SPENCER COOPER, : : : EDITOR.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.:
WEDNESDAY,.....MAY 27, 1885.

[Entered at the Hazel Green postoffice as second-class mail matter.]

THE HERALD is read by over a thousand people every week, and its circulation is increasing with each issue it is, therefore, THE BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM in Eastern Kentucky, and the rates are only about half those charged by others, which as local family newspapers, do not compare with THE HERALD.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce D. S. GODSEY as a candidate for representative from the district composed of the counties of Montgomery, Menifee, Powell and Wolfe, subject to action of the democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Dr. F. M. THOMAS an independent republican candidate to represent the legislative district composed of Montgomery, Menifee, Powell and Wolfe counties.

We acknowledge an invitation from Prof. John Jay Dickey, of the Jackson high school, to be present at the closing exercises of that school.

If our farmers can but realize what is best for them, they will bring stock to Hazel Green on Wednesday the 10th day or June to sell. Our last sale was a success, and of course this will be a repetition of that success on a grander scale.

Victor Hugo, the great French poet and novelist, died in Paris, France, last Friday. His was truly a busy life, spent in a business way. His glory belonged to no party, but to all men, and France mourns his loss as she never before mourned the loss of man.

If there are any of the school children whom we have overlooked in our notice of the entertainment, they will please notify us before our next paper goes to press, because it is so hard to tell which is best where all are good, that we may have omitted of the best unthinking.

Andrew Johnson, the Bell county desperado, an account of whose hellishness we gave last week has, by the advice of Adjutant-General Castleman surrendered to the civil authorities. Bell county is like Rowan, torn by feuds and factions. While the citizens are, most of them, hospitable and excellent people, there is a vicious and turbulent element who are constantly keeping things in hot water.

Mt. Sterling Gazette: THE HERALD wants a bank with a capital of $75,000 at Hazel Green. Our friend Cooper must be getting flush. Send your money to us, Spencer, we have just bought a new safe and want something to go in it. We want to take a trip to Canada, anyhow.

No, no; that's not it. But we did think that if we had a bank here we might borrow something. Use your influence, therefore, and get one started up here.

Sentinel-Democrat: Now Spencer, dear, go work your feet and take a dose of "liver medicine" and let's agree that we will "no farther seek his merits to disclose, Or draw his faults from their dread shade." We have soaked them, Capt. Tom, and now we advise the city council of your place to quarantine your own cow-hide spoliars, provided that body can find in the sacred precincts of Mt. Sterling a lot sufficient to enclose them. We do not want cholera to visit Mt. Sterling this summer, and her premises should be disinfected.

Do not forget that two weeks from today is the day set apart for our next stock sale, and be certain to be here. We hear that several men from distant parts of the country will be present, and it will certainly be a day long to be remembered in Hazel Green. If you would see the biggest crowd ever assembled in the mountains, and the largest number of stock ever seen in Eastern Kentucky, be certain to be here that day. Do not be deceived by any one who is false enough to try and deter you from coming, but come and see for yourself.

A fire in Sullivan's printing office in Cincinnati last Thursday, caused the death of 17 persons. It was thought that only 5 women who jumped from the fifth story window were killed, but when the fire was subdued the firemen could enter, it was found that 10 dead bodies lay in a heap on the fifth floor and one on the fourth floor. There were 6 who jumped from the windows and were killed, and a man, after saving the lives of 2 women by letting a rope from the roof, was himself killed by the burning of the same rope before he reached the ground. This was Mr. Sullivan, brother of the proprietor of the printing works. The fire originated by the explosion of a gas-line stove on the second floor. The flames entered the elevator chute which is next to the stairway, and all chance of escape was thus cut off.

HAZEL GREEN HIGH SCHOOL.

The Commencement Exercises, Thursday and Friday Nights, May 21 and 22.

The commencement exercises of Hazel Green high school began on Thursday night of last week. A large number of people from a distance were in attendance, besides the friends and patrons in the immediate neighborhood of Hazel Green. Throughout the two nights' entertainment every scholar evidenced the excellent tutorage under which they had been for the last ten months. Prof. Hays has shown himself a superior teacher, and as such should, if possible, be retained for another year. In fact, words are inadequate to express what he has done for many of the scholars in attendance. We had pointed out to us young men who, two years ago, scarcely knew the multiplication table, that have, under his able management, mastered higher algebra, first course in latin, first years course in German, and have passed the examination highly satisfactory to Rev. E. P. Mickel, who was selected as a disinterested examiner.

In fact, many instances of a like character were pointed out, when the child as late as ten months ago did not know a letter of the alphabet, who on this occasion came before the audience which well studied recitations, and delivered them in a manner that would put to blush older scholars in other schools. His system is a rigid one, but certainly a successful one, as there is nothing so like success as success, and he has certainly made a success of this school and all the scholars. THE HERALD aims to work for the best interest of her readers in all things, and in view of the fact, respectfully suggests to the school patrons that if Prof. Hays is allowed to seek another field of employment his like will be hard to find. Below we give the programme for the first night's entertainment, which was opened with the LORD'S prayer by little Annie Patrick eight years of age.

THURSDAY NIGHT.

Duet, "Three Bell Polkas," Miss Lucinda Kash and Mrs. Hays.
The Hours, class.
Song, Come Birdie, Come, Mrs. Nickell, Susie Ladd, J. M. Lytle and James Swango.
Temperance Play, Class.
Recitation, "The graves of the Presidents," Carl Mize.
Song, "Peek-a-Boo," Esther Wilson.
The Rainbow, class.
Johnny Schmokey, class.
Recitations—The Existence of a God, Chas. Hieronymus; Reverence for Our Native Land, Robt. Greenwade; Evening at the Farm, James Swango; Dangers of Our Prosperity, Charlie Swango.
Song, "Some Day I'll Wander Back Again," Harry Deane, George H. McClain, Misses Lue Godsey and Lucinda Kash.
Drama—THE TURN OF THE TIDE.
Jonas Aldrich (a fisherman).....Miles Lytle
Capt. Hugh St. Morris.....James Swango
Col. Ellsworth.....Jasper A. Cox
Herman Clyde.....Kelly B. Day
Bowie-knife Jack.....Willie Swango
Singshot Babe.....Willie Murphy
Pepper (a colored individual).....Henry Godsey
Aunt Rebecca Aldrich.....Mrs. Mary Nickell
Susie Aldrich (the ocean waif).....Susie Ladd
Lillian Lacy (Clyde's deserted wife).....Lon Gilmore
"Frisky".....Belle Adams
Duet, "Mountain Schottische," Lucinda Kash and James Swango.

In the above play each and every one played their parts well, but without disparagement to any one we must say that for amateurs Mrs. Nickell, Henry Godsey, Misses Lou Gilmore and Belle Adams exhibited more than ordinary talent in their respective parts.

Farce—Thirty Minutes for Refreshments.
John Downley (a bachelor).....Jas. Swango
Clarence Pitts (his colored servant).....Henry L. Godsey
John Foxton.....John Amyx
Major Pepper, U. S. A.....Chas. Hieronymus
Mrs. Foxton.....Mrs. Mary Nickell
Miss Arabella Pepper (a maiden lady).....Susie Ladd
Polly (waiting maid at Highland Station).....Sallie Gourley

FRIDAY NIGHT.

The second night's entertainment consisted of compositions by the ladies and speeches by the gentlemen, interspersed with songs, one of which was "Old Sign," in which Miss Sue Godsey, a graceful young lady and a good singer, of Hazel Green, took part, struck us as being peculiarly sweet.

Song, O Restless Sea, Misses Lucinda Kash, Belle Adams and Mr. J. Miles Lytle.
The Building and Ruling of the Republic, L. J. Profit, Hazel Green, Ky.
The World in which we live, Miss Willie S. Ladd, West Liberty, Ky.
Song, Walking down Broadway, Miss Belle Adams.
The Changes of Time, W. B. Swango, Stillwater, Ky.
The Pilgrims, Miss Sallie Gourley, Beattyville, Ky.
Song, The Old Inn Sign, Miss Sue Godsey, Mrs. Mary Nickell, and Messrs. H. F. Deane and James Swango.
Passing Away, Kelly B. Day, Hazel Green, Ky.
Kentucky's Illustrious Dead, H. F. Deane, Lexington, Ky.
Solree Polka, Mrs. Hays and James Swango.
The Mountains, J. A. Cox, Hazel Green, Ky.
Boys, Miss Belle Adams, Hazel Green Ky.
Song, The Bell Gips Ringing for Sarah, Miss Belle Adams.
Idleness and Ignorance, J. M. Lytle, Gilmore, Ky.
My Present, Past and Future, Miss Lou Gilmore, Hazel Green.
Song, Little Chlow, Mrs. Mary Nickell, Miss Belle Adams, James Swango and J. Miles Lytle.
Luck and Labor, W. Murphy, Mize, Ky.
The Journey of Life, G. W. Haney, Caney creek.
Song, Behind the Parlor Door, J. Miles Lytle.
The March of Intellect, John S. Amyx, Hazel Green.
Little Things, Mrs. Mary Nickell, Ezel.
Farewell song, class.

NOTES.

The advanced class, composed of the following members, Mrs. Nickell, Miss Willie Ladd, Miss Belle Adams, Miss Lou Gilmore, J. A. Cox, Miles Lytle, K. B. Day, H. F. Deane, Willie Murphy, John Amyx, Willie Swango, I. G. Profit, Charles Hieronymus and G. W. Haney, stood at an average of 95, 100 being perfect, in algebra, grammar, history and physiology.

I. G. Profit and G. W. Haney prepared their speeches in toto, while the other young gentlemen had more or less assistance from Prof. Hays. Jasper A. Cox and John S. Amyx deserve great credit for the progress they have made in the two years, and to a looker on in Venice, Charley Hieronymus made about as good a recitation as any of the boys against him.

The medals were awarded upon the recommendation of Rev. E. P. Mickel, who was in every way considered a disinterested judge. He heard the examination of each of the recipients—in fact of all the scholars—and was, therefore, more capable of judging the merits of each than an outsider. More especially was this the case owing to his scholarly attainments.

Those who failed to receive medals should persevere. We do not remember to have received any thing of the kind while we went to school, except perhaps a "handed" us with a ferule, and now look at us—a country editor with barrels of money—to get, with which to pay what we owe.

To those not receiving medals, it is but just to say, as Prof. Hays so aptly remarked on this occasion, that those receiving medals may never be heard of again, while if you persevere you may come to the front in the busy walks of life, head and shoulders above those who have beaten you in the race for a trophy.

Carl Mize, only 9 years of age and 2 years younger than any one in his classes, stood first in general examination, in punctuality and deportment. On general examination there was only one-half per cent. in his favor over Willie Day, 11 years of age, hence both were awarded medals.

The best composition in our humble opinion, and with due deference to the feelings and opinions of all others, was prepared and read by Miss Lou Gilmore, of Hazel Green.

Lillie Day during the 10 months' session only missed eight words in her spelling lesson, and she was closely crowded by several others who only missed 10 and 12 words.

In the German class the percentage was Mrs. Nickell 97, Charlie Swango 97, Harry Deane 97, James Swango 100.

The Latin class stood: Mrs. Nickell 91, Miss Willie Ladd 90, K. B. Day 92, H. F. Deane 93.

Miss Sallie Gourley did not read her composition owing to ill health.

The following, by 13 of the children was one of the best things of the first night, and was loudly applauded by the audience. By-the-way, and with due respect to the older scholars, the children deserved as much praise, one and all, as any one concerned in the first night's performance. In addition to the following they performed the character song Johnny Schmokey as well as we have ever seen it performed on the stage. Little Esther Wilson not quite eight years of age sang the character song "Peek-a-Boo" to the delight of the audience.

"SIGN THE PLEDGE."

Anna Patrick:
S—e the little ones are coming
Forward in the temperance fight;
Hear our little voices pleading,
Oh! give up the drink to-night.
Willie Day:
I—n our songs and recitations
This grand end we have in view,
We ourselves are staunch abstainers;
Such we want to make you, too.
Esther Wilson:
G—oing on as we stand here,
S—e you not for our sakes banish
Which of us would you be willing
In the drunkard's ranks to see?
James Day:
"N—one!" we think we hear you saying;
E—e very drunkard that there, dear!
If we follow you to the banquet
Will you shun or like the beer?

Louie Day:

T—reading in your footsteps shall we
Sober, temperate, happy grow?
Will you not for our sakes banish
That which causes sin and woe?
Carl Mize:
H—arken how the widows' wailings,
How the orphans' cries ascend!
Drink-made widows, drink-made orphans,
Will you still the drink defend?
Etta Swango:
E—arrestly your children ask you,
Join our noble temperance band!
Help to chase the fearful monster
From our devoted land.

Clarence Day:

P—ut your names to our grand pledge-roll!
Vow you'll never taste again
That which fills sad hearts with anguish,
Homes with weeping, graves with slain.
Nannie Greenwade:
L—et our pleadings be successful
As we earnestly beseech
All who hear us to consider
The great lesson we would teach.

Mortie Swango:

E—e very drunkard that he pity
As we meet him in the street
Once, like us, was young and happy
Till sin snared his heedless feet.
Lillie Day:
D—readful truth he did as you—
Money is what I want, and I will give
Drunk at first in moderation,
Till he knew not where to stop.
Bertha Childers:
G—od save us from ever tasting!
God help you, dear friends, to see
That alcohol is an abstinence
There can total safety be.

Minnie Day:

E—ach has brought her letter with her,
Head, oh! heed these words of light,
Drink with us heaven's sparkling water,
All—
Sign, oh sign the pledge to-night.
At the end of the recitation Clarence Day called for signers, and while the class sang "Sign To-night," Charlie Swango, personating an old drunkard, came forward and signed the pledge. After making a short speech on the tyranny of "alcohol," he was admitted into the band. The class then congratulated him, all singing "Real temperance boys and girls."

HE GOT THERE, ELI.

The District Convention at Frenchburg Give Mr. Godsey an Unanimous Nomination as Our Representative.

The district convention, pursuant to a call for the purpose of selecting a democratic candidate to represent the legislative district composed of the counties of Menifee, Montgomery, Powell and Wolfe in the next general assembly, met in the court house at Frenchburg on the 22nd day of May 1885. J. M. Oliver, chairman of the Menifee county democratic committee, called the meeting to order at 1 o'clock p. m., and in a brief manner stated the object of, and congratulated the assemblage on the indications of harmony about to prevail.

I. W. Mape moved that J. M. Oliver be made temporary chairman; no other nominations being made the question was put and prevailed. J. J. Byrne was elected temporary secretary. On motion of J. H. Williams, amended and seconded by I. W. Mape, the chair appointed J. H. Williams, J. M. Kash, I. W. Mape, John C. Day and M. A. Phillips as a committee on organization, credentials and resolutions, who having retired and acted reported as follows:

Resolved, That the temporary organization of this convention be made permanent.

Resolved, That I. W. Mape, of Powell county, J. M. Kash, of Wolfe county, J. J. Byrne, Shelby Kash, M. A. Phillips and J. C. Day, of Menifee county, be accredited delegates to this convention, no representative being present from Montgomery county.

Resolved, That we approve of the time and place of holding this convention; which proceedings were read and unanimously adopted. The chair then declared nominations to be in order, whereupon J. M. Kash, in an elegant manner placed the name of Hon. D. S. Godsey, of Wolfe, before the convention, which nomination, in a happy and felicitous manner, was ably seconded by I. W. Mape and J. H. Williams. No other nominations being made, on motion the call of the counties was dispensed with and Hon. D. S. Godsey was unanimously declared the choice of the convention, and, he being notified, appeared in the convention and in a feeling and impressive way pledged fealty to democratic principles, victory perched upon her banners, and gracefully accepted the trust confided to his care.

On motion it was resolved that the proceedings of this convention be published in THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD, Living Valley Recorder and Sentinel-Democrat.

J. M. OLIVER, Chairman.
J. J. BYRNE, Secretary.

John Patrick, a prominent merchant of Magoffin county, was in town yesterday, and purchased the handsome line of goods from J. T. & F. Day ever taken to that county. His store is at the mouth of Wheel-rim fork of Johnson.

Breen's liniment is pronounced by all who have used it to be the greatest remedy for rheumatism, sprains, cuts, bruises, etc. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

Swango Springs.

The Water of Life for Afflicted Humanity.

IRON IS KING.

These springs are located three-quarters of a mile from the beautiful town of Hazel Green. The water contains a larger percentage of iron than any other water known, hence it is the most valuable in the cure of disease—used internally or externally.

Among the many diseases which flesh is heir to, and for which this wonderful water is known to be a positive and permanent cure, are the following:

CONSTIPATION, DYSPEPSIA, SKIN DISEASES, SCROFULA, CATARRH, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, NERVOUSNESS, &c.

We append a few of the hundreds of testimonials which have been tendered as to the efficacy of this water in disease.

One lady writes: "I am so thankful to the Great Giver of all Blessings that I tried Swango Springs. Freely do I give all the time and money spent there for the health and strength I now enjoy."

A gentleman of Illinois says: "I think the water of Swango Springs did me more good than all the nostrums I have ever tried. I will certainly be with you again next spring."
