STATE SUNSHINE AND SHADOW.

WM. BECKETH was convicted of the murder of Marshal John T. Hubbard at Louisville in 1887.

At Falmouth, Jeff Bray received a sentence of sixteen years for the murder of Thornton Lucas last fall.

LEDWAY LEWIS, who killed his father in Harlan, recently, has been taken to Stanford jail for safe keeping.

PNEUMONIA is the prevailing disease at Maysville, and the mortality for the past two weeks has been unprecedented.

ELZA CARPENTER, aged 24 years and unmarried, was drowned at the Forge mill dam, in Slate creek, two miles east of Owingsville.

ABRAHAM CLINE, who has been mysteriously missing from Indianapolis for nearly a year, has turned up in Louisville alive and well.

THE Maysville Democrat has changed its name as well as ownership. It is now known as The Commonwealth, and Hon. Samuel M. Gaines is the proprietor and editor.

JUDGE THOMPSON, of Louisville, decided that horse racing is not a game of chance, and that the pool rooms could not be closed as they were doing a legitimate business.

It is reported that W. H. Pope, former teller of the City National bank, Louisville, who disappeared about a year ago with $70,000 of the bank's funds, has been caught, and that part of the money will be recovered.

A SOCIETY belle at Dover gave birth to a child and hid it under an old kettle in the back yard, where it died from neglect. A prominent young man of that town is supposed to be the father of the babe. Great excitement prevails.

JOHN WILLIAMS, of Hopkinsville, a brakeman on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, fell from the top of a moving freight train at Guthrie and had both legs broken below the knee. The shattered bones protruded through the flesh.

At Hopkinsville, last Friday, Robert Appleton and Miss Kate Witty were married in a buggy in front of a livery stable. The lady was visiting relatives. Appleton took her buggy riding, proposed, was accepted, and obtaining a license they were married.

IN the trial of Will Dudley, colored, charged with the murder of his stepfather, Mason Thomas, at Georgetown, the jury disagreed and were discharged. Tom Trumbough, colored, charged with the murder of Wm. E. Wade, was discharged on the ground of self-defense.

DAN DOUGLAS was accidentally shot in his shooting gallery by a colored girl, named Emma Hickman. He stooped to pick a cartridge from the floor, and just as he raised up the girl pulled the trigger. A large hole had been inflicted by the bullet in the right temple and the brains were oozing out. Emma is in jail. This at Louisville.

THE citizens of Black Oak Bottom, Lewis county, have been greatly annoyed by thieves during the past winter, but have been unable to locate the guilty parties. Last week two farmers lost a lot of meat, corn and chickens, and next morning followed a trail to a point ten miles below on the river and found the stolen goods on a family boat.

ON Friday last, Wm. T. Cundiff, of Texas, obtained a judgment in the Federal court at Louisville for $10,000 damages. Three years ago Cundiff lived near Columbia, and for some reason was unpopular. One night twenty of his neighbors came to his house to carry out a threat previously made to flog him. He met them with a shot gun and killed Tarlton Bradshaw, one of their number. Soon after he moved to Texas, and in 1889 he was brought back upon an indictment for the murder of Bradshaw, but was acquitted. His trial cost him heavily, and he at once began suit to recover. His judgment is against well-to-do citizens near Columbia.

A Never Failing Remedy.

OVER THE WORLD IN A WEEK.

—Lucas Corust, aged 82 and very decrepit, was married to Mary Fregor, aged 47, at Columbus, Ind., last week. The groom has been three times married and raised a family of eight children, while the bride has been married four times besides this, and four times divorced. All of her husbands are yet alive, except one who was drowned. She has a family of three children.

—Celestine Kaltenbach, the oldest postmaster in the Northwest, died Tuesday night at his home in Potosi, Wis., aged 85. He was appointed postmaster at Potosi in 1838, and, with the exception of two years, held the position until his death.

—Thomas Massey, a prominent merchant of Milwaukee, Wis., while leaning out of his attic window to dislodge some icicles, lost his balance and fell to the sidewalk below. His skull was fractured and his neck broken, causing instant death.

—The Tennessee legislature last week passed a bill requiring all railroads, whether run by steam or electricity, to provide separate cars for white and colored passengers, and to see that the latter rode in the cars provided for them.

—While Mrs. Ferguson, wife of Col. D. P. Ferguson, of Milnor, Ga., was dressing her three-month-old baby in front of the fireplace, the child bounced from its mother's lap into the fire and burned to death.

—Half of the regular police force, forty mail carriers, fifty postal clerks, and hundreds of others at Chicago, Ill., are suffering with la grippe. As pneumonia follows in many cases, the mortality is great.

John Pinnell, traveling for Monroe Bros. & Co., Philadelphia, died suddenly at Clarksburg, W. Va., from nervous prostration and insomnia, resulting from alcoholism.

—Miss Ida Burkey, a young lady residing at Petersburg, Ohio, while standing in front of a grate, had her clothing ignited, causing injuries that resulted in her death.

—John Laughman, a saloon keeper at Lima, Ohio, took a dose of sugar of lead instead of salts, the two being in similar packages behind the bar. His life is despaired of.

—A south-bound train on the Chesapeake and Nashville railroad jumped the track recently at Bechtage, Tenn. The mail car and contents were burned.

—The special train carrying the remains of Senator Hearst arrived in San Francisco on Friday last, and the funeral took place Sunday afternoon.

—Francis Murphy, the great temperance orator, concluded a ten days' meeting at Warsaw, Ind., by holding a monster farewell last Wednesday.

—Levees on the Lower Mississippi are breaking on account of high water and all the lowlands are flooded, causing serious damage to plantations.

—Corporal Tanner of pension fame has been appointed member of the State Railroad and Warehouse commission by Gov. Fifer of Illinois.

—Eight miners descending a coal shaft at LaSalle, Ill., fell a distance of 400 feet. All were badly bruised, but none fatally injured.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce GEORGE W. DRAKE as a candidate for Sheriff of Wolfe County, subject to action of the Democratic party.

For Register of the Land Office.

The great big heart of the Sentinel-Democrat goes out in sympathy for poor old Uncle Tom Corbett as we pencil these lines, heralding to a politically paralyzed populace, the sad intelligence that your Uncle Thomas has at last a running mate for the Democratic nomination for Register of the Land office.

Judge G. B. Swango, of Wolfe county, member of the Constitutional Convention from the counties of Montgomery, Powell, Wolfe and Menefee, is announced as a candidate for that office, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Judge Swango is our friend and neighbor; Uncle Thomas is our friend, and whatever follows in support of the claims of our friend and neighbor, arises from the fact that we do not "love Caesar less, but Rome more," and the odium of comparison is not to be understood.

Judge Swango is one of the best known men in this section of the State, and as a citizen, an official and a Democrat, there is not a blot upon his record. Faithful and true in all the relations of life, he commands universal esteem, and he possesses sufficient qualifications to discharge well the duties of any office to which he might aspire. He has made his mark in the Con. Con. as one of the most active and level-headed men in that august assembly, and the fruits of his labor and judgment will tell for good in the new constitution, if adopted.

LATER.—Since writing the above it has assumed the aspect of a tri-nominal derby, Maj. Alex. Grant, of Franklin county, a well known and popular Democrat, having just announced his candidacy for the nomination.—Sentinel Democrat.

As Others See Him.

Hon. G. B. Swango, of Wolfe county, is announced as a candidate for Register of the Land Office, subject to the action of the Democratic State convention. Judge Swango has served one or two terms in the legislature, has been county judge of his county, and is now a member of the Constitutional Convention. He is in every respect competent and well fitted for the efficient discharge of the duties of the office to which he aspires, and if nominated his administration of the affairs of the office will be alike creditable to himself and the people of the State. He is by birth and residence an Eastern Kentucky or mountain man, and will doubtless receive a pretty solid vote from the eastern section of the State.—Cattlettsburg Democrat.

Cut His Throat.

Another breeze of excitement struck our city yesterday noon. Young George Anderson, aged about 20, son of Dr. Bob, had a difficulty with a negro named Jim Ewing, over the Rhine, in which Ewing completely severed the large muscle of his neck on the left side, missing the jugular by a hair's breadth. It is said that the negro was playing a black snare on the negro's head at the time he was wounded and that the negro was a Democrat.
