WOLFE COUNTY.

Flat Facts.

S. D. Shackelford, of Campton, has recently moved to this section.

Born, on the 25th ult., to the wife of Dillard Bradley, a fine boy.

Aunt Liza White, one of the oldest women in this neighborhood, is quite ill.

W. H. Oliver, who is attending school at your town, was in our midst recently.

Mrs. Ellice Congleton, whom we reported as sick but convalescing in our last letter, is worse at this writing.

The hearts of our people are gladdened once more by the fine prospects for an abundance of fruit this year.

John Shoemaker caught a fish in the Red river, one-half mile above the mouth of upper Devil's creek, that weighed 20 pounds.

The corn planters are commencing to keep time to the melodious notes of the "plow bird," and the more deep and sonorous notes of the "plow man," as he runs the furrows through the soft, loamy soil that is to produce the golden grain that will gladden his waiting heart when the autumn leaves whirl through the hazy atmosphere.

Recently a converted Catholic preached at Antioch. He was educated at Geneva, Switzerland, for a Catholic priest of the Roman Catholic church. He was sent by the mission of that place to the United States to convert us heathens, as we are termed by them. After arriving in this country he was converted to the christian faith, joined the Missionary Baptists, and has ever since been traveling and working for the cause of Christ instead of the Pope of Rome.

The religious circle is agitated from center to circumference in this section of Wolfe and a large portion of Lee. The cause of this commotion is a young man who hails from unknown quarters. He is a reform preacher, and does nothing but "pull and tug" at the Methodist and other churches. He wont get up and preach his doctrine like a gentleman and a christian, but just tries to use the scriptures to condemn and damn to sheol all other denominations but his; but, thank God, he cant do any such thing. I want to ask the good people of the Christian or reform church if this is the kind of preachers they endorse.

SLOCUM.

Lee City Locals.

Mrs. Alexander Caldwell is very low with dropsy.

Joe Allen's son John died on Saturday last with fever.

G. B. Maloney has made quite an improvement on his dwelling.

Lilburn Graham, Joseph Roberts, Bent Little and J. W. Taul-bee, of Daysboro, was in town last week.

Clay Rose has sold several town lots to different parties for the purpose of improvement.

John W. Cravens, representing Rothschilds, Blumenthal & Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, was in town Tuesday and sold some nice bills of goods to our merchants.

R. G. Rose sold his town property and his stock of merchandise to Rose Bros. for the land Rose Bros. got of the Wilson boys, so you see Lee City is on a boom.

Rose Bros. sold their stock of merchandise last week to R. M. and S. J. Wilson for what land said Wilson owned on State Road fork of Red river. Wilson and son took the stock of goods to Caney, Morgan county.

MORGAN COUNTY.

Maytown Missiles.

Weather warm and dry.

Born to the wife of John Manning, a boy; named Jack Howard.

W. P. Sample has fitted up a nice sample room for the accommodation of commercial men.

Millard Ritchey, in company with one of the fair sex of our town, attended preaching at Union Sunday.

A. D. Dye has just completed a new fence in front of the dwelling of W. P. Sample, which has improved the appearance of that part of town.

John W. Cravens, the hustling drummer for the wholesale clothing house of Rothschild, Blumenthal & Co., Cincinnati, was in town Saturday and sold a nice bill of goods.

Since the preacher said he would use his influence against the Sunday-school and prayer meeting of Maytown, we are requested to say that the attendance is on the increase.

J. T. Sexton was on our streets to-day. A young lady informed me that Tom was a standing candidate for matrimony, but was too particular about the age of the one whom he would wed.

W. W. Manker made a business trip to Mt. Sterling last week, and stayed two nights with his old friend and neighbor, E. B. May, and says if he owned one mile square anywhere in this valley he would exchange with E. B. if he did not ask him too much difference.

The cut worm is making a raid on the corn that is up in this neighborhood. H. B. Little says they have destroyed 12 acres of oats and young grass for him in the last few days. A Morgan county man says that if you will shoot a rifle gun across the field they will leave. Would give the gentleman's name but have not the yaller corn to spare.

WINGLESS.

Handsome Spring Stock of Hats.

Mrs. Lou Day has just received her new stock of millinery and millinery goods, including trimmed hats and bonnets in the most fashionable shapes. She has them in all styles and at all prices, from 25c. to $7.00, and the lady who desires to make the best appearance will make a mistake if she fails to call. She also has a beautiful line of ribbons. But those hats—as a lady expressed it last evening—"they are just too lovely."

Bring or send us your job work if you want a nice job.

LIFE SENTENCE OF MURDERERS.

The Jury Spend Less Than Two Hours in the Fields-Adkins Case.

Jesse Fields and Joseph Adkins have been found guilty of the murder of county judge S. H. Combs, of Hazard, Perry county, and their punishment fixed at imprisonment for life in the state penitentiary.

Argument was concluded at 6:15 last Thursday evening. On account of the illness of one of the jurors, who lay on a bed in the court-room, the jury did not retire for deliberation but spent the night in the court-room. At 7:45 o'clock Friday morning the twelve men went into the jury-room. At 9 o'clock they sent word a verdict had been reached. They were brought into court and the following verdict read amid absolute silence:

"We, the jury, find the defendants guilty, and fix their punishment at confinement in the penitentiary for life.

W. P. CHAMCE, Foreman."

The commonwealth's attorney suggested that the verdict be corrected, and read: "We, the jury, agree and find the defendants guilty as charged in the indictments, etc., and the jury and court consented. Immediately the court discharged the jury from further service.

By permission of the court the defendants and their counsel withdrew for consultation, returning in ten minutes with the announcement that a motion and grounds for a new trial would be prepared immediately, and filed with the court, which was done.

The verdict did not seem to have any effect upon the accused, other than to make them appear light-headed, as they indulged in fun-making with their friends. They manifested every indication of hopefulness, and appeared to have implicit confidence in their attorneys and belief in a future new trial.—Barbourville correspondent Courier-Journal.

The Star Spangled Banner's Author.

Many interesting things about Francis Scott Key—the author of the Star Spangled Banner—are contained in a pamphlet, which may be obtained free, from the Key monument association of Frederick City, Maryland, by sending one 2-cent stamp for postage. This association is raising funds for a suitable monument to the poet, and they suggest, that in the schools and everywhere, upon or before flag day (June 14th) this subject be suitably recognized. Contributions, however small, are asked for. Every one who loves the flag ought to have some small share in building this monument. The governor of Maryland has strongly endorsed the movement. The names of all contributors will be preserved in the crypt of the monument, and published (without amount) in the history of the monument when completed.

Whooping Cough.

There is no danger from this disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It liquefies the tough mucus and aids its expectoration. It also lessens the severity and frequency of paroxysms of coughing, and insures a speedy recovery. There is not the least danger in giving the remedy to children or babies, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale by John M. Rose.

When so many people are taking and deriving benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, why don't you try it yourself? It is highly recommended.
