LOCAL NEWS.

Hon. W. O. Mize is attending Campion court this week.
Born—To the wife of Harmon Swango, on Saturday, Oct. 31st—a boy.
Judge G. B. Swango is attending court at Campion this week.
Enith, little daughter of Wm. Lusk, whose illness was reported last week, is improving.
The Misses Lullie and Lillie Day, of this place, are visiting their grand pa, J. G. Trimble, at Mt. Sterling.
Mrs. J. Taylor Day, of this place, left for Mt. Sterling yesterday to visit her father, J. G. Trimble, Esq., and family.
Mrs. R. J. Samuels, whose illness was reported last week, is still very low, and grave fears are entertained as to her recovery.
Claude T. Breen, the lightning-commercial drummer and live druggist, was in our town last week, and reported good sales all along the line.
Green Ward, of this place, last week handed us a magnificent winter apple, sent from Breathitt county, by him, as a specimen of his fruit.
Ben Samuels, a farmer near Flemingsburg, and a brother of Col. R. J. Samuels, was visiting his brother a few days since, but left for home yesterday.
Charlie Howe, the well-known and popular traveling man with Trimble Bros., Mt. Sterling, left here for West Liberty, on Friday last, hence home.

The high water in Johnson Creek prevented the mail to Salyersville from going through on Friday last. The mail rider reported a good rafting tide in both Johnson and Licking.
Anderson Rose, living with D. B. Ward, on Grassy, in Morgan county, who has been a sufferer from rheumatism for four weeks, is so far convalescing as to get about on crutches.
Thos. Ward, an old and highly respected citizen of Blackwater, in Morgan, died at the residence of his son, D. B. Ward, on Grassy, on Sunday, Oct. 25th, of bronchitis, aged 76 years.

THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD (weekly) and the Cincinnati Evening Post (daily) will both be furnished to parties in this section for $2.50 a year—7 papers a week, or $64 a year for $2.50. Subscribe now.
LIGHTNING RODS.—Five hundred dollars reward will be paid for any building struck by lightning that is rodless in a scientific manner with our rods.
W. P. STRAGGS & Co.

W. C. Taylor, of Harbit, sent us a twin "one of them things that is mighty good to eat," and which the Sentinel-Democrat, "Webster-on-a-Bridge" or no one else seems to know how to spell the name thereof.
About one month ago two yearling heifers—one red roan, one mostly black, came to my premises. Owner can get them by proving property and paying for this notice.
S. M. TYLER, Near Hazel Green.

Breen's Liniment removes knots and all enlargements on horses or other stock. No cure no pay. Sold by J. T. & F. DAY, Hazel Green, D. D. LANDSAW, Stillwater, CASSADY & ROBERTSON, Campion.
Mrs. S. E. Spradling has been appointed postmaster at Spradling, this county, vice B. N. Spradling and Harvey who heard to observe: "Well, you know me, I thought we'd best keep it in the family, you know."

Breen's Liniment is pronounced by all who have used it to be the greatest remedy for rheumatism, sprains, cuts, bruises, etc. Sold by J. T. & F. DAY, Hazel Green, D. D. LANDSAW, Stillwater, CASSADY & ROBERTSON, Campion.
W. B. Cardwell, Sheriff of Breathitt county, J. W. Noble and Dorse Bowman, deputy sheriffs, passed through here last Monday morning with three prisoners. Two of them, W. B. Counts, one year, for shooting his wife, and Ben. McIntosh, five years, for killing a woman, will be taken direct to the penitentiary. Daniel Little, the third prisoner, under sentence of 21 years for killing his brother-in-law, goes to jail at Mt. Sterling, pending an appeal.

Breen's Liniment is certainly the best combination of remedies for corns, neuralgic pains in the back and side, etc., ever produced.
J. T. & F. DAY, Hazel Green, D. D. LANDSAW, Stillwater, CASSADY & ROBERTSON, Campion.
J. T. and Floyd Day, and H. C. Herndon and wife, who have been attending the U. S. Court at Louisville, as witnesses in the Al. Little case, returned home last Monday morning. Ben. Wallace, the colored driver for Robinson & Jones, who brought the party home, turned the wagon over on Sunday night, through no fault of his, the night being very dark, and going to the horses' heads excitedly exclaimed: "Boss, boss, is dar any bars (bars) about here?"

Alf. Little on Trial at Louisville.

(Louisville Post, Oct. 31.)
The trial of Alf. Little, the celebrated mountaineer, whose exploits in the "old fuel" line have been excelled by his recent career as a pension shark, is on trial today in the Federal court before a good, intelligent jury. The preliminary steps in the trial were related in the Post last evening. This morning the testimony began. Alf. Little is a well-built, broad shouldered man, comfortably and neatly dressed, with heavy jaws and broad side-whiskers. Save for a pair of cold, brutal-looking eyes, he would pass as quite a good-looking man. He sits by the side of his attorney, Col. Sam McKee, constantly writing as if taking notes of the testimony for future use. Little by no means bears out in appearance his reputation as a desperado. While in custody here he has demeaned himself very quietly.

The way the case started out it looked as if it was going to last a year. Colonel R. M. Kelly, the pension agent, was the first witness placed on the witness stand, and the pensioner objected to all his nearly every question asked. The case thus dragged along wearily enough. Col. Kelly identified the pension vouchers in the case of Rachel McIntosh. The amount of the pension due the pensioner was $2,413.37. The checks, in last March, were sent to Hazel Green, until witness was informed that she had not received them. Witness then notified the banks in Eastern Kentucky to stop the checks.

The testimony in regard to the McIntosh case occupied the whole morning. The story is briefly that, by means of a forged order, Little obtained four checks for $2,413.37 due Mrs. McIntosh as pension money. Mrs. McIntosh herself testified that the pension claim purporting to be signed by her she had never signed. The names of the witnesses signed were Gross and Griffith. She said she had not seen these parties for a year, although the certificate bore date of last spring. An order was exhibited instructing the postmaster at Jackson to pay Mrs. McIntosh's pension to Alf. Little. Mrs. McIntosh said she had never written or signed any such order.

John Gross and James Griffith both testified that their names signed to the certificate in question were forgeries. H. C. Herndon, postmaster at Hazel Green, testified that he had turned over to Alf. Little mail from the pension office directed to Mrs. McIntosh. Little had presented an order seemingly signed by her.
Robert Trimble, a grocer of Mt. Sterling, testified that last spring Alf. Little had come to his store and ordered 3,500 pounds of groceries. He offered in payment checks from pension office in favor of Rachel McIntosh. Witness had gone to the bank and found there a notification from Col. Kelly to stop the payment of the very checks Little had exhibited. Little had wanted the change in cash, but witness declined to take the checks and gave them back to Little.

These are the principal points developed up to 2 p. m. At the present rate of progress the trial will last till next Thursday.
Evangelistic Work in Kentucky.
[Courier-Journal.]
The following is a summary of evangelistic work in Kentucky for the year ending October 20, as reported by the Rev. E. O. Guernant. It speaks well for the energy and liberality of Kentucky Presbyterians: New churches organized, 5; officers ordained and installed, 28; churches dedicated, 5; new churches built, 7; persons received into the church, 860; money raised to build churches, $5,243.50.
Summary for three years and nine months: Churches organized, 23; officers ordained, 96; churches built, 15; churches dedicated, 14; members received into the church, 2,707; money raised to build churches, $16,781.

Democratic County Meeting.
In pursuance to a call of the Chairman of the Democratic Committee of the 13th Judicial District of Kentucky, the Democrats of Wolfe county will meet in mass convention in the court-house in the town of Campion, on Thursday, November 21st, 1885, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Convention to be held at Hazel Green, on the 27th day of November, 1885, to nominate a candidate for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney of the 13th Judicial District, to be voted for at the August election, 1886.

Accident to an Attorney.
[Courier-Journal.]
Tuesday evening Mr. R. A. Hurst, a prominent young lawyer of Jackson, Breathitt county, Ky., fell to the pavement while passing the New Grand Theater and sustaining a fracture of the left leg, just above the knee. He was at once removed to private apartments at the City Hospital. Mr. Hurst is here attending the United States Court. He is a sufferer from rheumatism, and his fall was due to the effects of the disease. His brother was telegraphed for and will arrive to-day, when the patient will be taken to his home. The accident is a great setback to the victim, who has just entered upon a successful practice of his profession.

Call for a District Convention.
The Democratic committees of the counties composing the 13th Judicial District, have, with singular unanimity agreed to a call of a convention to meet at Hazel Green, on the 27th day of November 1885, at 12 o'clock M., to nominate a candidate for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney.
The committees of the several counties composing the district are requested to call conventions in their respective counties on Saturday the 21st day of November, to appoint delegates to the nominating convention at Hazel Green.
W. W. COX, Chairman District Committee.
Fun For The Gunners.
[Lexington Observer.]
THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD represents that partridges are as thick around his town as they used to be in the good old Children of Israel times when it rained quail on toast just before breakfast every day except Sunday, and he especially invites Lexington gunners to come out today and slay and eat. Begged as articles of diet, one of the old-fashioned partridge roasters of clay pigeons. For boarding house purposes clay pigeon does very well, but the partridge is more palatable and more digestible.

Sentinel-Democrat: Last Sunday the residence of Mike Kenney, in this county, was destroyed by fire. His outbuildings, coal-house and smoke-house, and their contents were also burned. The household effects were almost all destroyed. The residence was insured in the Phoenix of Hartford, for $1,000. Loss, $2,000. Miller & Wilson's Agency held the policy.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EASTERN KENTUCKY NEWS BY COUNTIES.

Reported by Special Correspondents from All Points in the Mountains.

WOLFE COUNTY.

STILLWATER, Oct. 28.—Died—Oct. 24, Wm. Rose, son of James Rose, on Trace Fork of Stillwater, after a protracted illness. He leaves a wife and three children, together with a host of friends to mourn their loss. He had been a member of the Baptist church for a short time.
Perry Taylor, who moved from your town, says he feels better since he came to Stillwater. He speaks well of the kind friends in Hazel Green.
The children of J. N. Chambers, who have been quite ill, are convalescing rapidly and are thought to be out of danger.
Born—To the wife of B. D. Rose, on Oct. 24th, a girl; to the wife of W. B. Rose, a boy.
Why don't your correspondent on Grassy write. We would like to hear from there.
Corn-busking is the profitable pastime now indulged by the farmers of this section.
W. H. Chambers has found his hogs, which were advertised in your last issue.
J. M. Rose has returned from the city, where he bought a nice lot of goods.
We love to get that newsy little paper called THE HERALD. USCLE DAVE.

GILLMORE, Ky., Oct. 25.—Well, Miss Garkey, Uncle Remus is James H. Vest, and if I have been rightly informed you are a daughter of R. F. C. If so, I went to school with your father at Mouth of Pounding Mills Branch. I have been living here for 15 years, have been postmaster for eight years at Gillmore, and recently executed bond for four years more. Please tell me in your next letter if I am right as to who you are?
We anticipate a wedding in this community before long, if there is any sign of a goose nest in seeing a gander stand on a log.
John Linden and his sister are visiting their relatives and friends on Beaver Creek, Floyd county.
Miles Linden accidentally cut his hand very badly on a knife in the hands of David J. Vest.
The health of the people in this neighborhood is generally good.
USCLE REMUS.

MORGAN COUNTY.

UPPER GRASSY, Oct. 31.—There was a Democratic primary election held today in every voting precinct in Morgan county. The excitement seemed very intense in this section. We learn of about three difficulties in this district. One occurred at Dick's (Glory), on the night before the election, between Boon Oldfield and a young Elm. Both, we are informed, drew revolvers, but were prevented from shooting. The other two happened on election day. This same Elm fired one shot at Thos. Nickell, who was driving a team on the road near the residence of Preston Wilson. Fortunately, the shot missed, and he was kept from firing again. About 3 o'clock P. M., a third affray took place between Richard M. Wilson and George Barker. Pistols were drawn, but by great effort of disinterested parties, matters were quieted without any violence being done. The trouble arose concerning the wife of Absolom Hughes. We understand that our faithful and competent Justice of the Peace, Moses Lacy, is going to see the boys about the affair. What brought about these troubles? We answer, King Alcohol, "the constant ally of all evil and the universal antagonist of all good." Some of our candidates (we don't know that all are guilty) flooded our community with brandy, which maddened men till they did not stop to consider whether an act was right or wrong. We appeal to you, parents, teachers, ministers, and all persons who are interested in the welfare of your country, and ask, is it not time for us to array ourselves against such a formidable foe? Remember that your son, whose prospects, hopes, purposes and resolves are as radiant as the rainbow, may be brought within the grasp of this demon and dragged down to ruin.

The following are names of officers and teachers of our Sunday-school: James W. Haney, of the Presbyterian Church, and "Squire Moses Lacy of the Christian Church, superintendents; Watson W. Phipps, of the Baptist Church, secretary; Ben. Blankenship, of the M. E. Church South, J. Z. Haney and Wm. Haney, of the Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Jane Long, of Baptist Church, and A. M. Goss, of the Christian Church, are teachers.
The Union Sunday-school of this vicinity has been making fine progress lately and it was adjourned for want of a stove. A stove has been purchased, and the school will be resumed at once.
Wm. Toliver's youngest child, Taylor Cleveland, is very sick.
Joseph M. Walter's health is improving.
SUSIEHINE.

MAYTOWN, Oct. 30.—R. A. Childers is talking of putting up a fine class ice house after tomorrow. He will need some of it to lay on the heads of some of our hot-headed candidates. Poor fellows, we pity them.
W. C. Daniel has gone to Mt. Sterling to run the engine in A. J. Rawlin's brick yard. We think Mr. Rawlin's very lucky in getting Walter, as he is a first-class engineer.
Miss Maggie Clifford is getting up a winter school at this place. We are proud that we have such an instructor as she is.
Mrs. Floyd Patrick, of Mt. Sterling, passed through here last Sunday en route to Hazel Green, to visit her mother.
James H. McGuire has just completed one of the best fruit houses we ever saw.
G. W. Cox, of Red River, is spending today with the people of Maytown.
Thos. K. Tutt and A. A. Kase, of the Calaboose, were in town today.
J. T. Sexton is attending the Court of Claims at West Liberty this week.
Melvin Richardson, of Montgomery, is in our midst, buying mule colts.

MENIFEE COUNTY.

FRENCHBURG, Oct. 30.—Prof. Joseph Catron had promised to present us a few bushels of sweet potatoes. We were somewhat disappointed to get only a few potatoes, but it took only a dozen or so to make a bushel. If the Professor succeeds as well in expanding the minds of his pupils, at Cornwell, as he does in raising big potatoes "he is a good one." Many thanks, friend Joe.

Swango Springs.
The Water of Life for Afflicted Humanity.
IRON IS KING.

These springs are located three-quarters of a mile from the beautiful town of Hazel Green. The water contains a larger percentage of iron than any other water known, hence it is the most valuable in the cure of disease—used internally or externally. Among the many diseases which flesh is heir to, and for which this wonderful water is known to be a positive and permanent cure, are the following: CONSTIPATION, DYSPEPSIA, SKIN DISEASES, SCROFULA, CATARRH, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, NERVOUSNESS, &c.
We append a few of the hundreds of testimonials which have been tendered as to the efficacy of this water in disease:
One lady writes: "I am so thankful to the Great Giver of all Blessings that I tried Swango Springs. Freely do I give all the time and money spent there for the health and strength I now enjoy."
A gentleman of Illinois says: "I think the water of Swango Springs did me more good than all the nostrums I have ever tried. I will certainly be with you again next spring."
