SHOT IN THE CHIN.

Two Prominent Citizens Have a Difficulty, in Which One Receives a Slight Wound.

Wednesday evening as Richard J. Hunt and Dar L. Smith, two popular farmers of the Grassy Lick precinct this county, the former being a prominent candidate for Democratic nomination for sheriff, were on their way home from this city, they engaged in a heated political discussion, which, one word bringing on another, finally ended in a difficulty in which Mr. Hunt received a slight wound in the chin. The unfortunate occurrence happening near the home of Mr. Smith, this gentleman assisted the man he had wounded to his home, and at once hurried to this city for a physician. Securing one, they immediately returned to Mr. Smith's home, where the doctor, after examining the wounded man, found that the bullet had entered his chin and lodged in his neck. The physician cut the ball from the patient's neck, and a little later Mr. Hunt was removed to his home a few miles distant. The wound is not a dangerous one, and Mr. Hunt will be able to be out in a day or two. Mr. Smith came to town yesterday morning, surrendered to the authorities, and his examining trial was set for Saturday. We do not give any detailed account of this deplorable occurrence, because the facts are meagre, and the participants regret more than words can express that any trouble occurred between them.

The case in a nutshell is that both, perhaps, in a moment of excitement, said and did things that otherwise they would not have done and will ever regret. They are both honorable and intelligent men, and we hope and believe that this experience, unfortunate as it is, will be a lesson to them to keep cool and not get excited in discussions hereafter, and that in the future, as in the past, they will be good friends.—Sentinel Democrat.

Dear Father, Come Home.

Father, dear father, come home with me now, for ma has some carpet to beat; she's got all the furniture out in the road, from the front clear down to the street. The stove must come down and be put in the shed, and the yard must be cleared of dry grass, it's time to clean house and the duce is to pay and the front window needs a new glass. Father, dear father, come home with me now, and bring me some bologna and cheese; it's almost twelve o'clock and there's nothing to eat—I'm so hungry I'm weak in the knees. All the dinner we'll have will be scraps and such, and we'll have to eat standing up too, for the table and chairs are all out in the yard; oh! I wish spring cleaning was through. Father, dear father, come home with me now, for ma is as mad as a Turk; she says you're a lazy old thing, and that she proposes to put you to work. There's painting to do and paper to hang, and windows and casings to scrub, for it's house cleaning time and you've got to come home and revel in suds and cold grub.

Shooting in Christian County.

Saturday afternoon a fatal shooting affray took place near Pilot Rock, a little place in Christian county, nine miles from Hopkinsville. Noel Edwards, who was starting home on horseback, shot and instantly killed Samuel Martin, a neighbor with whom he had some hot words and by whom he was assaulted, when he drew his pistol and fired the fatal shot. John Martin, a brother of the man killed, and James G. Edwards, the father of Noel Edwards, by this time had drawn their weapons and began firing at each other. They continued until both pistols were emptied, twelve shots in all being fired. James G. Edwards was seriously wounded, and Noel Edwards' horse was killed under him. No arrests have been made, and it is understood others intend taking part in the affair, and that the trouble is not yet ended.

Street Fight in Mt. Sterling.

Yesterday evening just before going to press, a street fight came up near this office. Edgar Boyd received a slight stab in the back and Charley Pierce, perhaps a fatal stab in the left breast. Pierce was taken to Dr. Taulbee's infirmary and Boyd to Dr. Chas. Duerson's for treatment. Particulars not known.—Montgomery County Times.

A Valuable Fire Extinguisher.

Mr. H. B. Wells, of the Cincinnati Tin and Japan company gave a practical illustration of the efficiency of the Stempel Fire Extinguisher on the public square, in this place, Tuesday afternoon. A bonfire was built of light pine, which was afterward thoroughly saturated with coal oil. It was then ignited and when the blaze was towering twenty feet high and the heat so intense as to drive the people back for fifty or sixty feet the extinguisher, an insignificant looking affair, was turned loose on it and in five seconds the fire was under complete control and in ten seconds was extinguished. The Stempel Extinguisher is after the manner of the Babcock, inasmuch as it acts chemically. It has many features which are wide improvements over the Babcock, among which are cheapness, ease in handling and the effectiveness of its chemical charge. At the price at which it is sold no establishment or public building can afford to be without them. In 95 cases out of 100 this little machine, with its ten quarts of liquid, would extinguish any fire and save the property, if it was where it could be used.—Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat.

SPENCER COOPER, Hazel Green, Ky., Agent for Wolfe and Morgan counties.

Street Car Company Compromises.

The Ashland and Catlettsburg Electric Street Car company has compromised with the Chesapeake Railroad company. The Street Car company will use one of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad tracks from Pollard's branch, it being as far as the street-car line is completed, to East Catlettsburg. The line will be in operation in less than sixty days.

The Waylayers Waylaid.

Quincy, Joseph and James Tutman waylaid and shot at Samuel Conover and his wife as they drove along the road near Columbia, one day last week. Conover returned the fire and fatally wounded Joseph and Quincy Tutman, and dangerously wounded James Tutman. Conover's wife is a sister of the Tutmans. They did not live peaceably together, and this developed a feud.

When you want a nice dress pattern, fine in fabric and the latest in fashion, send your order to Samuels & King, Mt. Sterling, Ky. They handle dry goods, notions, etc., and can be relied upon to furnish you with the latest and best in any line, and at prices as low as the same class of goods can be bought elsewhere. Or, if you go to that city, do not fail to give them a call, as your visit will be both a surprise and pleasure to yourself.

Trouble between the striking miners and operators at Cripple Creek, Colorado, continue to grow worse.
