to make the journey on September 9. His early life was spent on a farm but he also learned the cooper's trade, at which he made many an odd dollar.

Mr. Van Nostrand was twice married, his first wife being Miss Sarah Whiting and to them seven children were born, but two of them are yet living. The sons, Andrew of Monte Vista, Colo., and Lewis of this city. Mr. Van Nostrand was again married about four years ago and his wife passed away over a year ago.

Mr. Van Nostrand and family were life long members of the Christian church and he and the first Mrs. Van Nostrand were charter members of the local church, it being organized of a few persons in a log cabin. He was instrumental in the erection of the first church here of that denomination and all his life took a great interest in its welfare. About seven years ago Mr. Van Nostrand erected a handsome parsonage to the church and presented it to the officers of the church as a memorial to himself and family. In his earlier life he gave liberally of his means to Drake university of Des Moines and Penn college at Oskaloosa.

The remains will arrive in Fairfield Thursday afternoon and will be taken to the home of his son, Lewis on West Broadway. The funeral arrangements will be made later.

MANY VETERANS HERE FOR REUNION

MEMBERS OF HORNET'S NEST BRIGADE ARRIVE IN CITY FOR BIG MEETING.

COL. PALMER HERE

Grand Commander of G. A. R. of the United States Comes From His Home in Washington—Campfire Tonight.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM.

Reville. Called to order—President Samuel Mahon. Prayer—Asa Turner, 8th Iowa. Music. Address of welcome—President Samuel Mahon. Address of welcome in behalf of soldiers—Comrade H. L. Waterman. Response—E. B. Soper. Music—Harry H. Green for the brigade. Address—D. J. Palmer, 8th Iowa. Address—W. A. Duckworth, 2nd Iowa. Music. Address—J. W. Akers, 7th Iowa. Music. Address—Sam B. Watson, son of Dan Watson, 14th Iowa. Music. Address—Harvey Smith, 12th Iowa. Martial band composed of old soldiers will give the veterans some of the old time music which will quicken the blood of the boys of the sixties.

Veterans of the civil war who are members of the Hornet's Nest Brigade, consisting of the 2nd, 7th, 8th, 12th and 14th regiments of Iowa infantry, have been arriving in Ottumwa since Tuesday afternoon to attend the big reunion which is in session here today, and lasting through Thursday. The principal gathering of the entire reunion will be tonight at the armory when the camp fire will be held and the above program carried out. Col. Palmer is in the city and will deliver one of the principal addresses of the evening.

The downtown merchants and patriotic citizens have decorated their places with the national colors and all the public buildings are flying the flag as an honor to the visiting veterans. Two large flags across Washington street at Main are serving as a welcome to the old soldiers as they alight from the trains at the union depot. A large banner with "Welcome Members of Hornet's Nest Brigade" stretches across the main entrance to the court house where some of the meetings are to be held in Cloutman post's quarters. The hornet nest is occupying a prominent place in all the decorations. Over the speakers' table at the armory a large one is hanging and a like one in the room at the court house. The latter one was found last Sunday afternoon by the county superintendent of school and by her loaned to the janitor of the building who placed it as a surprise to the old soldiers. From present indication of its being "alive" there may be more surprises in store.

Col. Palmer Arrives. Col. and Mrs. D. J. Palmer of Washington, arrived over the Milwaukee from their home this morning at 10:15. They were met by the entire delegation marching by twos and lead by a well equipped fife and drum corps. The guests of honor were taken to their hotel in a flag covered car escorted by the veterans who were out to welcome and to do honor to Col. Palmer who is the newly elected grand commander of the G. A. R. of the United States.

The armory and the hotels where the veterans are staying have been the scenes of many an interesting reunion and the telling of reminiscences tales all day long. As the comrades greeted each other some after a separation of a number of years, on-lookers were glad of having the opportunity of witnessing such a wholesome sight. Registration, which was scheduled for completion this noon, was held over through the afternoon, as there were several who, on account of train delays did not arrive until this afternoon.

Thursday's program will be devoted to the regimental and business meetings. These will begin at 10 o'clock and the 8th, 12th and 14th will be held in the armory and not in the opera house as was first announced in the programs while those of the 2nd and 7th will be in session in the Cloutman post G. A. R., room on the first floor of the court house.

CLEVE WEIDNER COMMITS SUICIDE

WHILE GRAND JURY WAS INVESTIGATING KEOKUK CO. MAN TAKES OWN LIFE.

Sigourney, Oct. 7.—Cleve Weidner committed suicide Tuesday afternoon about 5 o'clock at the home of his sister, Mrs. Rudolph Polke, on North Jefferson street. Mr. Weidner when found had a revolver clutched in his hand and a bullet hole in his right temple. Life was extinct. Weidner had been about the home of his sister and suddenly disappeared. Upon investigation, he was found in a room dead.

Cleve Weidner about last July got into an altercation with Mrs. Lamb in the Lamb restaurant on the north side of the square in which several shots were fired and Mrs. Lamb was slightly wounded. Later in the night Mr. Weidner was found at his home with his throat cut and bleeding profusely and it was thought he could not live. However, he recovered and afterwards was arrested and charged with assault with intent to kill.

As soon as the grand jury was empaneled Tuesday his case was at once taken up by that body and the investigation was about completed when the word came that the defendant was dead. He was about 30 years of age and unmarried.

JUDGING OF STOCK IS NOW COMPLETED

PROF. HOWARD BARKER FINISHES WORK AT EXPOSITION JUST CLOSED.

IN GRAND PARADE

As Climax to Evening's Session Cattle, Sheep, Horses, Ponies and Goats Are Exhibited at Show.

Prof. Howard Barker of Ames who has been acting as judge at the Wapello county live stock show finished his work this noon and the show will officially close this evening. This afternoon several of the exhibitors have been taking out their entries and all will be gone by tonight. This, the initial holding of such exposition, has been very successful from every standpoint and those in charge are confident that such a gathering will be held every year.

The crowds have been large at every gathering and exhibitors have all been well pleased with the impartial judging of Prof. Barker. All afternoon and evening Tuesday, he was busy with his work and while examining the cattle and horses in an effort to place the correct percentage on them he was followed about the pavilion by a large gallery of interested spectators. In the evening the lecture as scheduled was more given as the judging took much more time than had been expected. All this work was done directly in front of the seating space near the center of the barn. This allowed the judge to be in full view of the audience while at his work. As each class was listed he gave a short talk explaining the different features of the animals and why some of them were given first listing while others only received honorable mention. The music by the orchestra which was stationed at the rear of the pavilion was greatly enjoyed; playing during the entire evening intermittently with Prof. Barker's talks. As a fitting climax to the evening's entertainment a grand parade of all of the stock on exhibition was made around the pavilion passing in front of everyone. Horses, colts, cattle, shagland ponies, and goats made up the procession, and it was pronounced a splendid success by the 400 people in attendance.
