Born—To the wife of J. N. Vaughn, on the 13th inst., a girl. News says it is a Democrat.

A little child of Wm. Tolliver's, living near Daysborough, died last Monday of something like cholera infantum.

Alfred Combs is confined to his room with inflammation of the eyes, and unable to canvas this district, but requests the people to come and vote for him all the same.

A. T. Hackney, ex-County Clerk of Menifee county, died Wednesday last at F. en lb. He has been prostrated with consumption, of which he died, for some two years.

Rev. J. R. Kendall sold most of his furniture, &c., to the incoming minister, as he deemed it cheaper to purchase new at his home in Grant county than to remove the old to that place.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Caskey and child will be held at Rev. H. E. Little's on Gillmore Creek, on the first Sunday in October, at 11 o'clock a. m., by Revs. J. T. Pieratt and Rev. Morris Nickell.

Jim Davidson, who lives on Grassy, in this county, a few days since brought to this office four of the finest ears of corn we have ever seen. None were less than a foot in length, and one year measured three and three-quarter inches.

Rev. W. B. Cooper preached at the Presbyterian Church here last Sunday in evening, assisted in the services at the Methodist Church Sunday evening, and left for Lexington Monday morning, where he will spend two or three weeks with family and friends.

When you are constipated, with loss of appetite, headache, take one of Dr. J. H. McLean's Little Liver and Kidney Pills. They are pleasant to take and will cure you. 25 cents a box. Sold by G. B. Swango, Hazel Green, and J. N. Vaughn, Campton.

If you suffer from pain on moving the eyes, or cannot bear bright light, and find your sight weak and failing, you should promptly use Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Eye Salve, 25 cents a box. Sold by G. B. Swango, Hazel Green, and J. N. Vaughn, Campton.

Rev. W. T. Eklar, the minister who succeeds Rev. J. R. Kendall, was here last Saturday and Sunday, and on Sunday evening preached at the Methodist Church. He halts from Harrison county, and left on Monday to bring his family, who will occupy the parsonage next week.

Brother Zimmerman, of the Christian Church, has returned from another successful evangelizing tour in the mountains. He has given many additions to the church. He will preach at White Oak, next Saturday and Sunday, after which he will go to Magoffin.—Owingsville Outlook.

General regret is the expression of the people here at the departure of Rev. J. R. Kendall and family, and in the mountains. He has given many additions to the church. He will preach at White Oak, next Saturday and Sunday, after which he will go to Magoffin.—Owingsville Outlook.

J. O. Hall, the fine photographic artist who is taking pictures here at present, will only remain today and tomorrow as he has other engagements to fill. If you want a first-class picture, therefore, at a very low price, you should call upon him at once. He makes tin types, photographs &c., as well as much lower than city artists charge.

The new pastor for this circuit, Rev. J. R. Kendall, arrived last Saturday and preached Saturday evening and Sunday morning. His sermon Sunday morning was well delivered and was quite interesting, and we trust the good impression he made on his first appearance will increase, and that much good may result from his labors during the year. We received a letter from our old friend Spencer Cooper, editor of the HAZEL GREEN HERALD, in which he speaks of Rev. Kendall in the highest terms as a gentleman and a Christian. Corinth Enterprise.

A MYSTERY.

The following beautiful little poem is the production of Jimmie Brown, formerly chief clerk and dish-washer of the Day House, and milk-maid of the dairy.

This a mystery to me How friends will scatter And foes remain, And those without money Will beg you to lead, And promise to pay By the first of the week, But generally wait Till the snow and the sleet.

Court Day at Mt. Sterling.

There was about the usual crowd in town, but there was a little if any improvement in the market. J. W. Wilson, auctioneer, reports about 250 cattle on the market, which brought from 24 to 35 cents. Several yoke of oxen, but very few sold, and bringing from $55 to $80. A lot of extra broke mules selling from $100 to $150, with several left unsold. Others from $75 to $100. Only a tolerable lot of horses on the market, selling for about $80. Milch cows brought from $15 to $25. Very dull court.

Capt. Jack Stewart reports the following sales: 18 good, smooth 3-year-old cattle, weight 1,150 lbs., sold for $36.40 per head; 13 long yearlings, $22.25; 11 2-year-olds, $24.50 per head. Plug horses low, bringing from $25 to $30.

John M. Rose of Wolfe county, sold 71 two and three-year-old steers, realizing from 24 to 35 cents for them.

Judge Amos Davis, of Morgan county, sold 50 head of cattle. Oxen brought from $50 to $105 per yoke; 2-year-old heifers $120 per head; feeders $14.60; cows 24 cents, 50 hogs at 4 cents.

At John Keef's stable 25 horses were sold at prices ranging from $100 to $160. Mr. Keef bought 13 horses from $100 to $140. He reports trade good and prices better.

At D. S. Lockridge & Co.'s 30 horses brought from $75 to $185, and 25 broke mules from $100 to $150.

At Jones & Rattiff's "Enterprise" stable a good many horses changed hands at $60 to $160, mules brought $150.

Just after services at the Methodist Church last Sunday night, Rev. J. R. Kendall sang the hymn "The Lily of the Valley," being assisted by his wife and two brothers, thus demonstrating the love he felt for the people and his regret in parting from them. Bro. Murphy suggested that the congregation should manifest a like feeling towards Bro. Kendall and family, and while the congregation sang "Sweet Bye and Bye," all walked up and gave him and wife a parting shake of the hand, and many tearful eyes spoke the sentiment of the soul in the parting. It was a happy terminus to the trials of the year, and a handsome tribute to two deserving Christians. May they find friends in their new field equally fond of them as THE HERALD'S wish, which speaks for itself and its supporters.

Z. N. Lockhart, a horse trader from Bristol, Tenn., was here last week buying horses. He purchased a nice sorrel horse of R. D. Motley at $120, a large roan horse from Amos Nickell at $125, a fine bay horse of F. McGuire at $110, and a sorrel from Columbus Gillespie at $115, paying cash in hand. He will be here again in December, due notice of which will be given in this paper, and will then want two or three carloads of good plug horses. He says the horses here are generally of good size, &c., but in condition for the market. We hope our farmers and others will take the hint and put their stock in order. He is a large buyer, handling from 1,000 to 1,500 horses every year, and his visits should be encouraged.

Rev. John I. Rogers, State evangelist of the Christian Church, preached in the Christian Church at this place, Friday night of last week to a good congregation. The "Fun" Arrived from West Liberty here he had attended the Annual meeting. He reports the church at that place in a splendid condition. He further states that he finds the people of the mountains ahead of other sections of the State in point of religion. Bro. Rogers is the right man in the right place. His sermon here was a masterpiece of logic and showed him to be thoroughly imbued with biblical knowledge.

Correspondents will oblige us by sending in their favors by Thursday and Friday of each week. We commence setting type for next week's paper as soon as this one is printed, and when letters reach us later than the days indicated it is frequently impossible to print them. We have the type in other matter, and have not the time to tear it down and set it up again. Attention to this will nearly assure the insertion of your letter, save us labor, and assist us in making the paper better.

Aye's Hair Vigor promotes a growth, and improves the beauty of the hair. It imparts an attractive appearance, a delightful and lasting perfume. While it stimulates the roots, cleanses the scalp, and adds elegance to luxuriance, its ingredients are harmless, and its effects are enduring; and thus it proves itself to be at once the best and cheapest article for toilet use.

We do not have oysters on the half-shell, soft-shell crabs, &c., but we do have awful nice beef, and at 6c. a pound for choice.

CORRESPONDENCE

MORGAN COUNTY.

OMER, Sept. 24.—The reception given by Dr. W. G. Carter to his son Dr. L. D. Carter and bride, on the 16th inst., was one of the grandest affairs ever held in West Liberty. An elegant supper was prepared, and before the guests were invited out to partake of the many luxuries, a signal for silence was given, and with bated breath all waited, eager and anxious to know what was coming. Suddenly Jas. H. Burns and Miss Mary Carter entered the room, attended by John W. Henry and Miss Ada Kendall, and were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. W. B. Bagan officiating. A lovely couple never stood at the altar, and their many friends wish them a long and happy life. Madam Rumor has long prophesied the union of this couple, but no one was expecting it at this particular time. May they go down the stream of life rich in the enjoyment of the realization of "Love's Young Dream."

We inadvertently failed to mention the death of Mrs. Eliza Perry, the wife of Sam Perry, which occurred on the 27th of August. The deceased was a member of the Christian Church, and lived an exemplary life, dying as she had lived, in the triumph of a living faith. She was a kind and loving mother, a devoted wife, and a true friend.

Last Monday evening Misses Anna Kendall and Willie Ladd were on their way to this place in a buggy, and their driver ran upon a steep bank, upsetting the buggy. Fortunately none of the occupants were seriously hurt.

At the residence of the bride's father, David Carter to Miss Nettie Cottle. Reception at Eli Hershey's this evening. Some of the boys will give them a grand serenade.

J. W. Perry and wife, James Peyton, Matthew Carpenter, Arthur Carpenter, and several others from this place took in the Annual Meeting at West Liberty Sunday.

Miss Annie Kendall spent Monday and Tuesday in this neighborhood, and went on to End to visit her sister, Mrs. Dr. A. B. Nickell.

W. W. Carpenter's school at Bethel near this place, is progressing finely. He is giving universal satisfaction.

Mrs. Reuben Cox is dangerously ill with whooping cough. She is forty-five years of age.

Born—To the wife of J. J. McGuire, a boy; also to the wife of Allen Day, a boy.

Mrs. Albert Carpenter, whom we reported very ill last week, is no better.

O. P. Carter bought of Jasper Perry two yoke of oxen at fair prices.

Corn cutting and wheat sowing is the order of the day.

Old Aunt Selina Day is very sick. Whooping cough is unabated.

CRICKET.

EZEL, Sept. 25.—On the 16th which was sale day at this place, a large crowd gathered in town, and as the crowd increased the inducements for King Alcohol were strong. So he put in his appearance, and as he is very industrious, he was not long in stirring up a row. The result was several pecked heads, and the wildest time Ezel has yet seen. Jeff. Pieratt, one of the principals of the row, in company with Boyd Richardson, has skipped to the West. The other boys have had their trials, and it is hard money to pay—something and get nothing—but this is the way this King always pays his subjects.

Miss Annie Woolery, who has been visiting her brother at this place returned home a few days ago, and now there may be seen a young man standing on the corners, who seems to say "It might have been."

James Dennis, who was Marshal at this place, has resigned. We suppose that official and matrimonial thoughts were too much for Jim to master at the same time.

Wagons and buggies, loaded with the people of our town, leave today to attend the Annual Meeting at Campton.

J. S. Nickell is adding another house to his mansion which, when completed, will be a new model building.

T. F. Carr has sold his lot on Broadway and bought another on Fair View, where he will build soon.

J. M. Pieratt is in Cincinnati buying goods. (Lack of space prevents publication of stock sales. We cannot publish those of Hazel Green.)—Editor.

GRASSY CREEK, Sept. 27.—D. A. Sheets and family will start on the 29th inst. for Grayson county, Va., which place he intends to make his future home. He gave us $1 for THE HERALD one year, which we will order to that place.

Most of your correspondents are saying something about "Our Press." I suppose it will not be out of order for me to say something about "Our Bill" which we feel confident should be permitted to go to Congress and stay until times get better.

J. A. C. Murphy (Dink) sold a four-year-old horse for $112.50; Henry Murphy sold a horse for $120, and Lee Caskey sold a steer at $55.

Burt, come to the front and tell us what is the matter. Was there nothing transpired in your locality last week worthy of note?

Wm. Goodpaster, of Omer, was up a few days ago to see about some hogs he has been feeding in this neighborhood.

Cyrus B. Perry sold a nice lot of sheep to Amos and Sanford Davis.

Rev. Jas. Wheeler, of this place, has been attending the Association in Pike. Frank Gevedon, confined to his bed for sometime, is improving.

Several persons here attended the Annual Meeting at Campton.

Farmers are now cutting corn and sowing wheat.

Died—Infant child of Jas. McClure.

MAYTOWN, KY., Sept. 22.—W. T. Day is building him a fine house on the lot where his house was burned. It will cost him, when finished, $1500.

W. W. Manker is running his mill day and night to keep up with his custom. He is doing first-class work.

M. G. Dunaway has gone to Lexington with fifty dozen chickens for that market.

Born—To the wife of R. A. Childers, a bouncing big boy—Grover Cleveland. LICK SKELETON.

BREATHITT COUNTY.

JACKSON, Sept. 24.—The Jackson Literary Club resumed operation Friday night the 24th inst. It adjourned last night the 21st Monday in September, but the president failed to call a meeting and it went over till last Friday night. Officers were elected as follows: President, Floyd Higgins; Vice-President, J. Wise Higgins; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Sallie A. Patrick; Recording Secretary, W. E. Bryant; Treasurer, Miss Katie Patrick; Sergeant-at-arms, J. G. Combs. The retiring president, Rev. J. Dickey, when re-nominated for re-election asked the house to excuse him as he had held the position for three years and to elect Mr. Higgins. The subject for debate at the next weekly meeting is "Should the general Government aid the States in educating the children?"

There are quite a number of cases of flux in this county, but we have only heard of two cases proving fatal in the last week. One was Mrs. Harvey of Troublesome, and Willie Cleveland, infant son of Nathan and Margaret Sally of Lost Creek.

Samuel Cole, of Booneville, proposes to move to Jackson and go into merchandising. He is preparing to build a business house and residence on the lot adjoining W. S. Haddix's hotel on the east.

J. B. Marcum and John E. Patrick, members of the Jackson bar, attended court at Hunting Creek last Saturday. This is the first court Mr. Patrick has practiced in for several years.

Floyd Higgins, of Quicksand, is teaching our public school instead of J. J. C. Back who undertook it. Mr. Back has gone to Magoffin county to teach a school that he had engaged there.

Morgan Spencer, of Wolfe county, who has been here all summer working on the Academy, visited his home last week. Rev. W. B. Cooper has gone to visit his family and attend Synod at Richmond Ky., where it meets Oct. 13th.

Billy Russell, son of A. C. Russell, of Troublesome, is sick with flux at Hiram Center, his brother-in-law.

Mr. James Hargis is having his new residence painted. It will be one of the finest in the county.

Grandma Cardwell has been laid up for several days with erysipelas in one of her lower limbs.

Seldon and Eddie Hargis, little sons of A. H. Hargis, have been quite ill for several days.

Hon. G. N. Sewell is on a visit to relatives in Montgomery county.

ROUSEAU, Sept. 17.—Our stock sale, which we spoke of in our last letter, promises to be a grand success. The following is a list of the sales last Saturday: Wm. Lovely to Wilson Howard, one 3-year-old heifer, $18 50

Jas. Howard to R. M. Quinn, one steer, 13 50

Jas. Whitt to Sam Patton, one mule, 70 00

Wm. Lovely to Jack Lovely, one 2-year-old heifer, 13 00

Jas. Whitt to John Allen, 3 yoke oxen, 91 00 making a total of $225.50, far better than we expected for the short notice given. By letting the outside world know through THE HERALD that the next sale day is on Saturday, Oct. 9th, or just the Saturday before the sale at Hazel Green each time, we expect more buyers and plenty of stock. This gives buyers time to drive from here to Hazel Green market, and on to Mt. Sterling, &c. J. W. Miller is our auctioneer.

G. W. and J. Patton, of the first part, and Sam Allen and others of the second part, were engaged in a shooting affray last Sunday. Fortunately no lives were lost. I think applejack was the cause.

R. M. McQuinn has gone to Frankfort on business connected with his logging interests, and will be absent several days.

Wm. Lovely started out Monday with his cane mill, to make sorghum for the people.

Miss Lizzie Lindon, of Red River, is visiting her grandfather, Shack Allen.

Corn cutting is in order, and the corn is of a good average. BRISTON.

Tells What He Knows of WINTERSMITH'S CHILL CURE.

OFFICE OF THE COURIER-JOURNAL, LOUISVILLE, KY. Dr. Wintersmith, Sir: I value a rule I have observed for many years, the value of your remedy promptly to me to say, in reply to your request, what I know of your Chill Cure. The private assurances of its efficacy I had, and the good results of its effects I had observed on Mr. R. W. Meredith, who for more than fifteen years, has been foreman of my office. I have been entirely satisfied. The results have been entirely satisfactory. I believe every two years' standing, in which I believe every know a remedy had been tried with temporary relief, the chills returning periodically and seemingly with increased severity. Your cure broke them for a side, and there has been no recurrence of them for more than six months. The other case was of a milder form, and yielded more readily to other remedies; but the chills would return at intervals, until your medicine was used, since which time, no several months, they have entirely disappeared. From the opportunity I have had to judge, I do not hesitate to express my belief that your Chill Cure is a valuable specific, and performs all you promise for it. Very respectfully, W. N. HALDEMAN.
