Old papers for sale at this office at 20¢ per 100.

James and Charley Bolin, of Ezel, were guests of Howard DeBusk new year's day.

Miss Emma Oldfield, of Grassy, was the guest of her cousin, Miss Fanny DeBusk, last Saturday and Sunday.

Buford Pieratt and Tommy Daniels, of Ezel, were visiting relatives and friends in town Saturday and Sunday.

Several new scholars from a distance matriculated at the academy on Monday, and the outlook is very encouraging.

Candidates for assessor should avail of the opportunity to announce for $3. They will never have a better chance.

Don't say "what fur?" but read the ad. of E. Renaker & Co., Winchester, and ship them your furs, if you want the best prices.

Jack Wood writes us to change his paper "from Lock Spring, Mo., to Lovell's Bend, Cook county, Texas, as he is lost without it."

Henry Pieratt on Thursday sold to John H. Rose, the blacksmith, the house and lot on High street, which Mr. Rose has occupied for three years past, for $600.

Jeff M. Rose had his fine premium heifer to die on Monday night last. She had eaten into a straw stack and became fastened in some way so that she smothered to death.

Rev. F. Agar will preach at the mission room, Maytown, every fourth Sunday morning and night, and hold a bible class every Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. All are welcome.

Mispah Lodge, No. 507, F. & A. M., meets in its new hall tomorrow, Saturday night, and will have work in the third degree. Members may govern themselves accordingly, and attend.

W. O. Mize left Tuesday morning for Frankfort to resume the duties of enrolling clerk of the senate, accompanied by his son Carl, who goes to Centre College, Danville, to take up his studies.

The attention of our readers is especially invited to the new advertisement of Rose & Jones. All who seek bargains in winter garments, and especially ladies' cloaks, should give them a call.

Dr. Taulbee reports as follows: Born—To the wife of James Wilson, near Daysborough, a boy—dead; Uncle Joe H. Amyx is very low with catarrh of the stomach and not expected to live.

William Ohair on Tuesday last brought to this office three specimens of rock which show a rich vein of metal of some kind, and we would not be surprised to hear that it is gold. If it is, Bill divides with us, and our rich kin should now do something for us if they expect to be remembered.

John H. Pieratt, the well known auctioneer and livery man of Hazel Green, says of Quinn's Ointment. "One of my horses had his knee so badly strained that he had no use of it and dragged as he hobbled on three legs; it was very much swollen, and I bought a bottle of Quinn's Ointment from Rose & Jones. Two applications brought him around all right, and I can recommend it as the best remedy I have ever tried. I thought the price, $1.50 per bottle, pretty high, but am now convinced that it is very cheap because it does the work quickly." For sale by Rose & Jones.

Two men killed and two wounded was the result of a row in Magoffin county last week. The particulars as we hear them are as follows: Sometime in the first of the week three of the Risners beat up Bill Deskins with their fists, and he had them arrested for trial at Salyersville. During the trial they escaped and were followed by Irvine Bill Patrick, Shepherd Cole, Wm. Deskins, Mont Deskins, Lige and Brice Patrick and John Davis, who came upon them on the Gardner branch. A fight ensued in which John Davis and Irvine Bill Patrick were killed, while Bill Deskins and Brice Patrick were wounded. The Risners again escaped and are still at large. We have no particulars and do not know who is to blame.

Notice.

All delegates to the convention must purchase regular one-way tickets to Louisville, and at the time of said purchase must procure from the agent a certificate showing that full fare had been paid going. This certificate should be endorsed in proper blank for that purpose by the secretary of the meeting, to the effect that the party named was a delegate and in attendance, and upon presentation of this certificate, properly endorsed, to ticket agent at Louisville within forty-eight hours after adjournment, he will sell special tickets for the return passage at one third of the regular one-way rate.

J. T. Day & Co., will on Wednesday, Feb. 15, 1893, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, the following stock to close partnership. Goldust, Post Boy, Jr., and John Morgan, beside a lot of mules and some other stock. For particulars see this paper next week. The firm also desires that those indebted to them call and settle at once. The business must be closed, as Mr. Floyd Day, of the firm, will locate at another point and cannot attend to details here.

A Sunday-school mass meeting—undenominational—will be held at Campton next Sunday, Jan. 8th, conducted by Mr. E. S. Boswell, state visitor of the Kentucky S. S. union. Come over and bring all your workers. Notify all schools within your reach. Truly, F. A. SAVAGE.

O. K. Dearing who has been with J. T. Day & Co., of this place, for seven months past, left Tuesday for Poplar Plains, Fleming county. Mr. Dearing is a fine salesman, and the house that can secure his services will find in him an energetic, industrious, sober, live man.

CAMPTON CURRENCY.

CAMPTON, Wolfe county, Jan. 4.—G. W. Drake, detective for the K. U. Railroad company, has just returned from Southern Kansas, whence he had followed one John Schull of Stanton, Powell county. He captured him and brought him back to Stanton. Schull was accused of breaking into some freight cars and stealing some goods belonging to the K. U. Railroad company about two months ago. He will have trial today.

Died—On the 1st inst., Jeremiah Elkins, the father of W. F. Elkins, J. R. Elkins, etc., after a brief illness of about twelve days. His trouble was dropsy, which resulted from heart failure and old age. He was more than 80 years old.

The people had a nice Christmas tree on Saturday evening before Xmas. There was some little disturbance in town after the distribution was over. No serious results, however.

Jacob Fuls, who has been attending the Kentucky Wesleyan college at Winchester for some time, has returned to Campton and has entered school here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Vaughn are much better at this time. It is thought that they will soon be able to attend to business affairs again.

There has been a revival meeting in progress here for several days under the management of Revs. Bivens and Savage. Good results.

A. C. Byrd has been employed by Messrs. Byrd and Taulbee to teach the primary department in their school.

The Campton high school has opened up with a good attendance. Quite a number from a distance.

Died—Dec. 31st, the infant of J.

N. Vaughn and wife. It was about two or three months old.

There was quite a number in town Monday, attending county court.

ST. HELENS SAYINGS.

ST. HELENS, Lee county, Jan. 2.—The Hope Mill mining and lumber company have arrived with their machinery, ready to set their mill in operation as soon as they get the side-tracks built. Work will commence this week, and will be pushed rapidly until they have the mill in operation. A Mr. Nye, of Cincinnati, is the chief manager. He is a thorough business man in every sense of the word. We feel safe in saying that it will be a success in every respect.

A wedding party stayed in our place last Saturday night, from near Booneville. We never learned the names of the contracting parties, only that the groom was a Mr. Moore, of Ohio, and the bride a young Miss Wilson, of Owsley. They took the train Sunday morning for their Ohio home.

Hieronimus & Simms shipped four car loads of work oxen to Lexington last week. They were purchased by a steam distillery company at that place.

In a difficulty last week Rufus Hill stabbed John Staniford, and at last reports Staniford was considered in a dangerous condition.

Judge Robert Riddell was registered at the McGuire House last Sunday night, en route to Beattyville to attend court.

Grant Walton, of Montana, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Lucy Belle McGuire visited Beattyville last week. LORENA.

EZEL EVOLUTIONS.

EZEL, Jan. 2.—In reply to numerous inquiries asking if "Ethan" has "spiked" me to the wall? I will say that I am only waiting for Republicans and the Peoples party folks to get all the consolation they can out of Ethan Spike's reply. Then I will blurt again, as I have plenty of it cut and dried. It is not difficult for any one to see sights on such subjects. Just close your eyes and reflect on the political outrages of the past, when—"presto," you have a volume.

On last Tuesday the following officers were elected for Ezel Lodge, No. 550, F. A. M.:

- Asa B. Nickell, W. M.
- A. B. Pieratt, S. W.
- T. F. Carr, J. W.
- H. M. Fannin, Treas.
- J. S. Nickell, Sec'y.
- James A. Nickell, S. D.
- W. C. Hill, J. D.
- John Ratliffe, Tyler.
- Obadiah Sexton, Chap.

James Lykins, Elmer Hayes and Harvey Nickell, all from West Liberty, were in town last week. All three are candidates for the same position.

A. T. Pieratt last week took advantage of a nice lot of zero, and now has it in close quarters.

R. H. Bolin last week sold his farm to S. G. Sample for $900.

Bill Kash is very sick with fever at Presley Sexton's. BLURT.

A VALUABLE FARM FOR : SALE!

As agent of the owner, I offer for sale, at private contract, a valuable farm in Morgan county, Ky., containing 108 ACRES, MORE OR LESS.

This farm is located 6 miles east of Hazel Green, on the road leading from Bethsalem church to West Liberty, and is only one-half mile from the church building. Adjoining the place is the public school building for the district. There is a 3-room dwelling on the place, in good repair, and a good barn 30x40 feet.

Sixty acres of the land is cleared and the remainder covered with a virgin forest of Oak, Pine, Poplar, etc.

There is a splendid well of water and a fine young orchard of 50 bearing apple trees on the place.

$1,000 will buy the place; $500 in cash and balance in one and two years with equal notes at 6 per cent. well secured. For further particulars, address
