An Examination for Non-Graduate Physicians.

OFFICE OF STATE BOARD OF HEALTH,
BOWLING GREEN, KY., May 10, '94
To the public: The state board of health will hold a meeting for the examination of non-graduate applicants for certificates to practice medicine under the recently enacted amendment to the medical practice law, at the medical department of the university of Louisville, Louisville, Ky., beginning at 9 a. m., Thursday, June 14, 1894, this being the day the amendment goes into operation.

Only persons presenting satisfactory evidence that they were reputably and honorably engaged in the practice of medicine in this state as an occupation prior to February 23, 1894, and that they are persons of good moral and professional character, will be eligible for examination.

The moral and professional character of the applicant and the credibility of the witnesses as to the length of time he has been engaged in the practice in this state, must be certified to by the medical referee of the county in which such persons reside, or must be submitted to this board ten days prior to the date of the examination. When practicable, the witnesses should be medical men.

All examinations will be conducted in writing, and while practical in character, will be fully sufficient to test the ability of the applicant to practice medicine with safety to the people; and, to be successful, each applicant to practice medicine must make a grade of not less than seventy in each branch.

As this provision was made by the general assembly for the special benefit of worthy persons who have been reputably engaged in the practice of medicine for ten years, but are unable to comply with the present law, and yet cannot bear the expense and loss of time involved in a regular course in a medical college, no fee will be charged for examination.

By order of the board.
J. M. MATHEWS, M. D., Pres.
J. N. MCCORMACK, M. D., Sec'y.

Dr. S. F. Scott, Blue Ridge, Harrison county, Mo., says: "For whooping cough Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is excellent." By using it freely the disease is deprived of all dangerous consequences. There is no danger in giving the remedy to babies, as it contains nothing injurious. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by John M. Rose.

TEXAS TLAK.

A Budget of News From the "Lone Star" State—Interesting Reading.
Owing to press of business I was unable to write anything last week or the week before.

B. W. Bullocks, one of our most respectable citizens, has a sixteen-month old Jersey heifer that has a calf and is a splendid milker.

I see J. H. Vest has his announcement in THE HERALD as a candidate for justice of the peace. I am acquainted with Mr. Vest and know him to be a first class gentleman. Success to you, uncle.

We are still having good rains in Texas, and the crops are all looking well. Oats is now made and as fine as I ever saw. Corn is about waist high and is well stalked. Cotton is looking fine considering the recent heavy rains.

Some of the papers speaking of the tramping-on-to-Washington army speak of the division from California and the division from Texas. I have seen no account of any such company organized in Texas. The Frye army which passed through our state were not of us. If I am not mistaken, when it got out of this state it was not quite as large as when it entered at El Paso. Texas feels somewhat the effect of the general hard times all over the country, but there is plenty of work to do here and no occasion for armies of unemployed Texans to go tramping over the country on a wild goose chase. The tone of the papers is considerably changed in reference to the whole matter. A spell of seriousness seems to be coming over the country and what the outcome of so many men without money gathered at Washington will be, can not be divined. The publicity given the whole matter in the daily press from its incipency has no doubt added greatly to the results. Without the daily write-ups of the press the discontent and the gathering of discontented men would not have been near so large. What was a mole hill in the beginning by the enterprising press in its effort to make news has been magnified into a mountain. To say the Coxyites are tramps and cranks does not remove the serious difficulties of their course, but on the other hand makes the matters all the more serious. The right of petition belongs to all classes. That can not be denied in this free government. The unemployed have as much right to go to Washington and petition, or even lobby, congress, as railroad men, or bankers, or factory barons. But the right to petition congress does not imply the right to thrust themselves in great bodies upon private citizens for their support. It does not include the right to trespass upon the property of others, even if the others are rich. A wiser and more effective course for these men to have pursued would have been to have sent delegates to represent them. If they are what they claim to be—unemployed elaborating men—they no doubt have the sympathy of the communities where they live. Enough money could have been raised among their sympathizers to have sent respectable delegations to Washington which would have commanded the respect of congress and the country. If congress was run on any sort of business principles it might have been in such shape that it could have adjourned and left the snipe hunters holding the bag until such time as they seeing their folly would scatter in real search of labor, or return to their homes. But as matters now stand it seems to be inevitable that the people of Washington are soon to have a great many people on their hands whom they hardly know what to do with.

Gold Discovered in Lawrence County.
F. M. Wiley, a farmer residing in Lawrence county, while plowing on his farm a short time ago discovered an ore with the resemblance of gold and silver. He sent the ore to Atlanta to be assayed. The report of the assayers shows that the mine is very rich, the gold being estimated at $190 per ton, while there is found in the same vein silver in paying quantities. A stock company will soon be formed to develop the mine.

The Declamatory Contest.

The second annual Bluegrass declamatory contest which will be held in the opera house this city Friday evening June 1st, bids fair to be one of the principal events of the kind in the state and is already evoking much interest in many places. Prof. A. C. Flesman, who has had the matter in charge, has spared neither pains or expense to make it a success. Two handsome gold medals will be awarded and speculation is rife as to who will win them.

The judges selected, all of whom have signified their acceptance, are Gov. John Young Brown, Judge T. J. Scott and Rev. T. W. Watts, of Maysville. Gov. Brown will make the presentation speech, conferring the medals.

The following is the program.
Spencer Best, Millersburg training school, Millersburg, "Doom of Claudius and Cynthia."

Hugh Mann, Harrodsburg academy, Harrodsburg, "A Vision of the Past." Thos. H. Bailard, city school, Lexington, "The Maid of Orleans."

Henry Clay Lacy, Hazel Green academy, Hazel Green, "Pyramids not all Egyptian."

Weldon J. Simpson, city school, Nicholasville, "Appomattox."
W. G. Prather, city school, Flemingsburg, "My Country, My Mother, My God."

James M. Sausley, city school, Stanford, "Spartacus to the Gladiators."
Jesse Holman, city school, Harrodsburg, "The Curse of Regulus."

Hughes Curry, city school, Winchester, "The Corsicans."
Samuel F. Maguire, city school, Danville, "The Abandoned Troop Horse."

This program will be interspersed with good music and a delightful time is anticipated.—Winchester Democrat.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Herndon Entertain.
Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Herndon entertained a number of their young friends at progressive pedro in quite an elegant manner. The evening was an exceedingly pleasant one for all those present who were loud in their praise of the hostess' art in entertaining. The enjoyment of the evening was also heightened by the delightful music furnished by Miss Nellie Swetnam's sweet voice and guitar, and the mandolin in the hands of that skillful young musician, Mr. William Silcott. At 10:30 o'clock delicious refreshments were served, and here the hostess was beautifully assisted by that charming young lady, Miss Mary Bromley.

The prize, a little brown jug and a souvenir of the World's fair, was won by Mr. W. J. Miller.—Catlettsburg Democrat.
